Social Planning and Human Service Delivery in the Voluntary Sector Gary A. Tobin, 1985-11-19 Human Services as Complex Organizations Yeheskel Hasenfeld, 2010 This new edition looks at the many recent changes in the arena of Human Services Organizations Journal of Human Services Abstracts, 1984 Faith-Based Initiatives and Aging Services James W Ellor, F. Ellen Netting, 2012-12-06 Gain an understanding of the increased role religious congregations now play in providing social support to the elderly Religious congregations and faith based organizations FBO from the Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions have worked on behalf of older adults for centuries But the initiation of President Bush's Office of Faith Based Initiatives has raised many questions from both the traditional secular and sectarian services as well as many nontraditional services found in each community Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services addresses the issues of the separation of church and state the concerns involved in developing social services in religious congregations and the larger public policy implications of this office This unique book offers perspectives from traditional and nontraditional faith based groups as well as experts in volunteerism The enactment by Congress of the Charitable Choice section of the federal welfare reform law combined with the creation of the Center for Faith Based and Community Initiatives in the United States Department of Health and Human Services to signal a high level of interest in supporting faith based organizations Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services focuses on the specific applications of services provided by religious congregations Editors F Ellen Netting and James W Ellor conducted an in depth interview with Elizabeth Seal Scott then Director of the Center for Faith Based and Community Initiatives an edited transcript of the interview is included in the book to help promote understanding of the development and implementation of faith based grass roots programs Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services examines the separation of church and state Baptist perspectives on faith based initiatives and religious liberty managing older volunteers faith organizations and ethnically diverse elders the heritage of religion and spirituality in the field of gerontology faith related agencies and their implications for aging services the role of religious congregations in the social service system Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services is an essential resource for anyone interested in developing programs for older adults in religious congregations for human services staffs seeking to work with faith based initiatives and for government workers in need of a better understanding of faith based services in their community The Service Hub Concept in Human Services Planning Michael Dear, Jennifer Wolch, 2016-06-06 The Service Hub Concept in Human Services Planning examines how the concept of a service hub could assist in the delivery of human services The monograph covers the problematic of human services planning including difficulties associated with effective client assessment and assignment overcoming the opposition sentiments that commonly block human services provision and questions associated with socio spatial justice The book also tackles the service hub concept and service hubs in practice The bases for community opposition to human service facilities fair share approach to service provision and the impact of difference and social justice in human services planning are also described Geographers and those involved in urban and regional planning will find the monograph invaluable Religious and Spiritual Aspects of Human Service Practice James W. Ellor, Ellen Netting, Jane M. Thibault, 2021-05-26 Promotes the importance of understanding spirituality and religious belief in health and human service care Although health and human service professionals traditionally receive extensive training in the emotional and physical aspects of caring for a person they rarely receive adequate instruction in an area often as essential spirituality and religious belief Recognizing the importance of religion to a large share of the population Religious and Spiritual Aspects of Human Services fills this gap in human services literature James W Ellor F Ellen Netting and Jane M Thibault address the challenge of understanding the client s perspective even when it involves a religious tradition unfamiliar to the practitioner and consider the impact of the client s needs on the agency and on public policy
