Social Reality Of Death:

The Social Reality of Death Kathy Charmaz,1980 In this book I aim to take a fresh look from a sociological perspective at both earlier assumptions and current issues about death and dying Specifically the major source of my theoretical perspective is symbolic interactionism By examining the thoughts feelings and actions of the dying and those affected by death from this perspective we can gain greater insight into the subtle relationships these actors have with each other and more over with death Page v

Epiestems of Death Pratham Parekh,2017-01-01 Death and dying experiences are not common across human race because humans do not share common cultural heritage and physical environment The fact of death thus can be considered as socially constructed fact abounded by idiosyncratic religious beliefs and rituals existing within social life It is almost impossible to have common consensual understanding of death and dying This book tries to investigate various sources of knowledge about death in multiple disciplines from sociological lenses The Social Construction of Death Leen Van Brussel,Nico Carpentier,2014-07-31 Chapter 12 of this book is open access under a CC BY license Well established scholars from a variety of disciplines including sociology anthropology media and cultural studies and political sciences use the social construction of death and dying to analyse a wide variety of meaning making practices in societal fields such as ethics politics media medicine and family Encyclopedia of Death and Dying Glennys Howarth,Oliver Leaman,2003-12-16 In recent years there has been a massive upsurge in academic professional and lay interest in mortality This is reflected in academic and professional literature in the popular media and in the proliferation of professional roles and training courses associated with aspects of death and dying Until now the majority of reference material on death and dying has been designed for particular disciplinary audiences and has addressed only specific academic or professional concerns There has been an urgent need for an authoritative but accessible reference work reflecting the multidisciplinary nature of the field This Encyclopedia answers that need The Encyclopedia of Death and Dying consolidates and contextualizes the disparate research that has been carried out to date The phenomena of death and dying and its related concepts are explored and explained in depth from the approaches of varied disciplines and related professions in the arts social sciences humanities medicine and the sciences In addition to scholars and students in the field from anthropologists and sociologists to art and social historians the Encyclopedia will be of interest to other professionals and practitioners whose work brings them into contact with dying dead and bereaved people It will be welcomed as the definitive death and dying reference source and an essential tool for teaching research and independent study

Medical Progress and Social Reality Lilian R. Furst,2012-02-01 Medical Progress and Social Reality is an anthology of nineteenth century literature on medicine and medical practice Situated at the interdisciplinary juncture of medicine history and literature it includes mostly fictional but also some nonfictional works by British French American and Russian writers that describe the day to day social realities of medicine during a period of momentous change Issues addressed in these works include the hierarchy in the profession the use of new instruments such as the stethoscope the advent of women doctors the function of the hospital and the shifting balance of power between physicians and patients The volume provides an introductory overview of the most important aspects of medical progress in the nineteenth century and it includes an annotated bibliography of further readings in medical history and literature Selections from Anthony Trollope George Eliot Gustave Flaubert Sarah Orne Jewett Sinclair Lewis Mikhail Bulgakov and others are included as well as the American Medical Association's 1847 Code of Ethics

Social Death Lisa Marie Cacho, 2012-11-12 Winner of the 2013 John Hope Franklin Book Prize presented by the American Studies Association A necessary read that demonstrates the ways in which certain people are devalued without attention to social contexts Social Death tackles one of the core paradoxes of social justice struggles and scholarship that the battle to end oppression shares the moral grammar that structures exploitation and sanctions state violence Lisa Marie Cacho forcefully argues that the demands for personhood for those who in the eyes of society have little value depend on capitalist and heteropatriarchal measures of worth With poignant case studies Cacho illustrates that our very understanding of personhood is premised upon the unchallenged devaluation of criminalized populations of color Hence the reliance of rights based politics on notions of who is and is not a deserving member of society inadvertently replicates the logic that creates and normalizes states of social and literal death Her understanding of inalienable rights and personhood provides us the much needed comparative analytical and ethical tools to understand the racialized and nationalized tensions between racial groups Driven by a radical relentless critique Social Death challenges us to imagine a heretofore unthinkable politics and ethics that do not rest on neoliberal arguments about worth but rather emerge from the insurgent experiences of those negated persons who do not live by the norms that determine the productive patriotic law abiding and family oriented subject

Death and Dying in Contemporary Japan Hikaru Suzuki, 2013-03-12 This book based on extensive original research explores the various ways in which Japanese people think about death and how they approach the process of dying and death It shows how new forms of funeral ceremonies have been developed by the funeral industry how traditional grave burial is being replaced in some cases by the scattering of ashes and forest mortuary ritual and how Japanese thinking on relationships the value of life and the afterlife are changing Throughout it assesses how these changes reflect changing social structures and social values

Representations of Death Mary Bradbury, 2012-11-12 Drawing upon a rare and highly original ethnography of contemporary mortuary practices Representations of Death takes the reader through the medical bureaucratic commercial and ritual aspects of death Going behind the scenes at hospitals funeral parlours crematoria and cemeteries as well as holding poignant in depth interviews with bereaved women Bradbury has been able to illuminate the very different perspectives of the deathwork professional and the grieving relative Illustrated with stunning photographs this fascinating book makes a significant contribution to the growing literature in death studies

Write to Death Elizabeth A. Gailey, 2003-09-30 Has the mainstream media been careless in reporting on the issue of euthanasia As the Right to Die and Physician Assisted Suicide movements gather steam the national media have been too quick to perpetuate and focus on the medical and legal overtones of death The ethical religious and philosophical dimensions of our increased acceptance of euthanizing the aged infirm and disabled are often neglected Gailey argues that the press's failure to enrich public discourse may well erode its trustworthiness in the public's eye Using abundant examples from analysis of elite mainstream news publications Gailey details how the national press systematically advanced pro euthanasia views and interpretations while marginalizing or omitting pro life perspectives and frames The battle over legalizing passive and active euthanasia has enormous social economic and ethical implications An understanding of how the news media frame or package such issues for public consumption is critical Gailey's integrative approach combines an exploration of the major historical ideational and economic factors leading to the rise of the Right to Die movement and includes in depth analysis of the media's framing of the controversy in the two decades Karen Ann

Quinlan's coma in 1975 to Dr Jack Kevorkian's 1999 conviction Imagining the American Death Penalty Birte Christ, 2025-04-29 Imagining the American Death Penalty traces the US American cultural imaginary of capital punishment through popular visual representations from the 1890s to the twenty first century The book focuses on three generic and historical clusters of representations early film from the 1890s through Intolerance 1916 crime film noir of the 1950s and 1960s and legal TV series from the 1990s through the early 2000s The book makes two central arguments First it demonstrates that an increased concern with the death penalty in popular media does not mean that these texts promote an abolitionist agenda their cultural work is ambiguous at best This ambiguity is always contingent upon both the affordances of the particular genre and medium in question and on political legal discursive context The book explores both in detail Early film is enchanted with its own representational possibilities due to the progress of technology and in analogy with the progress in execution technique specifically the electric chair In film noir genre conventions and the legal back and forth before and after Furman predicate ambiguity In legal TV series the genre's ensemble casts and its focus on conversational exchange invite open debate The second argument is that popular visual representations consistently whitewash the death penalty The book demonstrates that this is the case because the most common narrative around executions in film and TV is to cast the condemned man as a hero who defies the violence of the state gains dignity by accepting his fate and faults and in some ways triumphs over death The American imaginary until very recently did or could not imagine Black men to possess that measure of agency that it attributed to its white heroes Death, Gender and Ethnicity David Field, Dr David

Field, Jenny Hockey, Neil Small, 2002-01-04 Death Gender and Ethnicity examines the ways in which gender and ethnicity shape the experiences of dying and bereavement taking as its focus the diversity of ways through which the universal event of death is encountered It brings together accounts of how these experiences are actually managed with analyses of a range of representations of dying and grieving in order to provide a more theoretical approach to the relationship between death

gender and ethnicity Though death and dying have been an increasingly important focus for academics and clinicians over the last thirty years much of this work provides little insight into the impact of gender and ethnicity on the experience The result is often a universalising representation which fails to take account of the personally unique and culturally specific experiences associated with a death Drawing on a range of detailed case studies Death Gender and Ethnicity develops a more sensitive theoretical approach which will be invaluable reading for students and practitioners in health studies sociology social work and medical anthropology

Governing Death and Loss Stephen Conway, 2011 Political economic social cultural and technological changes have led to profound transformations in the ways that death and loss are perceived and managed in contemporary society Over the last few decades the long term shift to chronic illness as a major causal factor has significantly increased the time scale of dying Most people die in institutions and care is typically medical Many communities and ordinary citizens now relinquish control and involvement to experts in the last stages of life However at global and local levels new institutional arrangements are emerging to govern the changing face of death and a new model is being developed to counter claims of the creeping medicalisation of death and dying Emphasising the international context of the issues involved this book illustrates the interlinking nature of society death and loss and gives examples of governance that promotes the empowerment participation and the increasing need for the involvement of ordinary people and communities in differing social and cultural contexts All chapters are written at an accessible level and will appeal to a wide readership Part 1 of the book provides a sociological understanding of the governance of death and loss in international and historical contexts and the implications for practice Part 2 provides examples of good practice drawing upon a sociological understanding

The Death of Home Saladdin Ahmed Bahozde, 2024-04-22 Digital technology has revolutionized connectivity but it has also overcome spatial obstacles that used to shield people from subjugating gazes and unlimited exercise of power The home as an auratic space is dead and this alienation has hindered our democratic capacities and created complex crises The Death of Home aims to intellectually engage readers via enhancing spatial literacy to critically confront today's crises

Death, Modernity, and the Body Eva Åhrén, 2009 Originally published in Swedish in 2002 Death Modernity and the Body explores the impact of modernization on customs and practices surrounding the dead body in Sweden in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries This period of intense social and cultural change transformed Sweden from an agricultural society to a modern industrial state The book focuses on five arenas medical research and education displays of the dead body for entertainment purposes funerary preparations of the body memorial photography and cremation The book takes an original approach to the history of death in modern society by focusing on the dead body in intersecting cultural domains Medical scientific and technological history are thereby connected to popular culture social and political history as well as ethnography and anthropology The scholarly literature on the history of death is disproportionately focused on the Anglophone world France and Germany This study contributes to the scholarship by examining the case of

Sweden where modernization was exceptionally rapid and pervasive and full of interesting particularities Book Jacket

Death Rituals and Politics in Northern Song China Mihwa Choi, 2017 This study examines how political and legal disputes regarding the performance of death rituals contributed to shape a revival of Confucianism in eleventh century Northern Song China

And Death Shall Have Dominion: Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Dying, Caregivers, Death, Mourning and the Bereaved Katarzyna Malecka, Rossanna Gibbs, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 This collection of essays presents a variety of perspectives on death and dying by scholars from different countries The areas covered in the volume include Conceptual Cultural and Gender Approaches to Death and the Deceased Children and Death Legal Aspects of Euthanasia and Discussion on Choices at End of Life Palliative Care and Responsibilities and Challenges of Medical and Family Caregivers the Aesthetic Experience of Life s End and Modern Ways of Grieving and Commemorating the Dead

Death and Dying Glennys Howarth, 2007-01-16 Glennys Howarth provides a cutting edge comprehensive discussion of the key topics in death and dying and in so doing demonstrates that the study of mortality is germane to all areas of sociology The book is organized thematically utilizing empirical material from cross national and cross cultural perspectives It carefully addresses questions about social attitudes to mortality the social nature of death and dying and explanations for change and diversity and explores traditional and contemporary experiences of death Jacket Death, Life and Laughter Mathew Guest, Martha Middlemiss Lé Mon, 2016-11-25
