Léon: The Story of a Friendship' Revisited Alexis Léon, Anna Maria Léon, Luca Crispi, 2022-10-20 James Joyce spent the last decade of his life in Paris struggling to finish his great final work Finnegans Wake amidst personal and financial hardship and just as Europe was being engulfed by the rising tide of fascism Bringing together new archival discoveries and personal accounts this book explores one of the central relationships of his final years that with his friend confidant and adviser Paul L. Léon Providing first hand accounts of Joyce's Paris circle which included Samuel Beckett and Vladimir Nabokov the book makes available again the text of Lucie Léon's personal memoir of the relationship between her husband and the Irish writer published as James Joyce and Paul L. Léon The Story of Friendship in 1950 including his valiant rescue of Joyce's Paris archives from occupying Nazi forces The book also collects for the first time Léon's clandestine letters to his wife from August to December 1941 chronicling his desperate state of body and mind while interned in Drancy France's main Nazi transit camp and then in Compiegne just before he was deported to Auschwitz Birkenau Joyce died suddenly on 13 January 1941 in Zurich and Léon was murdered by the Nazis on 4 April 1942 in Silesia Annotated throughout with contextual commentary by Luca Crispi and Mary Gallagher this is an essential resource for scholars of James Joyce and of the literary culture of Paris in the 1930s and first years of World War II in France Education and the Law Gerald Stowbridge, Witold Tulasiewicz, 2003-09-02 This edited collection discusses the way legislation affects education and training and shows how the law can influence the level and degree of economic activity Sociology through Relation Christian Papilloud, 2017-10-17 This book delivers a top down understanding of relation as a macro phenomenon in society This understanding rests on the reconstruction of an ongoing debate in the French tradition about the purpose of a relational perspective in sociology and the social sciences Christian Papilloud analyzes the cardinal steps of this debate which historically relate to the concept of solidarity expressing an ideal of social cohesion through relationships between personal and non personal actors In social theory it is well known that solidarity refers to Emile Durkheim But little is known about the controversies generated in relation to the purpose of a relational perspective in sociology Papilloud reconstructs and follows the most important of these controversies in a comparative perspective beginning with Emile Durkheim and Gaston Richard on solidarity Richard and Marcel Mauss on sacrifice and magic Mauss and Pierre Bourdieu on gift and social positions Bourdieu and Bruno Latour on the objects of exchanges and institutions and Latour and Durkheim on reciprocity and control These comparisons give shape to a theoretical framework for a sociology through relation Encyclopedia of Law and Society David S.
