

THE CONGRESS, July 4, 1776.

DECLARATION,

By the REPRESENTATIVES of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
In GENERAL CONGRESS assembled.

WHEN in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the Political Bonds which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness—that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former system of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid

For pretending them by a mock Trial, from justice to any Man who shall oppose to the Intestates of their Lives.

For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the World.

For imposing Taxes on us without our consent.

For depriving us, in many Cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury.

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended Offences.

For abolishing the best System of English Laws, in a neighbouring Province, establishing thereby an arbitrary Government, and enlarging its Boundaries, so as to extend it as well as example and its influence for introducing the same arbitrary rule into these Colonies.

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments.

For suspending our Laws; and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all Cases whatsoever.

The King hath refused assent to Laws, by declaring us out of the protection, and waging War against us.

He has plundered our Seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our Towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time, transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to complete the works of Death, Destruction and Tyranny, already begun with regularities of Court, and Periodically, annually, quarterly to the most barbarous Acts, and totally contrary to the spirit of a British Nation.

He has prostituted our sacred Colonies to the Captivity to the high seas to have Arms and Ammunition sent to us, to support the Tyranny of these Colonies and Barbians, at the expense of our lives and property.

He has caused the Colonies to be seized, and he endeavored to bring on
