Supervision In Transition 1992 Yearbook Of The Association For Supervision And Curriculum Development:

Supervision in Transition, 1992      Supervision for Today's Schools George E. Pawlas, Peter F. Oliva, 2007-06-29 Specifically designed for the introductory course this text provides an overview of the field of instructional supervision Acquaints students with not only the authors views on supervision but with those of other specialists in the field placing heavy emphasis on practice and the supervisor s responsibilities as an instructional leader Continues to stress that the relationship between the supervisor and teacher is built on trust and that the overall goal is to improve student achievement through better instruction      Handbook on Teaching Social Issues Ronald W. Evans, David W. Saxe, 2007-10-01 There s no book like this one for educators interested in issues centered teaching More than 40 experts have contributed articles offering comprehensive coverage of the field of social issues education In addition to a full examination of objectives and methods contributors show how social issues can be taught as part of history geography the social sciences and global and environmental studies The challenges of assessment curriculum and effective teacher education are fully explored With its teaching ideas and useful resource section this book is an indispensable addition to your library Contributors include Shirley Engle Anna Ochoa Becker Jack Nelson Carole Hahn Byron Massialas Jeff Passe Jesus Garcia Gloria Ladson Billings Merry Merryfield Patricia Avery Sam Totten Bill Wraga Walter Parker and James Shaver      Culturally Responsive Instructional Supervision Dwayne Ray Cormier, Ian M. Mette, Yanira Oliveras, 2024 This practical book is for instructional leaders who want to embrace their role as equity leaders and actively work to dismantle harmful educational practices It shows how to establish diverse and representative supervision teams that provide formative feedback to support teachers on their journey toward becoming culturally responsive practitioners      Jsl Vol 5-N6 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 1995-11-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement      Awakening to Educational Supervision Steve Haberman, 2023-11-13 This book introduces mindfulness as an approach for enhancing the supervision of teachers and teacher candidates Drawing on empirical research and the welcoming of mindfulness in public school classrooms the author makes the case for embracing mindfulness methods as a way to become more conscious of supervisory practices and less reactive and to enhance regularly enacted tasks such as classroom observations conference and foster relationships and developing collegiality In contrast to traditional models of supervision the author reframes supervision as a present moment experience in which unlimited possibilities exist Awakening to Educational Supervision A Mindfulness Based Approach to Coaching and Supporting Teachers provides specific techniques and exercises such as mindfulness breathing and meditation mindful walking mindful note taking and deep listening that can be embedded in supervision routines and practices Additional notions furthering the mindful supervision approach are also addressed including the role of intuition mindfulness in relation to ethical and moral action within supervision and mindfulness as a way to further building community among school stakeholders The New School Leader for the 21st Century Edward H. Seifert, James A. Vornberg, 2002-10-16 Veteran educators Seifert and Vornberg utilize the six standards created by the Interstate School Leaders Consortium ISLLIC and used in developing and redesigning preparation programs and state certification examinations to discuss those issues faced by practicing elementary and secondary school principals Each chapter begins with a short case study emanating from a fictitious school district and culminates with student activities that address the concepts discussed in the chapter Questions and activities follow and provide the reader with an opportunity to apply the concepts discussed This design makes it an ideal text for use with principal certification programs offered by higher education units and other alternative certification programs The practice of the principalship is viewed by the authors as a systematic process that addresses the operation of a school as a set of interrelated parts and skills that work together to create a self correcting model of student learning teaching and stakeholder participation An instructor s manual is available as a separate publication The Assistant Principal's Handbook Jeffrey Glanz, 2004-04-08 Concrete suggestions solutions and scenarios empower assistant principals to maximize their impact effectiveness and satisfaction as they supercharge schoolwide achievement Continuing Higher Education Review ,1993 Jsl Vol 4-N5 JOURNAL OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 1994-09-01 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement
