The Dialectics Of Theism:

The Dialectics of Theism Patrick Lambert, 2005 The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular, 2014-05-28 The Dialectics of the Religious and the Secular Studies on the Future of Religion contains the work of fifteen international scholars who have wrestled with the question of the relevancy meaning and future of religion within the context of the increasing antagonisms between the religious and secular realms of modern civil society and its globalization Through their chosen topics in analyzing these issues in the 20th and 21st centuries each author also indicates the possibility of mitigating if not preventing the continuation of this antagonism by historically moving toward a more reconciled and humane future global society Contributors are Branko An i Aleksandra Baranova Roland T Boer Francis Brassard Dustin Byrd Donald Devon III Neven Duvnjak Jan W R Fennema Denis R Janz Dinka Marinovi Jerolimov Gottfried K enzlen Mislav Kuko Michael R Ott Rudolf J Siebert and Ivica Sokol Religion and Dialectics Anthony E. Mansueto, 2002 Religion and Dialectics carries to a new level the critical dialogue between religious belief dialectical thinking and socialist practice which has given birth among other things to the theology of liberation and to a new Marxist sociology of religion The Dialectic of the Holy Robert E. Meditz, 2016-09-12 This is the first published book length treatment on Paul Tillich and Judaism which is a neglected aspect of Tillich s thought It has three compelling features First pivotal biographical details show the importance of Judaism for Tillich and that he ardently opposed anti Semitism before WWII and after the Holocaust Second Tillich s theological method is examined in key primary sources to show how he maintains continuity between Judaism and Christianity The primary source analysis includes his 1910 and 1912 dissertations on Schelling the 1933 The Socialist Decision the 1952 Berlin lectures on the Jewish Question and his final public lecture on the importance of the history of religion for systematic theology Particular attention is paid to his dialectical and theological history of religion Third Tillich s positive theology of Judaism contrasts sharply with the many complex negative ways in which Judaism is portrayed in Western thought This contributes significantly to our understanding the evolving history of Christian anti Judaism The Dialectics of Creation Martin G. Poulson, 2014-03-13 This book investigates the philosophical components of Christian faith in creation by analyzing the distinction and the relation between creation and its Creator The writings of Edward Schillebeeckx and David Burrell supply a terminology of distinction and relation that shapes the discourse following in the footsteps of Aquinas Poulson elucidates the relational dialectic in the thought of Schillebeeckx as a way of thinking about the Creation and offers a helpful comparison with the thought of David Burrell Relational dialectic is an organizing principle not only of Schillebeeckx s account of creation but of his philosophical theology more generally It can operate as a hermeneutic for his material on praxis and humanism in a way that resolves some problems noted by other Schillebeeckx scholars Poulson s interpretation of Schillebeeckx enriches current approaches to this thinker and offers a significant contribution to thinking on the doctrine of Creation and issues surrounding the ontological distinction which is of major concern in philosophical theology today

Theology and the Dialectics of History Robert M. Doran, S.J.,1990-06-01 In this challenging work Robert M Doran explores the basis of systematic theology in consciousness and goes on to consider the practical role of such theology in establishing and fostering communities with an authentic way of life This way of life would counteract the distortions and deformations of humanity that are exemplified by both late capitalism and Marxism Theology positions and interpretations today argues Doran must be stated in the categories of a theory of history The first part of the book outlines the horizon required for such categories The second third and fourth parts incrementally derive the categories expressing a theory of history in terms of the reciprocal relations among subjects cultures and social structures The final part on hermeneutics presents an argument for the pertinence of what has preceded for interpreting the words and deeds of others Doran draws extensively on the thought of Bernard Lonergan and the work develops Lonergan's methodological insights It issues a call to persons genuineness and authenticity informed by religious moral intellectual affective and psychic conversions by interior differentiation of one's consciousness and by Christian faith on the parts of theologians who aspire to arrest effectively the course of cultural decline John Macquarrie, a Master of Theology Owen F. Cummings,2002 This book represents a sympathetic but critical awareness of the theological awareness of John Macquarrie the premier Anglican theologian of our times A Nondualistic Pentecostal Theology Spencer Moffatt,2024-12-15 A Nondualistic Pentecostal Theology Exploring Dialectics and Becoming through Amos Yong and Slavoj Žižek invites readers to consider a dialectical theology for the third millennium grounded in nonduality and expressed from a pentecostal perspective Amos Yong has laid a valuable foundation for such an approach though his work stops short of fully achieving nondualism Despite highlighting diverse voices within pentecostal theology through Pentecost inspired themes systematic complexity and interdisciplinary input Yong still speaks of God in dualistic terms This work identifies missed opportunities to move beyond dualism and addresses them through a coherent nondualistic framework With the aid of Slavoj Žižek the pentecostal imagination reconfigures the essential themes of Yong's theology resulting in a fresh take on pentecostal theology committed to the richness of connection and the expansive potential of becoming Law and Gospel in Emil Brunner's Earlier Dialectical Theology David Andrew Gilland,2013-10-24 The Swiss Reformed Theologian Emil Brunner was one of the key figures in the early 20th century theological movement of Dialectical Theology In this monograph David Gilland offers an account of Bruner's earlier theology in relation to one of the central themes of the Protestant Reformation Law and Gospel He examines Brunner's early relationship with fellow Swiss Reformed theologian Karl Barth and provides a detailed reading of a variety of Brunner's essays from the early to mid 1920s centering on Brunner's efforts to use the law gospel relationship to establish a basis for Christian theology After analyzing the influence this has on Brunner's theological method Gilland examines Brunner's earliest text on Christology The Mediator 1927 In light of the preceding analysis the fourth chapter provides a careful reading of Brunner's controversial polemic against Karl Barth Nature and Grace 1934 The monograph concludes with reflections on Brunner's earlier theological work and his turbulent relationship with Karl Barth Bernard Shaw, Paul Ricoeur, and the Jesusian Dialectics of Redemptive Living Howard Ira Einsohn, 2023-12-27 This book explores a heretofore unremarked linkage between Bernard Shaw the twentieth century French thinker Paul Ricoeur and Jesus of Nazareth The ties that bind them are a foundational interest in the social teachings of the Nazarene and their use of a shared dialectics with respect to living the kind of compassionate life that holds out the promise in our contemporary world of achieving something approximating universal wellness on a healthy planet at peace with itself This work argues that the three principal subjects of the study independently of one another used the same dialectical method to reach the same dialectically derived conclusion about how humans can live redemptively in a fractured world
