Social Networks Of Older People A Cross National Analysis:

The Social Networks of Older People Howard Litwin,1996-10-30 This edited volume examines the social networks of older people in nine countries from a range of perspectives in order to determine the potential of informal support structures to deliver the bulk of care in today's society Researchers from the United States Canada England and Wales France Spain the Netherlands Sweden Finland and Israel present up to date analyses of support networks in each of their countries The social policy implications of the comparative data are critically reviewed The findings clearly suggest that social network availability is diminishing for a significant minority of elderly people However current practice in most countries reveals little purposive interweaving of formal services and informal networks in order to strengthen the function of the latter and to prolong their presumed benefits

Social Isolation of Older Adults Lenard W. Kaye,Cliff Singer,2018-12-17 Critical strategies for confronting a dire yet under addressed societal epidemic the risky and potentially deadly consequences for older adults living a socially isolated life are the focus for this book By documenting our current understanding of the complex and multi dimensional nature of social isolation among elders the authors highlight innovative and alternative forms of community and later life relationships that can serve to forestall or prevent social isolation and loneliness With contributions from recognized scholars clinicians and elder policy activists as well as from multiple practice perspectives direct service providers administrators researchers and educators the book documents the interrelated issues of social relationships and health in late life It describes creative programs and intervention techniques that help maintain the integrity of an older adult's individual group and community relations communication pathways and a sense of belonging The book also illuminates multidisciplinary and integrated best practices for minimizing the risk of late life social isolation Case studies showcase the issues that arise in clinical practice and service delivery and demonstrate proven methods for effectively addressing them Key Features Delivers best practice strategies and interventions for bolstering older adult social health and community engagement Written by top scholars in the gerontology community Explores the life threatening risks and consequences of social isolation for older adults and their families Describes the wide range of social relationships that can determine the extent to which older adults will be at risk of becoming socially isolated Considers the role that older adult diversity and difference plays in determining quality of life and the integrity of relationships Highlights physical behavioral environmental social and economic forces that can influence the quality of late life relationships

Global Aging and Challenges to Families Vern Bengtson,2018-01-16 The recent explosion in population ageing across the globe represents one of the most remarkable demographic changes in human history Population ageing will profoundly affect families Who will care for the growing numbers of tomorrows very old members of societies Will it be state governments The aged themselves Their families The purpose of this book is to examine consequences of global aging for families and intergenerational support and for nations as they plan for the future

Lubkin's Chronic Illness Larsen,2017-12 Lubkin's Chronic Illness Tenth

Lubkin's Chronic Illness Pamala D. Larsen, 2014-11-07

Lubkin's Chronic Illness Ninth Edition is an essential text for nursing students who seek to understand the various aspects of chronic illness affecting both patients and families. This is the only text of its kind that truly addresses not only the physical aspects but the important psychosocial issues that individuals and families deal with on a daily basis. The text takes an application to practice based approach by covering impact, issues, interventions, and outcomes. The Ninth Edition has been heavily revised to include updated and expanded content on the illness experience, health policy uncertainty, and the advanced practice nurse in chronic illness. Each chapter employs a theoretical approach to the concept followed by the impact or issues of the concept, nursing interventions, and potential outcomes. Two new chapters focused on Loss and Spirituality have also been included. New to the Ninth Edition: Expanded personal and real life comments from the perspective of the caregiver.

Active ageing and solidarity between generations in Europe Axel Börsch-Supan, Martina Brandt, Howard Litwin, Guglielmo Weber, 2013-06-25

SHARE is an international survey designed to answer the societal challenges that face us due to rapid population ageing. How do Europeans age? Under which circumstances do older people and their families live? How healthy and active are they and how did the crisis affect them? The authors of this multidisciplinary book have taken a first step toward answering these questions based on the recent SHARE data, including a new social networks module.

Disconnecting with Social Networking Sites B. Light, 2014-09-26

Ben Light puts forward an alternative way of thinking about how we engage with social networking sites. He analyses our engagements with social networking sites in public, at work, in our personal lives, and as related to our health and wellbeing, emphasizing the importance of disconnection instead of connection.

Bengtson,Ariela Lowenstein, The recent explosion in population aging across the globe represents one of the most remarkable demographic changes in human history There is much concern about population aging and its consequences for nations for governments and for individuals It has often been noted that population aging will inevitably affect the economic stability of most countries and the policies of most state governments What is less obvious but equally important is that population aging will profoundly affect families Who will care for the growing numbers of tomorrow s very old members of societies Will it be state governments The aged themselves Their families The purpose of this volume is to examine consequences of global aging for families and intergenerational support and for nations as they plan for the future Four remarkable social changes during the past fifty years are highlighted 1 Extension of the life course A generation has been added to the average span of life over the past century 2 Changes in the age structures of nations Most nations today have many more elders and many fewer children than fifty years ago 3 Changes in family structures and relationships Some of these differences are the result of trends in family structure notably higher divorce rates and the higher incidence of childbearing to single parents 4 Changes in governmental responsibilities In the last decade governmental responsibility appears to have slowed or reversed as states reduce welfare expenditures How will families respond to twenty first century problems associated with population aging Will families indeed be important in the twenty first century or will kinship and the obligations across generations become increasingly irrelevant replaced by personal communities This volume goes a considerable distance to answer these critical issues for the twenty first century Vern L Bengtson is an AARP University Chair in Gerontology and Professor of Sociology University of Southern California Ariela Lowenstein is associate professor and head Department of Aging Studies University of Haifa Israel Work and Caring for the Elderly Viola M.

Lechner,Margaret B. Neal,1999 Work and Caring for the Elderly directly addresses the pressing issues of this worldwide dilemma by examining how 11 geographically dispersed countries in various stages of economic and social development are responding to this challenging problem The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology Nancy A. Pachana, Ken Laidlaw, 2014-11-06 Throughout the world the population of older adults continues to grow The rise in geriatric populations has seen an increase in research on clinical diagnostic assessment and treatment issues aimed at this population Clinical geropsychologists have increased their interest both in providing mental health services as well as developing approaches to improve quality of life for all older adults The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology is a landmark publication in this field providing broad and authoritative coverage of the research and practice issues in clinical geropsychology today as well as innovations expanding the field's horizons Comprising chapters from the foremost scholars in clinical geropsychology from around the world the handbook captures the global proliferation of activity in this field In addition to core sections on topics such as sources of psychological distress assessment diagnosis and intervention the handbook includes valuable chapters devoted to methodological issues such as longitudinal studies and meta analyses in the field as well as new and emerging issues such as technological innovations and social media use in older populations Each chapter offers a review of the most pertinent international literature outlining current issues as well as important cultural implications and key practice issues where relevant and identifying possibilities for future research and policy applications The book is essential to all psychology researchers practitioners educators and students with an interest in the mental health of older adults In addition health professionals including psychiatrists social workers mental health nurses and trainee geriatric mental health workers will find this a invaluable resource Older adults comprise a growing percentage of the population worldwide Clinical psychologists with an interest in older populations have increased the amount of research and applied knowledge about effectively improving mental health later in life and this book captures that information on an international level The book addresses how to diagnose assess and treat mental illness in older persons as well as ways to improve quality of life in all older persons It has a great breadth of coverage of the area including chapters spanning how research is conducted to how new technologies such as virtual reality and social media are used with older people to improve mental health The book would appeal to all psychology researchers practitioners educators and students with an interest in the mental health of older adults It would also appeal to other health professionals including psychiatrists social workers and mental health nurses who work with older people It is a valuable resource for trainee geriatric mental health workers because it highlights key readings and important practice implications in the field Ageing in Europe - Supporting Policies for an Inclusive Society Axel Börsch-Supan, Thorsten Kneip, Howard Litwin, Michal Myck, Guglielmo Weber, 2015-10-16 SHARE is an international survey designed to answer the societal challenges that face us due to rapid population ageing How do we Europeans age How will we do economically socially and healthwise How are these domains interrelated The authors of this multidisciplinary book have taken a further big step towards answering these questions based on the recent SHARE data in order to support policies for an inclusive society Ageing, Health and Pensions in Europe Lans Bovenberg, Asghar
