The Perseus Series Sir Edward Coley Burne-Jones:

The Perseus Series by Sir Edward Coley Burne-Jones Anne Anderson, Michael Cassin, 1998 Edward Burne-Jones Anne Anderson, Michael Cassin, 2018 Burne Jones 1833-98 was a British artist and designer closely associated with the later phase of the Pre-Raphaelite movement. In 1875 the politician Lord Arthur Balfour commissioned Burne Jones whose work was often inspired by mythology and legend to create a series of paintings for his London home. The artist chose to re-tell the story of the Perseus myth in William Morris's poem The Earthly Paradise and worked on the project for ten years but it was never completed. Southampton City Art Gallery has ten full-size studies in gouache cartoons which Burne Jones made to perfect his designs before beginning the final paintings in oil. Perseus Daniel Ogden, 2008-02-19 The son of Zeus, Perseus belongs in the first rank of Greek heroes. Indeed to some he was a greater hero even than Heracles. With the help of Hermes and Athena he slew the Gorgon Medusa, conquered a mighty sea monster and won the hand of the beautiful princess Andromeda. This volume tells of his enduring myth, its rendering in art and literature and its reception through the Roman period and up to the modern day. This is the first scholarly book in English devoted to Perseus myth in its entirety for over a century. With information drawn from a diverse range of sources as well as varied illustrations, the volume illuminates the importance of the Perseus myth throughout the ages. Edward Burne-Jones, Victorian Artist-dreamer Stephen Wildman, Edward Coley Burne-Jones, John Christian, Alan Crawford, Laurence Des Cars, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Birmingham Museums and Art Gallery, Musée d'Orsay, 1998 This publication is issued in conjunction with the 1998 exhibition of the same name held at The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and scheduled for venues in England and France. Burne Jones 1833-1898 created a style that had widespread influence on both British and European art: a narrative style derived from medieval legend and fused with the influence of Italian Renaissance masters; a style that ceded popularity to a growing taste for abstraction at the end of the 19th century. Now Burne Jones's star has risen again and this catalogue contains full discussion of his life and work and representation of his prodigious output of drawings and paintings. 9 5x12 5 Annotation copyrighted by Book News, Inc. Portland, OR British and Irish Paintings in Public Collections Christopher Wright, Catherine May Gordon, 2006-01-01 This book sets a new standard as a work of reference. It covers British and Irish art in public collections from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the end of the nineteenth and it encompasses nearly 9,000 painters and 90,000 paintings in more than 1,700 separate collections. The book includes as well pictures that are now lost, some as a consequence of the Second World War and others because of de-accessioning, mostly from 1950 to about 1975 when Victorian art was out of fashion. By listing many tens of thousands of previously unpublished works, including around 13,000 which do not yet have any form of attribution, this book becomes a unique and indispensable work of reference, one that will transform the study of British and

Irish painting A Private Passion Stephan Wolohojian, Anna Tahinci, 2003 For the Winthrop collection's international debut exhibition curators at the Fogg Art Museum of the Harvard University Art Museums headed by Stephan Wolohojian organized the selection and invited more than sixty specialists to write on artworks in their particular area of expertise. Works include such highlights in their creator's oeuvre as Jacques Louis David's sketchbooks for The Coronation of Napoleon and The Crowning of Josephine, Theodore Géricault's Mutiny on the Raft of the Medusa, Vincent van Gogh's The Blue Cart, Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres's Odalisque with the Slave, William Blake's illustrations for the Divine Comedy, Dante Gabriel Rossetti's Blessed Damozel and James Abbott McNeill Whistler's Nocturne in Blue and Silver. In addition, an essay by Wolohojian provides a fascinating and informative description of Winthrop and the growth of his collection. BOOK JACKET
