Miller, Harry S. Stout, Charles Reagan Wilson, 1998-11-05 The sixteen essays in this volume all previously unpublished address the little considered question of the role played by religion in the American Civil War The authors show that religion understood in its broadest context as a culture and community of faith was found wherever the war was found Comprising essays by such scholars as Elizabeth Fox Genovese Drew Gilpin Faust Mark Noll Reid Mitchell Harry Stout and Bertram Wyatt Brown and featuring an afterword by James McPherson this collection marks the first step towards uncovering this crucial yet neglected aspect of American history Anderson Co, KY , 1991-07-01 From the foreword This Family History of Anderson County preserves the proud heritage of our county and communities as well as many of our churches businesses organizations and families Our intent is to record a picture of the people organizations and activities for future generations The Christian Advocate , 1912

Hunting the Wren Elizabeth Atwood Lawrence, 1997 A unique interdisciplinary study this book examines the British and European tradition of the wren hunt in which a bird ordinarily revered and protected for most of the year was killed around the time of the annual solstice In focusing on this ancient ritual Elizabeth Atwood Lawrence draws on her training in cultural anthropology and biology to cast a fresh light on the complexities of human animal relationships Following an introductory chapter on animal symbolism Lawrence proceeds in subsequent chapters to describe the wren both as a biological entity and as the subject of numerous tales and legends to delineate the details of the wren hunt ceremony and the various meanings ascribed to it and finally to relate the ceremony to important contemporary issues in human animal interactions and current attitudes toward the living environment Whereas most other studies tend to concentrate solely on human perceptions of animals and fail to include the animal s role in the relationship Lawrence s approach shows how the participation of both animal and human determines the symbolic status of the animal which in turn influences the treatment of that animal within a particular society At a time when human destructiveness toward nature has reached tragic proportions Lawrence contends it is critical that we understand the processes by which certain cultural beliefs in combination with observations about the natural history of a particular animal result in emotional and mental responses that may ultimately determine the fate of that species The author argues persuasively that the wren hunt with its ancient roots associated beliefs and complex meanings in the preindustrialized world still has much to teach us Youssef Chahine Ibrahim Fawal, 2019-07-25 A discussion of the frequently controversial film maker Youssef Chahine The book aims to illuminate Chahine's work in the context of modern Egyptian culture and its tumultuous post war history and how such films as Cairo Station 1958 The Earth 1959 and The Sparrow 1973 dramatized the dilemmas of ordinary Egyptians He also argues that Chahine's intensely autobiographical trilogy Alexandria Why 1978 An Egyptian Story 1985 and Alexandria More and More 1989 spoke to the concerns of the broader Egyptian intelligentsia amongst whom he has earned the reputation of being the poet and thinker of modern Arab cinema The final analysis of the book argues that Chahine's work stands comparison with directors such as Fellini Bergman Kurosawa or Sembene but also emphatically draws strength from its links with one of the most vibrant popular cinemas of the world and from the roots and traditions of popular Arabic culture The Delta of Sigma Nu ,1996
