Global Perspectives in Family Therapy Kit S. Ng, 2004-11-23 Global Perspectives in Family Therapy Development Practice Trends provides an overview of the development of the family and the issues and concerns they are faced with in different cultural contexts Contributions from experts in the field expand on the different aspects on the historical beginnings current developments training issues theoretical variations future trends and research potential in family therapy throughout 14 countries It explores the diverse cultural approach to family therapy and suggests various clinical interventions that are helpful to clinicians dealing with families from different countries including case studies vignettes and research outcomes of family therapy overseas

Social Welfare Development in East Asia K. Tang, 2000-10-03 Comparative social policy has long neglected welfare development in Asia Not much is known about social welfare in the economically successful East Asian tigers Hong Kong Korea Singapore and Taiwan They are late starters in social welfare but each has its own trajectory of welfare development Despite the presence of extensive social welfare they have shied away from western style welfare states The presence of strong developmental states and their development ethos explain in large part the underdevelopment of state welfare

Gender, Planning and Human Rights Tovi Fenster, 2002-09-11 Challenging the traditional treatment of human rights cast in purely legal frameworks the authors argue that in order to promote the notion of human rights its geographies and spatialities must be investigated and be made explicit A wealth of case studies examine the significance of these components in various countries with multi cultured societies and identify ways to integrate human rights issues in planning development and policy making The book uses case studies from UK Israel Canada Singapore USA Peru European Union Australia and the Czech Republic

Ageing Matters John Doling, 2018-01-18 The implications of population ageing have long concerned politicians policy makers and governmental and non governmental organizations in the welfare states of Europe However an ageing workforce is increasingly a matter of concern for the developed and fast developing countries of Asia Japan leads the field in this respect on account of the speed of its postwar economic development But the little tigers of Hong Kong Singapore South Korea and Taiwan are poised to catch up and Malaysia though in the second tier of developing Asian economics faces the prospect of population ageing sufficient to daunt an as yet under prepared infrastructure for old age support This book is the first to examine in detail the experiences and prospects of population ageing in those Asian countries with the highest GDP per capita The authors pose the question to what extent Asia and old Europe can learn from each other in terms of policy planning The first section of the book sets out the field in terms of the demographic characteristics and policy predicaments of European and Asian countries The second section presents case studies of six countries Japan Hong Kong Singapore South Korea Taiwan and Malaysia

Uneven Development in South East Asia Chris Dixon, David Drakakis-Smith, 2019-03-25 First published in 1997 this volume responds to the rapid change in mid 1980s South East Asia exploring the uneven distribution of development within the region and providing broad coverage of different aspects of this unevenness at both the regional and national levels Specialists in economics geography planning and South East Asian studies contribute on issues including ethnicity and development in Malaysia disadvantaged groups in Singapore and the impact of social and historical forces on uneven development in the region Publications and Theses National University of Singapore,1991 Singapore Malay/Muslim Community, 1819-2015 Hussin Mutalib,Rokiah Mentol,Sundusia Rosdi,2016-06-29 Singapore's Malay Muslim community constituting about 15 per cent of the total population and constitutionally enshrined as the indigenous people of Singapore have had its fair share of progress and problems in the history of this country While different aspects of the vicissitudes of life of the community have been written over the years there has not been a singularly substantive published compendium specifically about the community in the form of a Bibliography available This academic initiative fills this obvious literature gap The scope and coverage of this Bibliography is manifestly comprehensive encompassing the different sources of information print or non print about the many facets of life of the Republic's Malays Muslims such as education economy politics culture history health language religion arts and more The result is a Bibliography that is arguably the most expansive if not exhaustive treasury collection about the community ever available anywhere Scholars and researchers in particular and the public in general should find this Bibliography a highly valuable indispensable source of information about the rich and varied life of Singapore's Malay Muslim community stretching a period of two centuries from the time of Stamford Raffles in 1819 until today The Editors Hussin Mutalib Ph D a senior academic with the National University of Singapore Rokiah Mentol and Sundusia Rosdi former senior librarians with Singapore's National Library Board are assisted by professional and experienced librarians Singapore Garry Rodan,2017-07-12 This title was first published in 2001 A collection of valuable previously published essays analyzing the major social dynamics shaping the increasingly complex society economy and polity of contemporary Singapore Topics range from ideology and culture to the character of the state and its institutions and the possibilities for political reform Singapore Ageing: Issues And Challenges Ahead S Vasoo,Bilveer Singh,Srinivasan Chokkanathan,2023-02-02 Ageing is a part of life that all Singaporeans must face and in fact all families will have next of kins who will undergo that life stage Singapore Ageing assembles a team of researchers administrators practitioners advocates and academics from varied social service and care sectors to share their thoughts concerns and future challenges faced by an ageing Singapore in different arenas With the Singapore demography showing a greying trend it is increasingly vital for the government and the social health and economic sectors to meet the needs of an ageing nation The appropriate services and support have to be in place to respond to the issues faced by seniors This edited volume serves as a useful resource for those who are working or researching in the field of ageing Singapore Perspectives 2015: Choices Carol Soon,Sufern Hoe,2015-12-15 Singapore reaches an important milestone in its national development in 2015 when it celebrates its 50th year of independence It has earned many accolades for the progress it has made in governance the economy and societal development However with changing demographics resource constraints and the emergence of regional competitors Singapore s future is fraught with uncertainty The book is a collection of papers presented at Singapore Perspectives 2015 by leading thought leaders and eminent speakers reflecting on the critical decisions made in Singapore s past so as to envision strategic paths that the country should take in the future The contributors include experts in their fields Ambassador Bilahari Kausikan Professor Evelyn Goh Professor Tan Kong Yam Professor Linda Lim Professor Kishore Mahbubani Tong Yee Vikram Khanna and Associate Professor Eugene Tan The inter generational dialogue session with Deputy Prime Minister Teo Chee Hean and Minister in the Prime Minister s Office and Secretary General of the National Trades Union Congress Chan Chun Sing carries the central theme of looking at the choices Singapore made in the past and the choices that have to be made moving forward In line with reflecting on Singapore s past the book will include a full report on a survey of 1 500 Singaporeans perceptions of 50 historical events from independence to now
