Sinking Of The Kenbane Head:

The Sinking of the Kenbane Head Sam McAughtry, 1977 Culture, Northern Ireland, and the Second World War Guy Woodward, 2015-02-12 Culture Northern Ireland and the Second World War explores the impact of the Second World War on literature and culture in Northern Ireland between 1939 and 1970 It argues that the war as a unique interregnum in the history of Northern Ireland challenged the entrenched political and social makeup of the province and had a profound effect on its cultural life Critical approaches to Northern Irish literature and culture have often been circumscribed by topographies of partition and sectarianism but the Second World War generated conditions for reimagining the province within broader European and global contexts These have perhaps been obscured by the amount of critical attention that has been paid to the impact of the Troubles on the culture of the province and for this reason the book focuses on material produced before the flaring of political violence towards the end of the 1960s Drawing on archival research over four chapters the book describes the activities of an eccentric collection of artists and writers during and after the Second World War and considers how the awkward position of the province in relation to the war is reflected in their work The Merchant Seamen's War Tony Lane, 1990 Heroine Of Her Own Life Constance Emmett, 2022-02-15 In early 20th century Belfast working class Meg Preston struggles to accept her own sexuality and yearns for forbidden love Battling the customs and hardships of their time Meg pursues a relationship with her childhood friend Lillian Watson But soon tribulations of war violence and emigration threaten to tear everything apart Seeking refuge for herself her love and her family can Meg find the courage to become the heroine of her own life Convoy Will Scatter Bernard Edwards, 2013-06-12 A naval historian reveals the full story of the HMS Jervis Bay and the merchant ships that valiantly saved lives during the WWII Battle of the Atlantic On November 5th 1940 the thirty eight merchant ships of Convoy HX84 were making their way across the North Atlantic escorted by the armed cruiser HMS Jervis Bay In mid ocean they were attacked by the German pocket battleship Admiral Scheer Though the Jervis Bay charged at the enemy she was hopelessly outgunned Within twenty two minutes the ship was destroyed Meanwhile the merchantmen scattered under the cover of a smokescreen But the radar equipped Admiral Scheer was still capable of picking them off one at a time Captain Hugh Pettigrew commanding the highly armed Canadian Pacific cargo liner SS Beaverford began a desperate game of hide and seek with the Scheer which continued until the Beaverford was sunk with no survivors Thanks to this sacrifice thirty three merchantmen were able to escape Later the neutral flag Swedish freighter Stureholm commanded by Captain Olander picked up survivors from the Jervis Bay While Jervis Bay's Captain Edward Fegen was rightly awarded the Victoria Cross for his bravery and sacrifice the history books only mention the Beaverford and the Stureholm in passing This thrilling book puts the record straight A New History of Ireland Volume VII J. R. Hill, 2003-12-04 A New History of Ireland is the largest scholarly project in modern Irish history In 9 volumes it provides a comprehensive new synthesis of modern scholarship on every aspect of Irish history and prehistory from the earliest geological and archaeological evidence through the Middle Ages down to the present day Volume VII covers a period of major significance in Ireland's history It outlines the division of Ireland and the eventual establishment of the Irish Republic It provides comprehensive coverage of political developments north and south as well as offering chapters on the economy literature in English and Irish the Irish language the visual arts emigration and immigration and the history of women The contributors to this volume all specialists in their field provide the most comprehensive treatment of these developments of any single volume survey of twentieth century Ireland

The Oxford Companion to Twentieth-century Literature in English Jenny Stringer, 1996 Survey of twentieth century English language writers and writing from around the world celebrating all major genres with entries on literary movements periodicals more than 400 individual works and articles on approximately 2 400 authors

Atlantic Convoys and Nazi Raiders Bruce A. Watson, 2005-12-30 In November of 1940 the German pocket battleship Admiral Scheer attacked British Convoy HX 84 The merchant cruiser HMS Jervis Bay a converted passenger liner that was the convoy's only escort armed only with antique 6 inch guns charged the Nazi raider While the Jervis Bay did not stand a chance of surviving the battle her crew's fatalistic bravery inspired awe in all who witnessed the fight Watson recounts how the Scheer's 11 inch guns turned the ship into a burning hulk in twenty two minutes but most of the convoy escaped In November of 1940 the German pocket battleship Admiral Scheer attacked British Convoy HX 84 The Armed Merchant Cruiser HMS Jervis Bay the only escort and mounting antique 6 inch guns charged the Nazi raider While the Jervis Bay did not stand a chance of surviving the battle her crew's fatalistic bravery inspired awe in all who witnessed the fight Watson describes how the Scheer's 11 inch guns turned the converted passenger liner into a burning hulk in twenty two minutes but most of the convoy escaped How did this confrontation come to pass Both the necessity of arming a passenger liner and pretending it was a warship and the building of the Admiral Scheer and her sister ships for the express purpose of commerce raiding find their roots in the events political decisions re armament policies war plans naval traditions and blunders that arose in pre war Britain and Germany But this event holds a significance beyond the battle itself The sinking of the Jervis Bay symbolizes the end of an era in naval warfare The Armed Merchant Cruisers of the Second World War inherited a long sometimes noble and sometimes ignoble history Long employed in blockade or patrol duty armed merchant cruisers ventured out for the first time to escort convoys a defensive duty for which they were eminently unsuited and for which the Jervis Bay paid a fearful price

Naval Ship Models of World War II in 1/1250 and 1/1200 Scales Robert K. Liu, 2021-02-28 A guide for collectors and modelers packed with photos technical information practical advice and history The origins of 1 1250 and 1 1200 scale models can be traced back to the first years of the twentieth century and their use as identification aids by the military during the First World War When peace came the manufacturers aimed their increasingly sophisticated products at collectors and ever since then acquiring enhancing modifying or scratch building miniature ship models has been an avidly pursued hobby around the world This new book focuses on models of the ships of the Second World War and the author addresses all the practical issues that might confront collectors who like to enhance convert and modify their models or even scratch build models of ships not commercially available The book covers both Allied and Axis warships naval airplanes merchant conversions and even an Italian armed schooner and provides historic and technical information on the ships represented as well as practical advice on modeling them including twenty five chapters covering everything from initial production techniques such as spin casting silicon mold casting resin casting die casting plastic mold injection and 3D printing through techniques for enhancing and modifying models to eventually researching and scratch building an uncommon ship or type The focus is always on particular vessels and the vast array covered builds into a fascinating panorama of the vessels that fought across the world s oceans in that era The combination of intriguing background and historical information combined with detailed practical information and more than 300 stunning photographs makes this book irresistible to collectors modelers or anyone with an interest in the navies of the Second World War

The Fourth Service John Slader, 2010-06-04 Here at last is the true story of the merchant fleet during World War II the non fighting service in which 32 000 men died yet whose essential role has never been fully appreciated The author himself a member of the service from 1941 47 relates the stories of merchantmen and their crews with unique insight From the early days of the war to the day of victory on the Rhine through combined operations in the Mediterranean and at Normandy the complete operation of the fleet is examined with vivid accounts of the horrific losses undergone the heroism of the crews and the sacrifices endured to ensure that Britain received its essential supplies of food oil and raw materials Highly illustrated this book will be absorbing for the war historian maritime enthusiast and general reader alike
