The Poetry Of English And Chinese:

The Poetry of English and Chinese Wei Lin Hsia,1978 Chinese Poetry in English Verse Herbert Allen Giles,1898

Treasury of Chinese Love Poems Xiaolong Qiu,2003 Qiu Xiaolong is extravagantly qualified for translating these poems having as a citizen of China won prizes for his own poetry and for translating T S Eliot and other English and American poets into Chinese and more recently as a citizen of the United States won prizes for his own poetry and fiction in English To my mind the Changgan Song in this collection rivals Ezra Pound s justly famous loosely translated version The River Merchant s Wife These renderings have a limpidity of the language and metaphor and a subtle rhythm and Qiu has a poet s sixth sense for when occasionally to lift the line with a less direct and more evocative word we are thus rescued from the flatness of some translations of early Chinese poetry This is a generous book and a very welcome addition to the poetry of love and longing from our Significant Stranger the Chinese nation Mona Van Duyn Chinese Poetry Herbert A Giles,2020-02-04 A Delightful article by Mr H A Giles on Chinese Poetry in English Verse appears in the Nineteenth Century He begins by reminding us that for many centuries the Chinese nation has closely cultivated the poetic art and still turns out annually more poetry than all the rest of the world put together All modern Chinese statesmen are poets more or less though poets properly so called are not to be found in China at the present day The Chinese word for poet is a wind man man of the afflatus The charm of the article consists in Mr Giles rendering of Chinese poems as may be seen from one or two selected from the profusion with which he has favoured us Mr Giles selections are from poets belonging to what he calls the Augustan ago of Chinese literature roughly from 600 to 900 A d As his examples suggest I love to seek a quiet nook and some old volumes bring Where I can see the wild flowers bloom and hear the birds in spring Solitude among the Hills The birds have all flown to their roost in the tree The last cloud has just floated lazily by But we never tire of each other not we As we sit there together the mountains and I At the Top of a Pagoda Upon this tall pagoda s peak My hands can nigh the stnra enclose I dare not raise my voice to speak For fear of startling God s repose It is pleasant to know that Just as the Confucian Canon is absolutely free from impure word or thought of any kind so in the same sense is the great bulk of Chinese poetry equally without reproach The Review of Reviews Volume The Chinese Recorder ,1922 Library of Congress Subject
