Supporting Communities Affected By Violence A Casebook From South Africa:

Supporting Communities Affected by Violence Craig Higson-Smith, 2002 More than 15 000 people have been killed and 500 000 displaced during years of low intensity civil war in the South African province of KwaZulu Natal This book describes the work of the Programme for Survivors of Violence PSV which with the support of Oxfam helps communities to grapple with the complex social economic political and psychological problems posed by the conflict A framework to guide interventions in polarised communities is outlined with a detailed description of its application to work with young people especially the male members of gangs and paramilitary units children women and local leaders The final chapter summarises the principles which inform the work of the PSV and identifies the fundamental elements that have contributed to its sustained success The book is written for community leaders in any society damaged by civil conflict for development agencies which support such communities and for students and teachers of community development theory and practice Its theoretical framework may be applied usefully in a broad range of situations

Supporting Communities Affected by Violence Craig Higson-Smith, 2002 Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani

Ngwenya, 2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People s revolutionary Army ZPRA which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People s Union ZAPU which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo ZPRA was the primary target of Gukurahundi a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20 000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matebeleland Zimbabwe It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation The book is a culmination of a two year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group based self healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi

International Perspectives on Youth Conflict and Development Colette Daiute, Zeynep F. Beykont, Craig Higson-Smith, Larry Nucci, 2006-03-30 The volume aims to shift the foundation of youth conflict study from the more typical focus on maturation behavior and personality to a characterization of youth as participants in society It also expands the analysis of youth development to include societal problems such as political instability unequal access to material resources racism and social injustice Offering new insights about the interdependent spheres of conflict involving young people this groundbreaking international compilation describes processes of a violent world rather than of violent youth
