The Day Mrs. Roosevelt Came to Town Anne Buckley,2000-01-01 Olive Johnson a young African American woman living in Lancaster Texas in the 1930s is inspired by the writings of Eleanor Roosevelt to leave behind a life of housekeeping for white folks and to follow in the path of Madam C J Walker to become a beautician and her own boss Hidden History of Fort Collins Barbara Fleming,2017 From its Wild West days to the early twentieth century Fort Collins boasted its share of colorful characters British import Edith Boothroyd saved a mare from meeting a tragic fate after the bridge she and the horse were traveling across unexpectedly collapsed In 1915 barnstormer Billy Parker built his first biplane in a local field Happy Jack slipped away from prison after slyly convincing the jailer to loosen his restraints And Francis Carter Cotton left investors holding the bag when he fled to Canada after racking up 300 000 in debt Barbara Fleming divulges these entertaining stories and more Another Day's Begun Howard Sherman,2021-01-14 A work of startling originality when it debuted in 1938 Thornton Wilder's Our Town evolved to be seen by some as a vintage slice of early 20th Century Americana rather than being fully appreciated for its complex and eternal themes and its deceptively simple form This unique and timely book shines a light on the play's continued impact in the 21st century and makes a case for the healing powers of Wilder's text to a world confronting multiple crises Through extensive interviews with more than 100 artists about their own experience of the play and its impact on them professionally and personally and including background on the play's early years and its pervasiveness in American culture Another Day's Begun shows why this particular work remains so important essential and beloved Every production of Our Town has a story to tell beyond Wilder's own One year after the tragedy of 9 11 Paul Newman in his final stage appearance played the Stage Manager in Our Town on Broadway Director David Cromer's 2008 Chicago interpretation would play in five more cities ultimately becoming New York's longest running Our Town ever In 2013 incarcerated men at Sing Sing Correctional Facility brought Grover's Corners inside a maximum security prison After the 2017 arena bombing in Manchester UK the Royal Exchange Theatre chose Our Town as its offering to the stricken community 80 years after it was written more than 110 years after its actions take place Our Town continues to assert itself as an essential play about how we must embrace and appreciate the value of life itself Another Day's Begun explains how this American classic has the power to inspire heal and endure in the modern day onstage and beyond The Great Depression in Literature for Youth Rebecca L. Berg,2004-11-17 No area of the United States was untouched by the Great Depression but the severity in which people experienced those significant years depended in large part on where in the nation they lived While dust choked the life out of Americans in the plains apples grew in abundance in the Northwest Unemployment driven poverty robbed urban dwellers of hearth and home while Upper plains farm women traded eggs and chickens like money This bibliography describes the youth literature and relevant resources written about the Great Depression all categorized by geographical location Students educators historians and writers can use this book to find literature specific to their state or
