Postcards from the Chihuahua Border Daniel D. Arreola, 2019-10-29 Just a trolley ride from El Paso Ciudad Ju rez was a popular destination in the early 1900s Enticing and exciting tourists descended on this and other Mexican border towns to browse curio shops dine and dance attend bullfights and perhaps escape Prohibition America In Postcards from the Chihuahua Border Daniel D Arreola captures the exhilaration of places in time taking us back to Mexico s northern border towns of Ciudad Ju rez Ojinaga and Palomas in the early twentieth century Drawing on more than three decades of archival work Arreola uses postcards and maps to unveil the history of these towns along west Texas s and New Mexico s southern borders Postcards offer a special kind of visual evidence Arreola s collection of imagery and commentary about them shows us singular places enriching our understandings of history and the history of change in Chihuahua No one postcard tells the entire story But image after image offers a collected view and insight into changing perceptions Arreola s geography of place looks both inward and outward We see what tourists see while at the same time gaining insight about what postcard photographers and postcard publishers wanted to be seen and perceived about these border communities Postcards from the Chihuahua Border is a colorful and dynamic visual history It invites the reader to time travel to revisit another era the first half of the last century when these border towns were framed and made popular through picture postcards

Postcards Rachael Chadwick, 2015-02-26 The heartfelt and uplifting story of how a project to scatter 60 Postcards in memory of her mother helped a young girl come to terms with her loss On 11 February 2012 Rachael Chadwick lost her Mother to cancer just sixteen days after first being diagnosed and her world shattered right in front of her Utterly fed up of the milestones and reminders in December of that year she decided she would do something different and created a project based around her Mum s approaching 60th Birthday Desperate to spread the word about the wonderful person she had lost Rachael had the brainwave of leaving notes around a city in her memory Deciding she would take it a step further she wondered what would happen if she could ask people to respond to her Full of hope and energy she hand wrote sixty postcards each with her email address at the bottom asking the finder to get in touch But one question remained where should she go Knowing how much she longed to visit Paris the last gift that Rachael s mum had given her was Eurostar vouchers and so it seemed fitting that this would be her chosen city So off she went with a group of friends to celebrate discover and to scatter her memories Filling their time in Paris with sight seeing food and drink laughter and of course postcards Legends & Lore of the Texas Capitol Mike Cox,2017 From its beginning as one of the most ambitious construction projects west of the Mississippi the imposing red granite Lone Star statehouse loomed large in Texas lore The iconic landmark rests on a foundation of election rigging an unsolved murder land swaps and pre dedication blackmail It bore witness to the first meeting between LBJ and Lady Bird as well as a bizarre resolution honoring the Boston Strangler Mike Cox digs up a quarry s worth of the capitol s untold history cataloguing everything from its ghost stories to its public art and collectible tourist kitsch The Spectator ,1916 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art Migrant Letters Marcelo J. Borges,Sonia Cancian,2019-10-23 The migrant letter whether written by family members lovers friends or others is a document that continues to attract the attention of scholars and general readers alike What is it about migrant letters that fascinates us Is it nostalgia for a distant yet desired past Is it the consequence of the eclipse of letter writing in an age of digital communication technologies Or is it about the parallels between transnational experiences in previous mass migrations and in the current globalized world and the centrality of interpersonal relations mobility and communication then and now Influenced by methodologies from diverse disciplines the study of migrant letters has developed in myriad directions Scholars have examined migrant letters through such lenses as identity and self making family relations gender and emotions This volume contributes to this discussion by exploring the connection between the practice of letter writing and the emotional economic familial and gendered experiences of men and women separated by migration It combines theoretical and empirical discussions which illuminate a variety of historical experiences of migrants who built transnational lives as they moved across Europe Africa Latin America and the United States This volume was originally published as a special issue of The History of Family
