

- The point of view is a first person narrative from the poet's perspective, the tone and language style the poet has used can show us this is a letter to his friend, this poem also gives us a hint that the poet is homosexual and his letter like poem is to express his love or to keep his promise to his friend that he may never see him again, this is shown by the fact that his friend says goodbye and forget me, which proves the poet's homosexuality even more as the poet may have confessed to him and the friend doesn't want any part in it.
- The title of the poem immediately gives us a hint this may be a love letter to a lost one or one he cannot see again.
