The Debut The Making Of A Filipino American Film:

The Debut Gene Cajayon, John Manal Castro, Dawn Bohulano Mabalon, 2001-01-01 Cultural Writing Screenplay Asian American American Studies Directed by Gene Cajayon and written by Cajayon and John Manal Castro THE DEBUT has triumphed at film festivals This volume features the companion screenplay by Cajayon and Castro including scenes dropped from the final cut full color images from the film and an account by historian Dawn Bohulano Mabalon of Cajayon's struggle to represent Filipino Americans on the big screen More than the story of an ambitious and promising director it is a record of a community supporting one of its own It's great this is thumbs up Roger Ebert at the 2000 Hawaii International Film Festival

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Filipina/x/o American Studies Kevin Leo Yabut Nadal, Allyson Tintiangco-Cubales, E.J.R. David, 2022-09-13 Filipino Americans are one of the three largest Asian American groups in the United States and the second largest immigrant population in the country Yet within the field of Asian American Studies Filipino American history and culture have received comparatively less attention than have other ethnic groups Over the past twenty years however Filipino American scholars across various disciplines have published numerous books and research articles as a way of addressing their unique concerns and experiences as an ethnic group The SAGE Encyclopedia of Filipina x o American Studies the first on the topic of Filipino American Studies offers a comprehensive survey of an emerging field focusing on the Filipino diaspora in the United States as well as highlighting issues facing immigrant groups in general It covers a broad range of topics and disciplines including activism and education arts and humanities health history and historical figures immigration psychology regional trends and sociology and social issues Dream Factories of a Former Colony José B. Capino, 2010 Making the Invisible Visible T. Thatchenkery, K. Sugiyama, 2011-09-08 Making the Invisible Visible is a study of Asian Americans in the workplace and provides a framework through which to transform the same qualities that are contributing to this invisibility phenomenon into a positive leadership approach that provides a counterweight to balance the showmanship approach to leadership Making Home in Diasporic Communities Diane Sabenacio Nititham, 2016-11-03 Making Home in Diasporic Communities demonstrates the global scope of the Filipino diaspora engaging wider scholarship on globalisation and the ways in which the dynamics of nation state institutions labour migration and social relationships intersect for transnational communities Based on original ethnographic work conducted in Ireland and the Philippines the book examines how Filipina diasporans socially and symbolically create a sense of home On one hand Filipinas can be seen as mobile as they have crossed geographical borders and are physically located in the destination country Yet on the other hand they are constrained by immigration policies linguistic and cultural barriers and other social and cultural institutions Through modalities of language rituals and religion and food the author examines the ways in which Filipinas orient their perceptions expectations practices and social spaces to the homeland thus providing insight into larger questions of inclusion and exclusion for diasporic communities By focusing on a range of Filipina experiences including that of nurses international students religious workers and personal assistants Making Home in Diasporic Communities explores the intersectionality of gender race class and belonging As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and anthropology as well as those with interests in gender identity migration ethnic studies and the construction of home

Building Diaspora Emily Ignacio, 2005 Emily Noelle Ignacio explores how Filipinos have used the Internet's subtle cyber but very real social connections to construct and reinforce a sense of national ethnic and racial identity with distant others
