Contemporary Voices From The Margin Peter Ukpokodu, Omiunota N. Ukpokodu, 2012-06-01 Traditionally American educators and communities have looked to Europe and Asia for ideas for rethinking and reforming education for America's diverse children This book Contemporary Voices from the Margin African Educators on African and American Education brings together new voices of diverse African born teacher educators and Africanist scholars who share personal experiences as well as researchbased perspectives about education in Africa and America that will be valuable to rethinking and reforming education for America's struggling schools The book is a comprehensive work of experienced educators and scholars in the field of teacher education and African Studies The editors of the book invited a diverse group of African born teacher educators and scholars from different countries of Africa who teach in the U S The contributors share a common African experience but they are geographically diverse in countries of origin and research Their knowledge about African communal living as well as colonial powers and imperialism as they operated in various African countries enables them to compare and contrast various educational models and practices including traditional ones They are also diverse in their fields of specialization but have expertise in multicultural education urban education and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U S discourses in public education and teacher preparation programs Given that these scholars were born or socialized and educated in as well as taught schools and colleges in their respective African countries before settling in the United States they bring a wealth of experience and insights into what it means to successfully educate children and youth The book is divided into three parts Part 1 examines African processes and practices of education both formal and informal as contributing authors share perspectives about African indigenous education including cultural socialization and formal western type education and organization of schools Part 2 focuses on patterns and structures of formal western type education in selected African countries Part 3 explores cross cultural perspectives on American education The contributors provide chapters of stimulating and rich perspectives that will engage the discourse on rethinking and reforming education and schooling for America s diverse students Crossroads in the Black Aegean Barbara Goff,Michael

Simpson,2007-11-15 A study of African rewritings of Greek tragedy this title asks why the plays of Sophocles Theban Cycle are so often adapted by dramatists of African descent and how plays that dilate on the power of the past can articulate the postcolonial moment Post-Colonial Drama Helen Gilbert,Joanne Tompkins,2002-09-11 Post Colonial Drama is the first full length study to address the ways in which performance has been instrumental in resisting the continuing effects of imperialism It brings to bear the latest theoretical approaches from post colonial and performance studies to a range of plays from Australia Africa Canada New Zealand the Caribbean and other former colonial regions Some of the major topics discussed in Post Colonial Drama include the interactions of post colonial and performance theories the post colonial re stagings of language and history the specific enactments of ritual and carnival the theatrical citations of the post colonial body Post Colonial Drama combines a rich intersection of theoretical approaches with close attention to a wide range of performance texts Dynamics of Distancing in Nigerian Drama Nadia Anwar,2016-07-05 Nadia Anwar analyzes selected post independence Nigerian dramas using the conceptual framework of metatheatre a theatrical strategy that foregrounds the process of play making by breaking the dramatic illusion She argues that distancing as a function of metatheatre creates a balanced theatrical experience and environment in terms of the emotive and cognitive levels of reception of a particular performance Anwar s book is the first in depth study to apply the concept of metatheatre to Nigerian drama She brings the perspectives of Bertolt Brecht Thomas J Scheff and other theoreticians of dramatic distancing to the analysis of plays by authors such as Wole Soyinka Ola Rotimi Femi Osofisan Esiaba Irobi and Stella Dia Oyedepo Routledge Handbook of African Theatre and Performance Kene Igweonu,2024-06-10 The Routledge Handbook of African Theatre and Performance brings together the very latest international research on the performing arts across the continent and the diaspora into one expansive and wide ranging collection The book offers readers a compelling journey through the different ideas people and practices that have shaped African theatre and performance from pre colonial and colonial times right through to the 20th and early 21st centuries Resolutely Pan African and inter national in its coverage the book draws on the expertise of a wide range of Africanist scholars and also showcases the voices of performers and theatre practitioners working on the cutting edge of African theatre and performance practice Contributors aim to answer some of the big questions about the content nature form and context processes practice of theatre whilst also painting a pluralistic and complex picture of the diversity of cultural political and artistic exigencies across the continent Covering a broad range of themes including postcolonialism transnationalism interculturalism Afropolitanism development and the diaspora the handbook concludes by projecting possible future directions for African theatre and performance as we continue to advance into the 21st century and beyond This ground breaking new handbook will be essential reading for students and researchers studying theatre and performance practices across Africa and the diaspora

Theatre and Postcolonial Desires Awam Amkpa, 2004-06 This book explores the themes of colonial encounters and postcolonial contests over identity power and culture through the prism of theatre The struggles it describes unfolded in two cultural settings separated by geography but bound by history in a common web of colonial relations spun by the imperatives of European modernity In post imperial England as in its former colony Nigeria the colonial experience not only hybridized the process of national self definition but also provided dramatists with the language imagery and frame of reference to narrate the dynamics of internal wars over culture and national destiny happening within their own societies The author examines the works of prominent twentieth century Nigerian and English dramatists such as Wole Soyinka Femi Osofisan David Edgar and Caryl Churchill to argue that dramaturgies of resistance in the contexts of both Nigerian as well as its imperial inventor England shared a common allegiance to what he describes as postcolonial desires That is the aspiration to overcome the legacies of colonialism by imagining alternative universes anchored in democratic cultural pluralism The plays and their histories serve as filters through which Amkpa illustrates the operation of what he calls overlapping modernities and reconfigures the notions of power and representation citizenship and subjectivity colonial and anticolonial nationalisms and postcoloniality The dramatic works studied in this book embodied a version of postcolonial aspirations that the author conceptualises as transcending temporal locations to encompass varied moments of consciousness for progressive change whether they happened during the hey day of English imperialism in early twentieth century Nigeria or in response to the exclusionary politics of the Conservative Party in Thatcherite England Theatre and Postcolonial Desires will be essential reading for students and researchers in the areas of drama postcolonial and cultural studies

A Companion to Modern African Art Gitti Salami, Monica Blackmun Visona, 2013-10-22 Offering a wealth of perspectives on African modern and Modernist art from the mid nineteenth century to the present this new Companion features essays by African European and North American authors who assess the work of individual artists as well as exploring broader themes such as discoveries of new technologies and globalization A pioneering continent based assessment of modern art and modernity across Africa Includes original and previously unpublished fieldwork based material Features new and complex theoretical arguments about the nature of modernity and Modernism Addresses a widely acknowledged gap in the literature on African Art

The Athenian Sun in an African Sky Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., 2001-11-14 Western literature has become more influential in Africa since the independence of many of that continent's countries in the early 1960s In particular Greek tragedy has grown as model and inspiration for African theatre artists This work begins with a discussion of the affinity that modern day African playwrights have for ancient Greek tragedy and the factors that determine their choice of classical texts and topics The study concentrates on how African playwrights transplant the dramatic action and narrative of the Greek texts by rewriting both the performance codes and the cultural context The methods by which African playwrights have adapted Greek tragedy and the ways in which the plays satisfy the prevailing principles of both cultures are examined The plays are The Bacchae of Euripides by Wole Soyinka Song of a Goat by J P Clark The Gods Are Not to Blame by Ola Rotimi Guy Butler s Demea Efua Sutherland s Eufua Orestes by Athol Fugard The Song of Jacob Zulu by Tug Yourgrau Femi Osofisan s Tegonni Edward Kamau Brathwaite s Odale s Choice The Island by Fugard John Kani and Winston Ntshona and Sylvain Bemba s Black Wedding Candles for Blessed Antigone

Performative Inter-Actions in African Theatre 2 Kene Igweonu, Osita Okagbue, 2014-04-11 This book is part of a three volume book set published under the general title of Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre Each of the three books in the set has a unique subtitle that works to better focus its content and differentiates it from the other two volumes The contributors backgrounds and global spread adequately reflect the international focus of the three books that make up the collection The contributions in their various ways demonstrate the many advances and ingenious solutions adopted by African theatre practitioners in tackling some of the challenges arising from the adverse colonial experience as well as the one sided advance of globalisation The contributions attest to the thriving nature of African theatre and performance which in the face of these challenges has managed to retain its distinctiveness while at the same time acknowledging contesting and appropriating influences from elsewhere into an aesthetic that is identifiably African Consequently the three books are presented as a comprehensive exploration of the current state of African theatre and performance both on the continent and diaspora

Performative Inter Actions in African Theatre 2 Innovation Creativity and Social Change contains essays that address performativity as a process particularly in the context of theatre s engagement with contemporary realities with the hope of instigating social change The innovativeness of the examples explored within the book points to the ingenuity and adaptive capacity of African theatre in ways that engage indigenous forms in the service of contemporary realities Contributions in Innovation Creativity and Social Change explore forms such as Theatre for Development community and applied theatre and indigenous juridical performances as well as the work of contemporary dramatists and performers who set out to instigate change in society
