

Samuel Pepys' Diary

Who?

Samuel Pepys ("Peeps") is famous because he kept a diary. He began his diary in January 1660 and continued writing it until May 1669, when he was too blind to write.

It was a private diary, written in code, and never meant to be published. However, it gives us fantastic evidence about life in London during the Great Plague and the Great Fire.

It is a primary resource source as it comes from the time.

QUESTIONS

1. Why is Samuel Pepys famous? [1]
2. What makes Pepys say that the Plague makes people more cruel to one another than to dogs? [1]
3. Why does Pepys think nobody will want to wear 'periwigs' after the plague? [1]
4. Why is Samuel Pepys' diary so useful to us? [3]
5. Using Pepys' diary entries, find evidence of the Lord Mayor's orders. [4]

30 April 1665

"Great fear of the sickness here in the City, it being said that two or three houses are already shut up. God preserve us all."

7 June 1665

"This day, much against my will, I did in Drury Lane see two or three houses marked with a red cross upon the doors, and 'Lord Have Mercy Upon Us' writ there - which was a sad sight to me, being the first of that kind . . . that I ever saw. It put me into an ill conception of myself and my smell, so that I was forced to buy some roll-tobacco to smell and chew, which took away the apprehension."

10 June 1665

" . . . to my great trouble, hear that the plague is come into the city . . . but where should it begin but in my good friend and neighbour's, Dr. Burnett in Fenchurch Street . . . To my bed, being troubled at the sickness . . . and particularly how to put my things and estate in order, in case it should please God to call me away."

12 August 1665

"The people die so, that it now seems they are willing to carry the dead to be buried by daylight, the nights not being long enough to do it. And my Lord Mayor commands people to be inside by nine at night that the sick may leave their domestic prison for air and exercise."

22 August 1665

"I went on a walk to Greenwich, on my way seeing a coffin with a dead body in it, dead of plague. It lay in an open yard . . . It was carried there last night, and the parish has not told anybody to bury it. This disease makes us more cruel to one another than we are to dogs."

3 September 1665

"Up, and put my coloured suit on, very fine, and my new periwig, bought a good while since, but durst not wear, because the plague was in Westminster when I bought it; and it is a wonder what will be the fashion after the plague is done, as to periwigs, for nobody will dare to buy any hair for fear of infection, that it had been cut off the heads of people dead of the plague."
