Alf Alderson

Surf Uk:

Surf UK Alf Alderson, 2008-04-21 This is your ultimate guide to Britain's surf beaches. It's packed with the local knowledge you need to discover exciting waves in unexpected places. Discover the hidden spots that make the UK a surfing paradise. From the beach breaks of the UK's surfing epicentre the South West to the slab reefs of the North East, each chapter deals with a particular section of the coastline and each break is discussed together with details about the beach including access facilities and accommodation. Using this book you should always find the best waves going whatever your standard. There are also hints as to where you might discover your own secret spot for those surfers eager to get off the beaten track.

Surf U.K. Alf Alderson, 2006-07-31 Surfing is booming and this is the guide to Britain's surf beaches. It has been compiled by a surfer with input from local surfers all round the coast. You just can't beat local knowledge to help you find exciting waves in unexpected places. Each chapter deals with a particular section of the coastline. A numbered map highlights each beach, the numbers on the map corresponding to numbers in the text. Here each break is discussed together with details about the beach including access facilities and accommodation. Using this book you should always be able to find the best waves going whatever your standard. Surfers like to get together so an appendix gives the names and addresses of local surf shops, clubs and schools. Plus where to phone for surf reports. In short, this is the best companion in your travels to find the perfect wave.

Handbook of Industrial Surfactants Ash Michael, Ash Irene, 2022-02-23 Originally published in 1993, over 16,000 trademarked surface active agents for industrial applications manufactured worldwide are contained in this edition. General use surfactants such as emulsifiers, wetting agents, foaming agents, detergents, dispersants and solubilizers are included, as well as detergent raw materials, defoamers and antifoaming agents. The types and quantities of surfactants available commercially are numerous and the difficulty in making choices between products may become overwhelming. It is the purpose of this book to guide those who are involved in the selection of these materials through the process of identifying, classifying and selecting the most appropriate products for their requirements. Therefore, this reference is organized so that the user can search for and locate products based on a variety of essential distinguishing attributes.

Sustainable Surfing Gregory Borne, Jess Ponting, 2017-03-16 Whilst being an ambiguous and contested concept, sustainability has become one of the twenty-first century's most pervasive ideas as humanity's increasing impact on the environment, as well as increasing social and economic inequalities, have local and global consequences. Surfing is a globally recognised cultural phenomenon whose unique connection with nature and rapid expansion into a multibillion-pound industry offers exciting synergies for exploring various dimensions of sustainability. This book is the first to bring together the world's foremost experts on the themes of sustainability and surfing. Drawing upon cutting-edge theory and research, this book offers multidisciplinary perspectives and methodological approaches on the social, environmental and economic components of sustainable surfing. Contributions provide unique discussions that bridge the gap between theory and practice, exploring topics such as sustainable surf tourism surf econometrics surf activism surfing governance the surfing industry and technological advancements Each chapter produces in depth insights to provide foundational insights of the relationship between sustainability and surfing This book will appeal to multiple audiences in different disciplines and sectors Practitioners will benefit from the insights presented in this volume while both undergraduate and postgraduate students will find this volume an invaluable companion including those working in geography environmental studies sport sciences and leisure and tourism studies
