Celebrating Group Work draws on its contributors' area of expertise and interest in a specific topic chronicling the development of the author's understanding, appreciation, and skill. Authors address the everyday concerns of social work professionals such as maximizing mutual aid, promoting positive norms, maintaining authority in group work, managing conflict, dealing with taboo subjects, building a group work culture in a human services organization, working with a co-leader, tapping the strengths of group members, and addressing social change. The individual stories of working with men, women, and children suffering through abuse, homelessness, addiction, and teenage pregnancy in places as diverse as East Harlem, Maine, Canada, Nebraska, Long Island, Haiti, Uruguay, help form a collegial spirit as group workers gain insight from the theory and practice of those who went before. The personal stories you'll find in Stories Celebrating Group Work include How I Became a Social Worker, The Power of Group Work with Kids, How the Relational Model of Group Work Developed My Love Affair with Stages of Group Development, But I Want to Do a Real Group, Racial Difference and Human Commonality, The Worker-Client Relationship, and many more. Stories Celebrating Group Work is a one-of-a-kind collection of stories at once entertaining and educational. It's an essential read for beginning and seasoned human services practitioners and educators involved with or interested in working with groups.
