How Should We Then Live? Jay R. Leach, 2010-07-21 Many churches today have become ineffective to the kingdom of God because they no longer obey the mandate from our Lord Jesus Christ While many churches are boasting about numbers and membership the actual purpose of the Christian church making disciples seems to have gotten lost or overlooked Using illustrations and down to earth language Jay Leach unlocks practical principles that illustrate the growth of a disciple from rebirth to maturity Not only will we enjoy eternal life in the future but we will enjoy eternal life here and now How By knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ In the Bible knowing carries with it the connotation of intimacy To enjoy eternal life now we must have a knowing and intimate relationship with Christ Relationship and intimacy bring with them the creation of a new nature and purpose of forward movement to a fruitful adult discipleship they also provide a clear understanding of salvation and the process of growing into a mature disciple The church can provide nurture through small groups and other team building ministries but to become a disciple requires a personal commitment How Should We Then Live will explain how to form this very special relationship with Jesus Christ

Living Beauty Alejandro

García-Rivera, Thomas Scirghi, 2007-10-15 The Christian mystery celebrated in the Roman Catholic liturgy is a sensible mystery and calls out for artistic expression Living Beauty explores the Christian mystery and points to the need for a liturgical aesthetic as a means to encounter the divine mystery A liturgical aesthetic gives an account of Christian worship in terms of a new set of categories that includes divine beauty a theology of sensibility and the new notion of a unitive revelatory experience These categories help to reveal the aesthetic dimensions of the Church's watershed document on the liturgy Sacrosanctum Concilium The Church today stands in need of a new conversation on the aesthetic dimension of the liturgy and the role of the arts Contrary to common opinion the arts provide more than an environment or mere extrinsic ornamentation for the liturgy they are intrinsic to the very nature of liturgy They provide the means of being sanctified in the encounter with divine beauty that is the mystery of Christian worship Artistic expression enables the worshipping community to receive the divine mystery in beauty
