The Philosophy of Roderick M. Chisholm Roderick M. A Contextualistic Worldview Lewis Edwin Hahn, 2001 This selection of articles by Lewis E Hahn addresses the philosophical school of contextualism and four contemporary American philosophers John Dewey Henry Nelson Wieman Stephen C Pepper and Brand Blanshard Stressing the relatively recent contextualistic worldview which he considers one of the best world hypotheses Hahn seeks to achieve a broad perspective within which all things may be given their due place After providing a brief outline Hahn explains contextualism in relation to other philosophies In his opening chapter as in later chapters he expresses contextualism as a form of pragmatic naturalism In spite of Hahn s high regard for contextualism however he does not think it would be good if we were limited to a single worldview The more different views we have and the more different sources of possible light we have the better our chances that some of these cosmic maps will shed light on our world and our place in it

Russell vs. Meinong Nicholas Griffin, Dale Jacquette, 2008-11-19 A century after On Denoting was published the debate it initiated continues to rage On the one hand there is a mass of new historical scholarship about both Russell and Meinong which has not circulated very far beyond specialist scholars On the other hand there are continuing problems and controversies concerning contemporary Russellian and Meinongian theories many of them involving issues that simply did not occur to the original protagonists This work provides an overview of the latest historical scholarship on the two philosophers as well as detailed accounts of some of the problems facing the current incarnations of their theories
