The Poets Craft Interviews From The New York Quarterly:

The Poet's Craft William Packard, 1987 Among those who have at least a nodding acquaintance with the works of writers such as W H Auden Allen Ginsberg John Ashbery Stanley Kunitz and Denise Levertov this collection of interviews will be welcome Packard's carefully posed questions and the answers offer useful and offer remarkable insights into the work habits writing techniques reading preferences and philosophies of 25 20th century poets The print interview format despite its limitations can elicit information about the conscious and subliminal processes involved in creating poetry ISBN 0 913728 55 8 pbk 10 95 The Craft of Poetry William Packard, 1974 Interviews with W H Auden Paul Blackburn Anne Sexton Stanley Kunitz Jerome Rothenberg Allen Ginsberg Denise Levertov Galway Kinnell John Ashbery James Dickey Muriel Rukeyser Richard Wilbur Robert Creeley Jackson MacLow Howard Moss Erica Jong Diane Wakoski Sounds of Poetry Martina Pfeiler, 2003 The Translator's Invisibility Lawrence Venuti, 2017-11-27 Since publication over twenty years ago The Translator's Invisibility has provoked debate and controversy within the field of translation and become a classic text Providing a fascinating account of the history of translation from the seventeenth century to the present day Venuti shows how fluency prevailed over other translation strategies to shape the canon of foreign literatures in English and investigates the cultural consequences of the receptor values which were simultaneously inscribed and masked in foreign texts during this period Reissued with a new introduction in which the author provides a clear detailed account of key concepts and arguments in order to issue a counterblast against simplistic interpretations The Translator's Invisibility takes its well deserved place as part of the Routledge Translation Classics series This book is essential reading for students of translation studies at all levels Invisible Terrain Stephen J. Ross, 2017-07-25 In his debut collection Some Trees 1956 the American poet John Ashbery poses a question that resonates across his oeuvre and much of modern art How could he explain to them his prayer that nature not art might usurp the canvas When Ashbery asks this strange question he joins a host of transatlantic avant gardists from the Dadaists to the 1960s neo avant gardists and beyond who have dreamed of turning art into nature of creating art that would be valid solely on its own terms in the way nature itself is valid in the way a landscape not its picture is aesthetically valid Clement Greenberg 1939 Invisible Terrain reads Ashbery as a bold intermediary between avant garde anti mimeticism and the long western nature poetic tradition In chronicling Ashbery's articulation of a completely new kind of realism and his engagement with figures ranging from Wordsworth to Warhol the book presents a broader case study of nature's dramatic transformation into a resolutely unnatural aesthetic resource in 20th century art and literature The story begins in the late 1940s with the Abstract Expressionist valorization of process surface and immediacy summed up by Jackson Pollock's famous quip I am Nature that so influenced the early New York School poets It ends with Breezeway a poem about Hurricane Sandy Along the way the project documents Ashbery's strategies for literalizing the stream of consciousness metaphor his negotiation of pastoral and politics during the Vietnam War and his investment in bad nature poetry Clare's Lyric Stephanie Kuduk Weiner, 2014-04 Clare's Lyric examines John Clare's lyric poems and their impact on the work of three twentieth century poets Arthur Symonds Edmund Blunden and John Ashbery The Cambridge Companion to American Poets Mark Richardson, 2015-10-15 This Companion brings together essays on some fifty four American poets from Anne Bradstreet to contemporary performance poetry This book also examines such movements in American poetry as modernism the Harlem or New Negro Renaissance confessional poetry the Black Mountain School the New York School the Beats and L A N G U A G E poetry Poetry on & Off the Page Marjorie Perloff, 1998 The fourteen essays that make up this collection have as their common theme a reconsideration of the role historical and cultural change has played in the evolution of twentieth century poetry and poetics Committed to the notion that in John Ashbery's words You can't say it that way anymore Poetry On Off the Page describes the formations and transformations of literary and artistic discourses and traces these discourses as they have evolved in their dialogue with history culture and society The volume is testimony to the important role that contemporary artistic practice will continue to play as we move into the twenty first century A Serpentine Gesture Elisabeth W. Joyce, 2024-12-15 In A Serpentine Gesture John Ashbery's Poetry and Phenomenology Elisabeth W Joyce examines John Ashbery's poetry through the lens of Maurice Merleau Ponty's conception of phenomenology For Merleau Ponty perception is a process through which people reach outside of themselves for sensory information map that experiential information against what they have previously encountered and what is culturally inculcated in them and articulate shifts in their internal repositories through encounters with new material Joyce argues that this process reflects Ashbery's classic statement of poetry being the experience of experience Through incisive close readings of Ashbery's poems Joyce examines how he explores this process of continual reverberation between what is sensed and what is considered about that sensation and ultimately how he renders these perceptions into the serpentine gesture of language

Jerome Rothenberg's Experimental Poetry and Jewish Tradition Christine Meilicke, 2005-07 On a more specific level this book analyses Rothenberg's use of postmodern appropriative strategies such as collage assemblage palimpsest parody pastiche forgery found poetry and theft These strategies illustrate the concept practice and problematics of appropriation Embracing postmodern experimentation and drawing on heterodox Jewish sources Rothenberg constructs a contemporary American Jewish identity that does not rely on institutionalized Judaism Jacket
