social reporting the book brings together authors from 15 countries documenting a broad range of the international inequality debate The results are related to the trends of socio economic development to statistical problems of measuring inequality and to socio political problems of integrating society in the facing the challenge of dividing forces The book is of interest for everybody who wants to understand the tensions of modern world     Encyclopedia of Social Work Richard L. Toxic Aid Sebastian Edwards,2014-04-24 For many years Tanzania was the darling of international aid agencies During the 1970s it received more assistance per capita than any other nation in the world And yet the economy performed dismally growth was negative exports collapsed and poverty increased massively In the mid 1980s however the international community changed tacks and developed an approach based on conditionality and program ownership Since 1996 the country has grown steadily and social conditions have improved significantly This book provides an economic history of Tanzania since independence in 1961 It covers the policies of African Socialism and the Arusha Declaration the collapse of the early 1980s the rocky relationships with the IMF and the reforms of the 1990s and 2000s     Handbook of the Sociology of Gender Janet Saltzman Chafetz,2006-11-22 During the past three decades feminist scholars have successfully demonstrated the ubiquity and omnirelevance of gender as a sociocultural construction in virtually all human collectivities past and present Intrapsychic interactional and collective social processes are gendered as are micro meso and macro social structures Gender shapes and is shaped in all arenas of social life from the most mundane practices of everyday life to those of the most powerful corporate actors Contemporary understandings of gender emanate from a large community of primarily feminist scholars that spans the gamut of learned disciplines and also includes non academic activist thinkers However while incorporating some cross disciplinary material this volume focuses specifically on socio logical theories and research concerning gender which are discussed across the full array of social processes structures and institutions As editor I have explicitly tried to shape the contributions to this volume along several lines that reflect my long standing views about sociology in general and gender sociology in particular First I asked authors to include cross national and historical material as much as possible This request reflects my belief that understanding and evaluating the here and now and working realistically for a better future can only be accomplished from a comparative perspective Too often American sociology has been both tempero and ethnocentric Second I have asked authors to be sensitive to within gender differences along class racial ethnic sexual preference and age cohort lines      Mali International Monetary Fund,1999-04-21 This Selected Issues paper and Statistical Appendix briefly surveys the progress achieved by Mali in the area of economic adjustment in the decade since 1988 This is followed by a discussion of the principal areas where the Malian government is considering the implementation of new reforms in the period ahead The paper analyzes the financial sector in Mali It highlights that in the late 1980s the financial sector in particular the banking system faced a major liquidity and solvency crisis characterized by a high level of nonperforming loans      Violence and Power Ken G. Irish-Bramble,2018-05-02 Violence and Power is a collection of original essays written by Dr Ken G Irish Bramble The essays were all written while the author was a graduate student at NYU The essays cover a wide range of topics in the field of political science and Caribbean studies While they are somewhat dated they each cover timeless topics and provide meaningful insight
