The Dark Palazzo:

The Dark Palazzo Virginia Coffman,1973 Gothic Novels of the Twentieth Century Elsa J. Radcliffe,1979 Easy to use competently indexed and fun to explore this bibliography is an irresistible antidote for all forms of gothic snobbery Recommended for gothophiliacs gothophobiacs and readers with idle nights and empty weekends Here Begins the Dark Sea Meredith Francesca Small,2023-06-06 The remarkable story of the cartographic masterpiece the Venetian mappa mundi that revolutionized how we see the world In 1459 a Venetian monk named Fra Mauro completed an astonishing map of the world Seven feet in diameter Fra Mauro s mappamundi is the oldest and most complete Medieval map to survive into modernity And in its time this groundbreaking mappamundi provided the most detailed description of the known world incorporating accurate observation and geographic reality urging viewers to see water and land as they really existed Fra Mauro s map was the first in history to show that a ship could circumnavigate Africa and that the Indian Sea was in fact an ocean enabling international trade to expand across the globe Acclaimed anthropologist Meredith F Small reveals how Fra Mauro s mappamundi made cartography into a science rather than a practice based on religion and ancient myths Here Begins the Dark Sea brings Fra Mauro s masterpiece to life as a work of art and a window into Venetian society and culture In telling the story of this cornerstone of modern cartography Small takes the reader on a fascinating journey as she explores the human urge to find our way Here Begins the Dark Sea is a riveting testament to the undeniable impact Fra Mauro and his mappamundi have had over the past five centuries and still holds relevance today Deadly to the Sight Edward Sklepowich,2015-01-27 Back in Venice after a long absence Urbino Macintyre pursues a blackmailer For two years Urbino Macintyre has been away from his beloved city wandering the streets of Morocco in search of material for his next book When he steps off the train and into a gondola in Venice he knows he has come home His first stop is to see his beloved friend the Contessa da Capo Zendrini a society butterfly who has two years of gossip stored up for him But the contessa is not her usual lively self She is being blackmailed and only Macintyre can help He follows the blackmailer an old woman from the lace making island of Burano seeking clues to her motives When she is found murdered at a cocktail party Macintyre slips into the expat society of the tiny remote island where land is expensive life is cheap and gossip can be a deadly weapon Architectural Record ,1912 Marzio's Cruzifix Francis Marion Crawford,1887 The Toys of War George Herman,2001 The brutal execution of the patriot woman of Faenza Diamante in violation of the laws of sanctuary creates a division between Cesare Borgia and his sinister condottieri Maestro Leonardo da Vinci quietly attempting to reconcile his new profession as engineer to Cesare Borgia with his philosophy of non violence is caught between the factions When a sentry is strangled by a man with strong hands and two of the condottieri are murdered with Leonardo s own toys of war a wedge is driven between the artist engineer and his patron an alienation that could prove fatal to Leonardo Placed under guard by Cesare the maestro manages to send word of his plight to Niccolo of Pavia now a Bergamini courtier Niccolo enlists the services of the traveling commedia dell arte players known as I Comici Buffoni and together they gather the information and evidence that could prove Leonardo's innocence and expose the plot behind the murders. What they learn brings Leonardo and Niccolò to the little Adriatic port of Sinigaglia where a trap is sprung. A trap that Paolo Giovio called il bellissimo inganno the magnificent deceit. Here too Leonardo comes to realize that the real toys of war are not the battle weapons he designs for Cesare but something much more repugnant and horrifying.

The Urban Design Reader Michael Larice, Elizabeth Macdonald, 2013-05-07 The second edition of The Urban Design Reader draws together the very best of classic and contemporary writings to illuminate and expand the theory and practice of urban design. Nearly 50 generous selections include seminal contributions from Howard Le Corbusier, Lynch and Jacobs to more recent writings by Waldheim, Koolhaas and Sorkin. Following the widespread success of the first edition of The Urban Design Reader, this updated edition continues to provide the most important historical material of the urban design field but also introduces new topics and selections that address the myriad challenges facing designers today. The six-part structure of the second edition guides the reader through the history, theory and practice of urban design. The reader is initially introduced to those classic writings that provide the historical precedents for city making into the twentieth century. Part Two introduces the voices and ideas that were instrumental in establishing the foundations of the urban design field from the late 1950s up to the mid 1990s. These authors present a critical reading of the design professions and offer an alternative urban design agenda focused on vital and lively places. The authors in Part Three provide a range of urban design rationales and strategies for reinforcing local physical identity and the creation of memorable places. These selections are largely describing the outcomes of mid-century urban design and voicing concerns over the placeless quality of contemporary urbanism. The fourth part of the Reader explores key issues in urban design and development. Ideas about sprawl, density, community health, public space and everyday life are the primary focus here. Several new selections in this part of the book also highlight important international development trends in the Middle East and China. Part Five presents environmental challenges faced by the built environment professions today, including recent material on landscape urbanism, sustainability and urban resiliency. The final part examines professional practice and current debates in the field where urban designers work: what they do, their roles, their fields of knowledge and their educational development. The section concludes with several position pieces and debates on the future of urban design practice. This book provides an essential resource for students and practitioners of urban design, drawing together important but widely dispersed writings. Part and section introductions are provided to assist readers in understanding the context of the material, summary messages, impacts of the writing and how they fit into the larger picture of the urban design field.

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him.
