Social Worlds Of Sentencing:

Social Worlds of Sentencing Jeffery T. Ulmer, 1997-07-31 Combines quantitative and qualitative data in a careful investigation of sentencing processes and context under Pennsylvania's sentencing guidelines Introduction to Criminal Justice Lawrence Travis III, 2017-10-23 This student friendly introductory core text describes the criminal justice process in the United States outlining the decisions practices people and issues involved It provides a solid introduction to the mechanisms of the criminal justice system with balanced coverage of the issues presented by each facet of the process including a thorough review of practices and controversies in law enforcement the criminal courts and corrections

Transforming Criminal Justice Jon B. Gould, Pamela R. Metzger, 2022-12-06 America's criminal justice system requires reform but those efforts too often rest on anecdotes or assumptions Drawing on the contributions of America's top justice researchers this compendium provides an evidence based blueprint to guide the movement toward criminal justice reform

Selective Incapacitation and Public Policy Kathleen Auerhahn, 2012-02-01 From the 1970s to the new millennium the prison population in the United States has quadrupled while an unprecedented amount of sentencing reform has taken place largely intended to protect the public from dangerous criminals This book details the California experience including the history and politics of criminal sentencing policy reform as well as the consequences of this activity to the criminal justice system Using cutting edge computer simulation modeling Kathleen Auerhahn explores the impact that sentencing reforms dating back to the 1970s have had on the composition and structure of the criminal justice system with specific focus on prison populations She illustrates how dynamic systems simulation modeling is used to both examine possible futures under a variety of sentencing structures and sentencing policy alternatives including narrowing strike zones and the early release of elderly offenders in order to more effectively target the dangerous criminals these policies promise to remove from society via incarceration

Trial by Treatment Mary Ellen Stitt, 2025-05-20 A troubling account of the unexpected impacts of treatment based alternatives to criminal punishment Every year courts send hundreds of thousands of people to treatment based programs as alternatives to traditional punishment These alternatives known as diversion programs are widely celebrated as reforms that reduce the punishment of the mentally ill But in Trial by Treatment Mary Ellen Stitt shows that they have in fact expanded the reach of the criminal legal system and its power over the lives of the most vulnerable The inner workings of diversion programs are obscure partially by design and data on outcomes is hard to come by Stitt draws on two years of fieldwork in criminal courtrooms and court mandated treatment sessions as well as an original national dataset in depth interviews and experimental survey data to document the hidden impacts of diversion She shows that placing mental healthcare under the control of the courts has helped to legitimize the criminalization of illness warped treatment environments and amplified inequalities in punishment In vivid and humanizing detail Trial by Treatment shows how reforms that keep power and discretion in the same hands can entrench the very problems they promised to solve Routledge

Handbook on American Prisons Laurie A. Gould, John J. Brent, 2020-11-01 The Routledge Handbook on American Prisons is an authoritative volume that provides an overview of the state of U S prisons and synthesizes the research on the many facets of the prison system The United States is exceptional in its use of incarceration as punishment It not only has the largest prison population in the world but also the highest per capita incarceration rate Research and debate about mass incarceration continues to grow with mounting bipartisan agreement on the need for criminal justice reform Divided into four sections Prisons Security Operations and Administration Types of Offenders and Populations Living and Dying in Prison and Release Reentry and Reform the volume explores the key issues fundamental to understanding the U S prison system including the characteristics of facilities inmate risk assessment and classification prison administration and employment for profit prisons special populations overcrowding prison health care prison violence the special circumstances of death row prisoners collateral consequences of incarceration prison programming and parole The final section examines reform efforts and ideas and offers suggestions for future research and attention With contributions from leading correctional scholars this book is a valuable resource for scholars with an interest in U S prisons and the issues surrounding them It is structured to serve scholars and graduate students studying corrections penology institutional corrections and other related topics

How Do Judges Decide? Cassia Spohn, 2002-01-28 The appropriate amount of punishment for a given crime is an issue that has been debated by scholars philosophers and legal professionals since the beginning of civilizations This book seeks to address this issue in all of its complexity by providing a comprehensive overview of the sentencing process in the United States The book begins by discussing the overall concept of punishment and then proceeds to dissect individual aspects of punishment Topics include the sentencing process responsibility of the judge disparity and discrimination in sentencing and sentencing reform This book is an ideal text for introductory courses on the judicial system criminal law law and society It can be an essential resource to help students understand patterns in the wide discretion and latitude given to judges when determining punishments within the framework of the United States judicial system

Judging Juveniles Aaron Kupchik, 2006-11-20 2007 Ruth Shonle Cavan Young Scholar Award presented by the American Society of Criminology 2007 American Society of Criminology Michael J Hindelang Award for the Most Outstanding Contribution to Research in Criminology By comparing how adolescents are prosecuted and punished in juvenile and criminal adult courts Aaron Kupchik finds that prosecuting adolescents in criminal court does not fit with our cultural understandings of youthfulness As a result adolescents who are transferred to criminal courts are still judged as juveniles Ultimately Kupchik makes a compelling argument for the suitability of juvenile courts in treating adolescents Judging Juveniles suggests that justice would be better served if adolescents were handled by the system designed to address their special needs
