Supermarkets 50 Years Of Progress:

Supermarkets, 50 Years of Progress Randolph McAusland, 1980 Shopping Center and Store Leases Emanuel B. Halper, 2001 The Secret Life of Groceries Benjamin Lorr, 2020 In the tradition of Fast Food Nation and The Omnivore's Dilemma an extraordinary investigation into the human lives at the heart of the American grocery store What does it take to run the American supermarket How do products get to shelves Who sets the price And who suffers the consequences of increased convenience and efficiency In this alarming exposé author Benjamin Lorr pulls back the curtain on this highly secretive industry Combining deep sourcing immersive reporting and compulsively readable prose Lorr leads a wild investigation in which we learn The secrets of Trader Joe's success from Trader Joe himself Why truckers call their job sharecropping on wheels What it takes for a product to earn certification labels like organic and fair trade The struggles entrepreneurs face as they fight for shelf space including essential tips tricks and traps for any new food business The truth behind the alarming slave trade in the shrimp industry The result is a page turning portrait of an industry in flux filled with the passion ingenuity and exploitation required to make this everyday miracle continue to function The product of five years of research and hundreds of interviews across every level of the industry The Secret Life of Groceries delivers powerful social commentary on the inherently American quest for more and the social costs therein Monthly Labor Review, 1992-09 Publishes in depth articles on labor subjects current labor statistics information about current labor contracts and book reviews Main Street to Miracle Mile Chester Liebs, 1995-08 Traces the transformation of commercial development as it has moved from centralized main streets out along the street car lines to form the miracle miles and shopping malls of today Also explores the evolution of roadside buildings Back cover The Illustrated History of American Military Commissaries: The Defense Commissary Agency and its predecessors, since 1989 , Shopping at Giant Foods Alfred Yee, 2012-09-01 From the 1930s through the 1970s Chinese American owned supermarkets located outside of Chinatown catering to a non Chinese clientele and featuring mainstream American foods and other products and services rose to prominence and phenomenal success in Northern California only to decline as union regulations and competition from national chains made their operation unprofitable Alfred Yee's study of this trajectory is an insider's view of a fascinating era in Asian American immigration and entrepreneurship Drawing on oral interviews with individuals who worked in the business during its peak and decline he presents an accessible history that illustrates how this once thriving business fostered the social and economic integration of Chinese Americans into life in the United States Yee demonstrates how Chinese American supermarkets were able to sell American groceries at reduced prices by using the cheap labor of family members and Chinese immigrants whose entry to the United States had been sponsored by their employers This type of symbiotic relationship was eventually undermined by labor unions demands that employees be covered by labor laws and fully compensated for all hours worked Also contributing to the ultimate demise of Chinese American supermarkets were increasing costs of capitalization and operation the dominance of national chain stores and difficulties arising from traditional Chinese methods of business management The Illustrated History of American Military Commissaries Peter D. Skirbunt, 2008 Presents a comprehensive history spanning the 233 years of the four major services sales commissaries

The Routledge Companion to the History of Retailing Jon Stobart, Vicki Howard, 2018-11-08 Retail history is a rich cross disciplinary field that demonstrates the centrality of retailing to many aspects of human experience from the provisioning of everyday goods to the shaping of urban environments from earning a living to the construction of identity Over the last few decades interest in the history of retail has increased greatly spanning centuries extending to all areas of the globe and drawing on a range of disciplinary perspectives By offering an up to date comprehensive thematic spatial and chronological coverage of the history of retailing this Companion goes beyond traditional narratives that are too simplistic and Euro centric and offers a vibrant survey of this field It is divided into four broad sections 1 Contexts 2 Spaces and places 3 People processes and practices and 4 Geographical variations Chapters are written in an analytical and synthetic manner accessible to the general reader as well as challenging for specialists and with an international perspective This volume is an important resource to a wide range of readers including marketing and management specialists historians geographers economists sociologists and urban planners Shelf Life Kim Humphery, 1998-07-27 Supermarkets in all their everyday mundanity embody something of the enormous complexity of living and consuming in late twentieth century western societies Shelf Life first published in 1998 explores the supermarket as a retail space and as an arena of everyday consumption in Australia It historically situates and critically discusses the everyday food products we buy the retail environments in which we do so the attitudes of the retailers who construct such environments and the diverse ways in which all of us undertake and think about supermarket shopping Yet this book is more than narrative history It engages with broader issues of the nature of Australian modernity the globalisation of retail forms the connection between consumption and self autonomy and the highly gendered nature of retailing and shopping It interrogates also the work of cultural critics and questions recent attempts to grasp what it means to consume and to be a consumer
