Nation's Navy Michael L. Hadley, Robert Neil Huebert, F. W. Crickard, 1996 Bounded by three great oceans Canada stands as a maritime nation with rich seafaring traditions Born of both national and British imperial interests in 1910 and maturing in two world wars its navy is a vital national institution that continues to evolve in response to new and complex challenges A Nation's Navy explores the decisive formative forces of the navy's history and illuminates the characteristically Canadian elements and values that have defined it Prime Ministers of Canada , 2002 Prime Ministers in Canada have provided critical leadership in defending Canada as an independent and sovereign country in North America and in general as a strong and united nation Sir John A Macdonald Canada's first Prime Minister for example championed the development of a transcontinental railway linking Canada from sea to sea the Atlantic Ocean to the Pacific Ocean against threats of manifest destiny by the United States Lester B Pearson for example helped champion Canada's leadership in constructive internationalism via the United Nations as an international peacekeeper Pierre Elliott Trudeau for example championed the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms as a critical contribution to civil rights and human rights in association with constitutional law This book supports a critical appreciation of political leadership by Prime Ministers of Canada via their speeches in association with Canadian political history and social constitutional development The editor of the book presents constitutional and other social cultural values that have been defended by Prime Ministers of Canada in the nation building of Canada and that have been threatened by the Neo Duplessis Jean Chretien Prime Ministerial administration The Editor of the cited book is a member of the University of Toronto community including Heads of State for Canada since the seventeenth century Please note The cited book already includes an appendix with a proposed Canadian Language Act Includes also a speech by Prime Ministerial candidate X concerning a proposed Canadian transcontinental bullet train network Crisis of Conscience Amy J. Shaw, 2009-07-01 The First World War's appalling death toll and the need for a sense of equality of sacrifice on the home front led to Canada's first experience of overseas conscription While historians have focused on resistance to enforced military service in Quebec this has obscured the important role of those who saw military service as incompatible with their religious or ethical beliefs Crisis of Conscience is the first and only book about the Canadian pacifists who refused to fight in the Great War The experience of these conscientious objectors offers insight into evolving attitudes about the rights and responsibilities of citizenship during a key period of Canadian nation building The Writers Directory, 2013
