Social Suffering:

Social Suffering Arthur Kleinman, Veena Das, Margaret M. Lock, 1997-12-30 Social Suffering takes in the human consequences of war famine depression disease and torture problems that result from what political economic and institutional power does to people Experts have joined together to investigate the cultural representations of A Passion for Society Iain Wilkinson, Arthur Kleinman, 2016-01-26 What does human suffering mean for society And how has this meaning changed from the past to the present In what ways does the problem of suffering serve to inspire us to care for others How does our response to suffering reveal our moral and social conditions In this trenchant work Arthur Kleinman a renowned figure in medical anthropology and Iain Wilkinson an award winning sociologist team up to offer some answers to these profound questions A Passion for Society investigates the historical development and current state of social science with a focus on how this development has been shaped in response to problems of social suffering Following a line of criticism offered by key social theorists and cultural commentators who themselves were unhappy with the professionalization of social science Wilkinson and Kleinman provide a critical commentary on how studies of society have moved from an original concern with social suffering and its amelioration to dispassionate inquiries The authors demonstrate how social action through caring for others is revitalizing and remaking the discipline of social science and they examine the potential for achieving greater understanding through a moral commitment to the practice of care for others In this deeply considered work Wilkinson and Kleinman argue for an engaged social science that connects critical thought with social action that seeks to learn through caregiving and that operates with a commitment to establish and sustain humane forms of society Theoretical Psychology International Society for Theoretical Psychology. Conference, Niamh Stephenson, 2003

Suffering Iain Wilkinson, 2005 Providing a clear and thoughtful discussion of human suffering Ian Wilkinson explores some of the ways in which research into social suffering might lead us to reinterpret the meaning of modern history as well as revise our outlook upon the possible futures that await us Oberdiek, 2003-01-01 Thinking about the Lifecourse Elizabeth Frost, Stuart McClean, 2013-11-25 How we change over time who we love what work we do how we die is shaped both by internal and external influences This book explores the important subject of human growth and development by combining the social context of how people live with their personal ways of thinking and being The result is a greater understanding of why people are who they are Taking a psychosocial approach to exploring human growth and development this book Provides an insightful exploration of the human life course by looking at significant life stages and key themes such as parenting ill health and violence Draws on both contemporary and classic research in the fields of psychology and sociology to deliver an in depth analysis of issues about self and society Moves beyond traditional limiting approaches to understanding people's lives toward an interdisciplinary psychosocial approach Whether you are studying on a Social Work Nursing or related Health or Social Care degree or taking a course in the newly emerging field of Psychosocial Studies this book is a clear and ground breaking contribution to the understanding of human growth and development Handbook on the Sociology of Health and Medicine Alan Petersen,2023-11-03 This timely Handbook provides an essential guide to the major topics perspectives and scholars in the sociology of health and medicine Contributors prove the immense value of a sociological understanding of central health and medical concerns including public health the COVID 19 pandemic and new medical technologies

Remaking a World Veena Das,2001-06-04 The ethnographic studies in this volume are outstanding and together offer a brilliant mix of materials for throwing light on the representation of violence and suffering in the public sphere Das and Kleinman introduce the collection with an elegant and deeply insightful set of theoretical reflections on narrative voice and social suffering Kenneth M George author of Showing Signs of Violence

Biomedicine, Healing and Modernity in Rural Bangladesh Md. Faruk Shah,2019-12-02 This book provides an ethnographic account of the ways in which biomedicine as a part of the modernization of healthcare has been localized and established as the culturally dominant medical system in rural Bangladesh Dr Faruk Shah offers an anthropological critique of biomedicine in rural Bangladesh that explains how the existing social inequalities and disparities in healthcare are intensified by the practices undertaken in biomedical health centres through the healthcare bureaucracy and local gendered politics This work of villagers healthcare practices leads to a fascinating analysis of the local healthcare bureaucracy corruption structural violence commodification of health pharmaceutical promotional strategies and gender discrimination in population control Shah argues that biomedicine has already achieved cultural authority and acceptability at almost all levels of the health sector in Bangladesh However in this system healthcare bureaucracy is shaped by social capital power relations and kin networks and corruption is a central element of daily care practices

The Split God Nimi Wariboko,2018-02-15 Although Pentecostalism is generally considered a conservative movement in The Split God Nimi Wariboko shows that its operative everyday notion of God is a radical one that poses under cover of loyalty a challenge to orthodox Christianity He argues that the image of God that arises out of the everyday practices of Pentecostalism is a split God a deity harboring a radical split that not only destabilizes and prevents God himself from achieving ontological completeness but also conditions and shapes the practices and identities of Pentecostal believers Drawing from the work of Slavoj i ek Jacques Lacan Jean Luc Nancy and Giorgio Agamben among others Wariboko presents a close reading of everyday Pentecostal practices and in doing so uncovers and presents a sophisticated conversation between radical continental philosophy and everyday forms of spirituality By de particularizing Pentecostal studies and Pentecostalism Wariboko broadens our understanding of the intellectual aspects of the global Pentecostal and Charismatic movements

The SAGE Handbook of Human Geography, 2v Roger Lee,Noel Castree,Rob Kitchin,Vicky Lawson,Ansari Paasi,Chris Philo,Sarah Radcliffe,Susan M. Roberts,Charles Withers,2014-05-22 Superb How refreshing to see a Handbook that eschews convention and explores the richness and diversity of the geographical imagination in such stimulating and challenging ways Peter Dicken University of Manchester

Stands out as an innovative and exciting contribution that exceeds the genre Sallie A Marston University of Arizona Captures wonderfully the richness and complexity of the worlds that human beings inhabit This is a stand out among handbooks Lily Kong National University of Singapore This wonderfully unconventional book demonstrates human geography s character and significance not by marching through traditional themes but by presenting a set of geographical essays on basic ideas practices and concerns Alexander B Murphy University of Oregon This SAGE Handbook stands out for its capacity to provoke the reader to think anew about human geography essays that offer some profoundly original insights into what it means to engage geographically with the world Eric Sheppard UCLA Published in association with the journal Progress in Human Geography edited and written by the principal scholars in the discipline this Handbook demonstrates the difference that thinking about the world geographically makes Each section considers how human geography shapes the world interrogates it and intervenes in it It includes a major retrospective and prospective introductory essay with three substantive sections on Imagining Human Geographies Practising Human Geographies Living Human Geographies The Handbook also has an innovative multimedia component of conversations about key issues in human geography as well as an overview of human geography from the Editors A key reference for any scholar interested in questions about what difference it makes to think spatially or geographically about the world this Handbook is a rich and textured statement about the geographical imagination

The SAGE Handbook of Media and Migration Kevin Smets,Koen Leurs,Myria Georgiou,Saskia Witteborn,Radhika Gajjala,2019-10-31 Migration moves people ideas and things Migration shakes up political scenes and instigates new social movements It redraws emotional landscapes and reshapes social networks with traditional and digital media enabling representing and shaping the processes relationships and people on the move The deep entanglement of media and migration expands across the fields of political cultural and social life For example migration is increasingly digitally tracked and surveilled and national and international policy making draws on data on migrant movement anticipated movement and biometrics to maintain a sense of control over the mobilities of humans and things Also social imaginaries are constituted in highly mediated environments where information and emotions on migration are constantly shared on social and traditional media Both those migrating and those receiving them turn to media and communicative practices to learn how to make sense of migration and to manage fears and desires associated with cross border mobility in an increasingly porous but also controlled and divided world The SAGE Handbook of Media and Migration offers a comprehensive overview of media and migration through new research as well as a review of present scholarship in this expanding and promising field It explores key interdisciplinary concepts and methodologies and how these are challenged by new realities and the links between contemporary migration patterns and its use of mediated processes Although primarily grounded in media and communication studies the Handbook builds on research in the fields of sociology anthropology political science urban studies science and technology studies human rights development studies and gender and sexuality studies to bring to the forefront key theories concepts and methodological approaches to the study of the movement of people In seven parts the Handbook dissects important areas of cross disciplinary and generational discourse for graduate students early career researcher migration management practitioners and academics in the fields of media and migration studies international development communication studies and the wider social science discipline Part One Keywords and Legacies Part Two Methodologies Part Three Communities Part Four Representations Part Five Borders and Rights Part Six Spatialities Part Seven Conflicts

Power and Pilgrimage Sanne Derks, 2009 Power and Pilgrimage is an in depth anthropological study of life at a Bolivian pilgrimage site It focuses on the experiences of pilgrims and how in their Marian devotion they express and learn to live with the various inequalities they experience in everyday life Issues of poverty and class inequality lead them to approach the Virgin of Urkupina to support them in their quest for economic betterment Another social inequality that comes to the fore is based on gender in particular Bolivian women seek Mary s support to deal with violence and oppression in their homes Finally ethnic inequalities are discussed by analysing the dance processions in honour of the Virgin since these reflect contested ethnic identities

The Neo-Kantian Reader Sebastian Luft, 2024-11-01 The latter half of the nineteenth and the early part of the twentieth century witnessed a remarkable resurgence of interest in Kant s philosophy in Continental Europe the effects of which are still being felt today The Neo Kantian Reader is the first anthology to collect the most important primary sources in Neo Kantian philosophy with many being published here in English for the first time It includes extracts on a rich and diverse number of subjects including logic epistemology metaphysics philosophy of science and transcendental idealism Sebastian Luft together with other scholars provides clear introductions to each of the following sections to the authors as well as to each text placing them in historical and philosophical context the beginnings of Neo Kantianism including the work of Hermann von Helmholtz Otto Liebman Friedrich Lange and Hermann Lotze the Marburg School including Hermann Cohen Paul Natorp and Ernst Cassirer the Southwest School including Wilhelm Windelband Heinrich Rickert Emil Lask and Hans Vaihinger responses and critiques including Moritz Schlick Edmund Husserl Rudolf Carnap and the Davos dispute between Martin Heidegger and Ernst Cassirer The Neo Kantian Reader is essential reading for all students of Kant nineteenth and twentieth century philosophy history and philosophy of science and phenomenology as well as to those studying important philosophical movements such as logical positivism and analytic philosophy and its history

Why Love Hurts Eva Illouz, 2013-05-20 Few of us have been spared the agonies of intimate relationships They come in many shapes loving a man or a woman who will not commit to us being heartbroken when we re abandoned by a lover engaging in Sisyphean internet searches coming back lonely from bars parties or blind dates feeling bored in a relationship that is so much less than we had envisaged these are only some of the ways in which the search for love is a difficult and often painful experience Despite the widespread and almost collective character of these experiences our culture insists they are the result of faulty or insufficiently mature psyches For many the Freudian idea that the family designs the pattern of an individual's erotic career has been the main explanation for why and how we fail to find or sustain love. Psychoanalysis and popular psychology have succeeded spectacularly in convincing us that individuals bear responsibility for the misery of their romantic and erotic lives. The purpose of this book is to change our way of thinking about what is wrong in modern relationships. The problem is not dysfunctional childhoods or insufficiently self-aware psyches but rather the institutional forces shaping how we love. The argument of this book is that the modern romantic experience is shaped by a fundamental transformation in the ecology and architecture of romantic choice. The samples from which men and women choose a partner, the modes of evaluating prospective partners, the very importance of choice and autonomy and what people imagine to be the spectrum of their choices, all these aspects of choice have transformed the very core of the will: how we want a partner, the sense of worth bestowed by relationships and the organization of desire. This book does to love what Marx did to commodities: it shows that it is shaped by social relations and institutions and that it circulates in a marketplace of unequal actors.

Crime, Mental Health and the Criminal Justice System in Africa Heng Choon (Oliver) Chan, Samuel Adjorlolo, 2021-08-26. This book aims to serve as a comprehensive resource for a myriad of crime and mental health topics and issues in the African criminal justice system from a psycho-criminological perspective. Crime, Mental Health and the Criminal Justice System in Africa: A Psycho-Criminological Perspective is an ideal primary text for courses in criminology, criminal justice and forensic psychology as well as a source of reference for practitioners who deal with offenders or victims. For a long time African historiography has been viewed and interpreted from Eurocentric perspectives. This book is a timely contribution towards infusing Afrocentric perspectives in African scholarship by indigenous scholars. The authors' interdisciplinary topical approach covering a gamut of topics ranging from African criminology through mental health and psychology to criminal justice systems has lent a decolonizing voice toward African literary pursuit and thereby laid a solid foundation for further research by other scholars. I highly recommend it to readers, academic institutions and researchers on Africa. Emmanuel Onyeozili, Ph.D., Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice, Department of Criminal Justice, University of Maryland Eastern Shore, USA. This edited volume by an array of experts from West and Southern Africa has given a refreshing voice to psycho-criminological narratives in the continent. In a region of the world in which there is insufficient documentation of the patterns, determinants and outcomes of criminal behaviour, this book offers a culturally competent and contemporary flavour to an ancient discourse. Its focus on new areas of concern such as online dating scams, kidnapping and the mental health of officials in the criminal justice system compellingly captures the potential reader and gives good value for time. It is warmly recommended for its breadth of coverage, the authority of its claims and the multi-disciplinary outlook of its authors. Adegboyega Ogunwale, MBBS, FWACP, Consultant Psychiatrist, Forensic Unit, Neuropsychiatric Hospital, Aro, Ogun State, Nigeria. This collection represents a significant step in the study of mental health, crime and criminal justice in sub-Saharan Africa. The breadth of topics covered is impressive, with each contribution based on methodologically sound empirical analyses It deserves to become a key reference for students researchers and policy makers interested in suicide drug use violence the work of prison officers criminal investigations and police community interactions Justice Tankebe Ph D Lecturer Institute of Criminology University of Cambridge UK Mental health and criminal justice issues are growing problems facing the world today Questions about whether mental health affects crime or whether involvement in the criminal justice system affects an individual s health have become part of national policy discussion This nicely written book brings together eminent scholars and experts with extensive experience in their various fields to address these and other questions related to crime mental health and criminal justice in Africa The editors did well to coordinate the efforts of the contributors into a valuable piece I highly recommend it for all who are interested in the nexus between crime mental health and criminal justice systems Francis D Boateng Ph D Assistant Professor Department of Criminal Justice and Legal Studies University of Mississippi USA

Philosophies of Liturgy J. Aaron Simmons, Bruce Ellis Benson, Neal DeRoo, 2023-06-29 Mainstream philosophy of religion has primarily focused on the truth and justification of religious beliefs even though belief is only one small facet of religious life This collection remedies this by taking practice and embodied action seriously as fundamental elements of any philosophy of religion Emerging and established voices across different philosophical traditions come together to consider religious actions including public worship from perspectives such as trauma and social ontology sound and silence and knowledge and hope Embodied religious practice is viewed through the lens of liturgy intrinsically connecting religious rituals to human existence to show clearly that no matter where one finds oneself in terms of the so called analytic continental divide philosophy of religion must be concerned with more than just beliefs if it is to adequately deal with the subject matter of religion The purpose of these studies is not to reject what has gone before but to expand the focus of philosophy of religion This approach lays the groundwork for investigations into how beliefs are situated in our theological moral and social frameworks For any philosophy of religion student or scholar interested in how thinking and living well are intimately related this is a go to resource It takes seriously the importance of historical religious traditions and communities opening the space for cross cultural and interdisciplinary debates Together We Survive John S.

Long, Jennifer S.H. Brown, 2015-12-01 Honouring anthropologist Richard J Preston and his outstanding career with the Crees in northern Quebec Together We Survive presents new research by Preston s colleagues former students and family members who like him have established long term respectful research partnerships and friendships with Aboriginal communities Demonstrating the influential nature of Preston s collaborative approach on anthropologists in Canada and beyond the essays in Together We Survive explore development and urbanization material culture and conflict Scholars who conducted research in the 1960s with Crees farther to the south broaden the scope of Preston s Cree Narrative 2002 A Cree colleague and friend expands on his study of traditional Cree songs Other essays widen the geographical historical and cultural foci of the book beyond the Quebec Crees examining the significance of a beaded hood at Red River in 1844 scrutinizing symbols of Anishinaabe identity and describing the struggle for indigenous human rights at the United Nations Building on Preston's pioneering work in cultural anthropology Together We Survive recounts the ways in which the eastern James Bay Cree and other aboriginal peoples faced with massive incursions on their lands and lives have collaborated and formed respectful partnerships as they seek to survive and thrive in peace Contributors include Regna Darnell Western Harvey A Feit McMaster John S Long Nipissing Stan L Louttit Richard T McCutcheon Algoma the late Cath Oberholtzer Trent Laura Peers Oxford Jennifer Preston Susan Preston Adrian Tanner Memorial and Cory Willmott Southern Illinois Society and Social Pathology R.C. Smith, 2017-02-21 This book offers one of the most comprehensive studies of social pathology to date following a cross disciplinary and methodologically innovative approach It is written for anyone concerned with understanding current social conditions individual health and how we might begin to collectively conceive of a more reconciled postcapitalist world Drawing reference from the most up to date studies Smith crosses disciplinary boundaries from cognitive science and anthropology to critical theory systems theory and psychology Opening with an empirical account of numerous interlinked crises from mental health to the physiological effects of environmental pollution Smith argues that mainstream sociological theories of pathology are deeply inadequate Smith introduces an alternative critical conception of pathology that drills to the core of how and why society is deeply ailing The book concludes with a detailed account of why a progressive and critical vision of social change requires a holistic view of individual and societal transformation Such a view is grounded in the awareness that a sustainable transition to postcapitalism is ultimately a many sided social individual and structural healing process Contesting Measles and Vaccination in Pakistan Inayat Ali, 2024-08-29 This book explores issues surrounding measles and vaccination in Pakistan Drawing on long term ethnographic research it focuses on two major outbreaks in Sindh Province and on Pakistan's vaccination campaigns The chapters examine the responses to outbreaks and vaccination from various stakeholders including local people the Pakistani government and the WHO Inayat Ali reflects on the competing agendas differing conceptualizations of measles and vaccination and the factors that lie behind these contestations Situating outbreaks within the institutionalized form of disparities he analyzes the rituals used to deal with measles and local resistance to vaccines in Pakistan The distinct imaginaries and practices related to measles and vaccination are considered in national and global context and the book makes a valuable contribution to the development of an anthropology of vaccination and medical anthropology of Pakistan
