The Development Of Indonesian Society:

The Development of Indonesian Society Harry Aveling, 1979 The Development of Indonesian Nationalism Kay Hock Khoo, 1977 Sumatran Contributions to the Development of Indonesian Literature, 1920-1942 Alberta Joy Freidus, 1977 A History of Christianity in Indonesia Jan Sihar Aritonang, Karel Adriaan Steenbrink, 2008

Indonesia is the home of the largest single Muslim community of the world Its Christian community about 10% of the population has until now received no overall description in English Through cooperation of 26 Indonesian and European scholars Protestants and Catholics a broad and balanced picture is given of its 24 million Christians This book sketches the growth of Christianity during the Portuguese period 1511 1605 it presents a fair account of developments under the Dutch colonial administration 1605 1942 and is more elaborate for the period of the Indonesian Republic since 1945 It emphasizes the regional differences in this huge country because most Christians live outside the main island of Java Muslim Christian relations as well as the tensions between foreign missionaries and local theology receive special attention

Values and Participation Bambang Budijanto, 2009 Breaking the Chains of Oppression of the Indonesian People Heri Akhmadi, 2009-12

From its establishment in 1954 part of the mandate of Cornell s Modern Indonesia Project has been the translation and publication in English of important documents that would otherwise have been unavailable to many of those interested in Indonesia s social and political history These have included the writings of Hatta A K Pringgodigdo Simatupang Sjahrir Sudjatmoko Sukarno Supomo Widjojo and Wilopo Also included in this coverage of the Translation Series have been documents unavailable even in the original Dutch or Indonesian such as the long suppressed report by the Netherlands East Indies Government s Coolie Budget Commission Living Conditions of Plantation Workers and Peasants on Java which we published twenty five years ago The translation here presented of Heri Akhmadi s defense statement at his trial is of a similar genre for despite its intrinsic significance and its relevance to an appreciation of how the leaders of a new generation of educated Indonesians view their country s government and its major social economic and political problems it too has been suppressed To prevent this important insight into the current Indonesian situation becoming buried and unavailable we are pleased to help provide for the dissemination it deserves I would predict that a quarter of a century from now Heri Akhmadi s statement may well be regarded as having at least as much importance to understanding present day Indonesia as the Coolie Budget Commission report had for an earlier period in the country s history Heri Akhmadi was elected by the student body of the Bandung Institute of Technology one of the most prestigious institutions of higher learning in the country as Chairman of their Student Council and their principal representative Since his views are close to those of the elected student leaders from more than two dozen other universities and colleges who were arrested at the same time his statement can be regarded as representative of the ideas of the intellectual vanguard of the contemporary generation of Indonesian students which despite ongoing efforts to suppress them are likely to have a significant effect on their country s history Heri Akhmadi and these other student leaders were arrested and jailed in 1978 following widespread student protest at Suharto's unopposed election for another term as President. As a consequence they were charged with having insulted the head of state and it is because of the nature of this charge that Heri Akhmadi's defense statement takes the form it does. What the government considers as an insult to the head of state is what the students see as valid criticism of its policies. It is to these criticisms that Heri Akhmadi addresses his defense statement that we have here published. George McT Kahin, January 1981. Social Science and Power in Indonesia. Vedi R. Hadiz, 2005. The premise of Social Science and Power in Indonesia is that the role and development of social sciences in Indonesia over the past fifty years are inextricably related to the shifting requirements of power. What is researched and what is not, which frameworks achieve paradigmatic status while others are marginalized and which kinds of social scientists become influential while others are ignored are all matters of power. These and other important themes and issues are critically explored by some of Indonesia's foremost social scientists in this seminal work. ICETLAWBE 2020
