Schwerter, 2013-02-07 Seamus Heaney Tom Paulin and Medbh McGuckian are the three most influential poets from Northern Ireland who have composed poems with a link to the Tsarist Empire and the Soviet Union Through their references to Russia the three poets achieve a geographical and mental detachment allowing them to turn a fresh eye on the Northern Irish situation

Ceaseless Music Steven Matthews, 2017-04-06 Through a series of poetic responses and critical reflections

Ceaseless Music explores the afterlives of Wordsworth's landmark autobiographical poem The Prelude in literature philosophy and life writing together with the insights it can offer into the writing of poetry today Beginning with an exploration of the poem's genesis from draft versions found in Wordsworth's notebooks onwards the book goes on to sound out The Prelude's radical versions of selfhood through its attention to the musics of place and of experience The scope of the book ranges from biographical writings to American literature and philosophy neuroscience musicology and British and American poetries The reader will discover new creative work in various modes together with many re-echoings of Wordsworth's text in later writers across history and from across the globe Encyclopedia of German Literature

Matthias Konzett, 2015-05-11 Designed to provide English readers of German literature the opportunity to familiarize themselves with both the established canon and newly emerging literatures that reflect the concerns of women and ethnic minorities the Encyclopedia of German Literature includes more than 500 entries on writers individual work and topics essential to an understanding of this rich literary tradition Drawing on the expertise of an international group of experts the essays in the encyclopedia reflect developments of the latest scholarship in German literature culture and history and society

In addition to the essays author entries include biographies and works lists and works entries provide information about first editions selected critical editions and English language translations All entries conclude with a list of further readings

British Poetry, 1900-50 Gary Day, Brian Docherty, 1995-08-12 This collection focuses on British poetry from the

Georgians to the Second World War The introduction provides the framework for the articles which follow by considering the question of the relation between poetry and society as it appears in the work of F R Leavis T W Adorno and Antony Easthope

Written by experts the essays cover poetic movements and individual authors both mainstream and neglected and address the difficult problem of making value judgements while situating poetry in its historical context The poetical works of
