The Debated Lands British And American Representations Of The Balkans:

The Debated Lands Andrew Hammond, 2007 A volume focusing on the popular genre of travel writing the book examines over 400 British and American literary texts in order to outline and account for the multiple ways in which the Balkans have been represented from the mid nineteenth century to the present day The British and the Balkans Eugene Michail, 2011-08-18 American Representations of Post-Communism Andaluna Borcila, 2014-07-11 With the televised events of 1989 territories of Eastern and Central Europe that had been marked as impenetrable and inaccessible to the Western gaze exploded into visibility As the narratives of the Cold War crumbled new narratives emerged and new geographies were produced on and by American television Using an understudied archive of American news broadcasts and tracing their flashes and echoes through travel guides and narratives of return written by Eastern European Americans this book explores American ways of seeing and mapping communism s disintegration and the narratives articulated around post communist sites and subjects

Yugoslavia in the British Imagination Samuel Foster, 2021-06-17 Despite Britain entering the 20th century as the dominant world power public discourses were imbued with a cultural pessimism and rising social anxiety Through this study Samuel Foster explores how this changing domestic climate shaped perceptions of other cultures and Britain s relationship to them focusing on those Balkan territories that formed the first Yugoslavia from 1918 to 1941 Yugoslavia in the British Imagination examines these connections and demonstrates how the popular image of the region s peasantry evolved from that of foreign Other to historical victim suffering at the hand of modernity s worst excesses and symbolizing Britain s perceived decline This coincided with an emerging moralistic sense of British identity that manifested during the First World War Consequently Yugoslavia was legitimized as the solution to peasant victimization and as Foster s nuanced analysis reveals enabling Britain s imagined and self promoted revival as civilization s moral arbiter Drawing on a range of previously unexplored archival sources this compelling transnational analysis is an important contribution to the study of British social history and the nature of statehood in the modern Balkans

The Balkans in Travel Writing Marija Knežević, 2015-09-18 This book revisits images of the Balkans in twentieth century travel writing that vividly mirrors the turbulent changes that the region went through As such it provides a vital basis for research into the variety of possibilities or obstacles present on the region s path to accession when its unique heritage will have to be reconciled with a more European identity This volume explores the work of well known authors such as Rebecca West Paul Theroux Robert D Kaplan and also contributes to travel writing theory by addressing less known travellers who recorded their thoughts on the social dynamics of the region The corpus offers divergent and often contradictory views ranging from moral and political criticism to a delight in the rich heritage and the still undiscovered Balkan paths More importantly its generic potentials prove to overcome both the discourse of power and the discourse of apology Its narrative style also comprises striking variations from the objective and well researched approaches to quick impressionist sketches Being a multi generic form travel writing is observed from a multidisciplinary perspective encompassing fields such as literature linguistics history sociology anthropology ethnology political sciences and geography Michael Ondaatje: Haptic Aesthetics and Micropolitical Writing Milena Marinkova, 2011-07-14 This study of selected literary and cinematic works by Michael Ondaatje investigates the political potential of the Canadian author's aesthetics Contributing to current debates about affect and representation ideology critique and the artwork trauma and testimony this book uses the concept of the haptic to demonstrate how Ondaatje's multisensory fluid and historically inflected writing can forge an enabling relationship between audience author and text This is where Ondaatje's micropolitics often misconstrued as ideologically suspect aestheticism emerges a praxis that intimates how one can write and read politically with a difference Travel Narrative and the Ends of Modernity Stacy Burton, 2014 Combining theoretical arguments with close reading this text traces how twentieth century writers have reinvented travel narrative for new purposes Myths of Europe Richard Littlejohns, Sara Soncini, 2007 Myths of Europe focuses on the identity of Europe seeking to re assess its cultural literary and political traditions in the context of the 21st century Over 20 authors historians political scientists literary scholars art and cultural historians from five countries here enter into a debate How far are the myths by which Europe has defined itself for centuries relevant to its role in global politics after 9 11 Can Old Europe maintain its traditional identity now that the European Union includes countries previously supposed to be on its periphery How has Europe handled relations with the non European Other in the past and how is it reacting now to an influx of immigrants and asylum seekers It becomes clear that founding myths such as Hamlet and St Nicholas have helped construct the European consciousness but also that these and other European myths have disturbing Eurocentric implications Are these myths still viable today and if so to what extent and for what purpose This volume sits on the interface between culture and politics and is important reading for all those interested in the transmission of myth and in both the past and the future of Europe Across the Corrupting Sea Cavan Concannon, Lindsey A. Mazurek, 2016-03-17 Across the Corrupting Sea Post Braudelian Approaches to the Ancient Eastern Mediterranean reframes current discussions of the Mediterranean world by rereading the past with new methodological approaches The work asks readers to consider how future studies might write histories of the Mediterranean moving from the larger pan Mediterranean approaches of The Corrupting Sea towards locally oriented case studies Spanning from the Archaic period to the early Middle Ages contributors engage the pioneering studies of the Mediterranean by Fernand Braudel through the use of critical theory GIS network analysis and postcolonial cultural inquiries Scholars from several time periods and disciplines rethink the Mediterranean as a geographic and cultural space shaped by human connectivity and follow the flow of ideas ships trade goods and pilgrims along the roads and seascapes that connected the Mediterranean across time and space The volume thus interrogates key concepts like cabotage seascapes deep time social networks and connectivity in the light of contemporary archaeological and theoretical advances in order to create new ways of writing more diverse histories of the ancient world that bring together local contexts literary materials and archaeological analysis

Facing the East in the West Barbara Korte, Eva Ulrike Pirker, Sissy Helff, 2010 Over the last decade migration flows from Central and Eastern Europe have become an issue in political debates about human rights social integration multiculturalism and citizenship in Great Britain The increasing number of Eastern Europeans living in Britain has provoked ambivalent and diverse responses including representations in film and literature that range from travel writing humorous fiction mockumentaries musicals drama and children s literature to the thriller The present volume discusses a wide range of representations of Eastern and Central Europe and its people as reflected in British literature film and culture The book offers new readings of authors who have influenced the cultural imagination since the nineteenth century such as Bram Stoker George Bernard Shaw Joseph Conrad and Arthur Koestler It also discusses the work of more contemporary writers and film directors including Sacha Baron Cohen David Cronenberg Vesna Goldsworthy Kapka Kassabova Marina Lewycka Ken Loach Mike Phillips Joanne K Rowling and Rose Tremain With its focus on post Wall Europe Facing the East in the West goes beyond discussions of migration to Britain from an established postcolonial perspective and contributes to the current exploration of new European identities
