M. Reynolds,2017-03-06 The Mysteries of London is a penny dreadful or city mysteries novel begun by George W M Reynolds in 1844 Reynolds wrote the first two series of this long running narrative of life in the seedy underbelly of mid nineteenth century London Thomas Miller wrote the third series and Edward L Blanchard wrote the fourth series of this immensely popular title Michael Angelo in Penny Dreadfuls and Other Victorian Horrors writes Reynolds had read Eugene Sue while in Paris and was particularly impressed by his novel Les Myst res de Paris The Mysteries of Paris It inspired Reynolds to write and publish a penny part serial The Mysteries of London 1845 in which he paralleled Sue s tale of vice depravity and squalor in the Parisian slums with a sociological story contrasting the vice and degradation of London working class life with the luxury and debaucheries of the hedonistic upper crust An early socialist and a Chartist sympathizer Reynolds had a genuine social conscience and he contrived to stitch into the pages of his books diatribes against social evils and class inequities 79 Instalments were published weekly and contained a single illustration and eight pages of text printed in double columns The weekly numbers were later bound in cloth covers with a fresh title page and table of contents and offered as complete works of fiction After Reynolds quit The Mysteries of London he began a new title The Mysteries of the Court of London which ran from 1848 until 1856 *S. and Pilgrims. The Mysteries of London (Complete) George William MacArthur Reynolds, 2020-09-28 BETWEEN the 10th and 13th centuries Civilisation withdrew from Egypt and Syria rested for a little space at Constantinople and then passed away to the western climes of Europe From that period these climes have been the grand laboratory in which Civilisation has wrought out refinement in every art and every science and whence it has diffused its benefits over the earth It has taught commerce to plough the waves of every sea with the adventurous keel it has enabled handfuls of disciplined warriors to subdue the mighty armaments of oriental princes and its daring sons have planted its banners amidst the eternal ice of the poles It has cut down the primitive forests of America carried trade into the interior of Africa annihilated time and distance by the aid of steam and now contemplates how to force a passage through Suez and Panama The bounties of Civilisation are at present almost everywhere recognised Nevertheless for centuries has Civilisation established and for centuries will it maintain its headquarters in the great cities of Western Europe and with Civilisation does Vice go hand in hand Amongst these cities there is one in which contrasts of a strange nature exist The most unbounded wealth is the neighbour of the most hideous poverty the most gorgeous pomp is placed in strong relief by the most deplorable squalor the most seducing luxury is only separated by a narrow wall from the most appalling misery The crumbs which fall from the tables of the rich would appear delicious viands to starving millions and yet those millions obtain them not In that city there are in all districts five prominent buildings the church in which the pious pray the gin palace to which the wretched poor resort to drown their sorrows the pawnbroker s where miserable creatures pledge their raiment and their children s raiment even unto the last rag to obtain the means of purchasing food and alas too often intoxicating drink the prison where the victims of a vitiated condition of society expiate the crimes to which they have been driven by starvation and despair and the workhouse to which the destitute the aged and the friendless hasten to lay down their aching heads and die And congregated together in one district of this city in an assemblage of palaces whence emanate by night the delicious sounds of music within whose walls the foot treads upon rich carpets whose sideboards are covered with plate whose cellars contain the choicest nectar of the temperate and torrid zones and whose inmates recline beneath velvet canopies feast at each meal upon the collated produce of four worlds and scarcely have to breathe a wish before they find it gratified Herald and Presbyter ,1911
