Richard Fardon

The Dead Dad Gang:

The Dead Dad Gang Rob Lipsey, 2004-06-01 A heart touching tale full of warmth and a little sarcasm about the relationships of six fatherless friends For Rob Eric Carine Verona Macy and Marcus life has not been easy without the support of both parents Being without their fathers and not much time from their mothers has left them to do a little parenting on themselves and on each other Now graduating from high school opens new doors to their journeys in life For some adulthood is not all it s cracked up to be Follow their struggles and triumphs their disappointments and joys their neurosis and anxieties as they reunite over five summers after time away at college and being busy with their less than attractive jobs It s a roller coaster event as this family of friends try to live up their present by figuring out their futures and letting go of their pasts
