The Poetry Of French Canada In Translation An Oxford In Canada Paperback :

The Poetry of French Canada in Translation John Glassco, 1970 In the last twenty years a scattering of fine English translations of French Canadian poems has given a hint of a rich body of literature that is otherwise unknown in English Canada John Glassco has compiled the first anthology of such translations many of which were commissioned specially and it shows how 22 English Canadian poets have rendered 194 poems by 47 of the best French Canadian poets past and presents It not only gives to the English speaking reader the first extended view of the beauties development and directions of this poetry but even more important it offers translations that are dependent on their own poetic merits and have a life of their own in English John Glassco himself a poet and a skillful translator has contributed numerous translations and a valuable introduction that discusses both French Canadian Poetry and the art of translation John Glassco is the author of two highly praised books of verse The Deficit Made Flesh 1958 and A Point of Sky 1964 and a book of reminiscences Memoirs of Montparnasse 1970 He completed the text of Aubrey Beardsley's Under the Hill 1959 and in 1962 published his translation of the Journal of the French Canadian poet Saint Denys Gareau Publisher A Journey in Translation Lee Skallerup Bessette, 2016-08-03 This book traces the remarkable journey of H bert's shifting authorial identity as versions of her work traveled through complex and contested linguistic and national terrain from the late 1950s until today At the center of this exploration of H bert's work are the people who were inspired by her poetry to translate and more widely disseminate her poems to a wider audience Exactly how did this one woman's work travel so much farther than the vast majority of Qu b cois authors Though the haunting quality of her art partly explains her wide appeal her work would have never traveled so far without the effort of scores of passionately committed translators editors and archivists Though the work of such middle men is seldom recognized much less scrutinized as a factor in shaping the meaning and reach of an artist in Herbert's case the process of translating H bert's poetry has left in its wake a number of archival and other paratextual resources that chronicle the individual acts of translation and their reception Though the impact of translation editions and archival work has been largely ignored in studies of Canadian literary history the treasure trove of such paratextual records in H bert's case allows us to better understand the reach of her work More importantly it provides insight into and raises critical questions about the textually mediated process of nation building and literary canon formation Published in English Literary History of Canada William H. New, Carl Berger, Alan Cairns, Frances G. Halpenny, Henry Kreisel, Douglas Lochhead, Philip Stratford, Clara Thomas, 1990-12-15 This new volume of the Literary History of Canada covers the continuing development of English Canadian writing from 1972 to 1984 As with the three earlier volumes this book is an invaluable guide to recent developments in English Canadian literature and a resource for both the general reader and the specialist researcher The contributors to this volume are Laurie Ricou David Jackel Linda Hutcheon Philip Stratford Barry Cameron Balachandra Rajan Robert Fothergill Brian Parker Cynthia Zimmerman Frances Frazer Edith Fowke Bruce G Trigger Alan C Cairns Douglas

Williams Carl Berger Shirley Neuman Raymond S Corteen and Frances G Halpenny In Translation Sherry Simon, 2013-09-01 Since the late 1960s Sheila Fischman has worked tirelessly at making the best works of Québécois literature available to English language readers Anglophones who have read works by Michel Tremblay Jacques Poulin Yves Beauchemin François Gravel Anne Hébert Roch Carrier and Marie-Claire Blais most likely know these works only through Fischman's subtly and faithfully crafted translations In Translation celebrates Fischman's more than 150 book-length translations from French to English It combines essays on the friendships created through translation with essays on the art of translation and on the changing context of literary translation in Canada Distinguished contributors include Alberto Manguel Commissioner of Official Languages Graham Fraser authors Gaetan Soucy Lise Bissonnette and Louise Desjardins and fellow translators Lori Saint-Martin Michael Henry Heim Luise von Flotow and Kathy Mezei The volume also includes interviews with Fischman and a selection of her prose A fitting tribute to an outstanding career In Translation illuminates the artistry behind a difficult craft by considering the work of one of its finest practitioners Writing Between the Lines Agnes Whitfield, 2006 The essays in Writing Between the Lines explore the lives of twelve of Canada's most eminent anglophone literary translators and delve into how these individuals have contributed to the valuable process of literary exchange between francophone and anglophone literatures in Canada Containing original detailed biographical and bibliographical material Writing Between the Lines offers many new insights into the literary translation process and the diverse roles of the translator as social agent The first text on Canadian anglophone translators it makes a major contribution in the areas of literary translation comparative literature Canadian literature and cultural studies Canadian Books in Print, 1973

The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well-known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany Canadian Library Journal, 1978 New Direction in Canadian Poetry John Robert Colombo, 1971 Deals chiefly with the works of the concrete poets Lords of
