The Plow That Broke The Plains:

Encyclopedia of the Great Plains David J. Wishart, 2004-01-01 Wishart and the staff of the Center for Great Plains Studies have compiled a wide ranging and intended encyclopedia of this important region. Their objective was to give definition to a region that has traditionally been poorly defined and they have Documenting the Documentary Barry Keith Grant, Jeannette Sloniowski, 2013-12-16 Documenting the Documentary offers clear, serious and insightful analyses of documentary films and is a welcome balance between theory and criticism, abstract conceptualization and concrete analysis.

Natural Visions Finis Dunaway, 2016-12-20 Walden Pond The Grand Canyon Yosemite National Park Throughout the twentieth century, photographers and filmmakers created unforgettable images of these and other American natural treasures. Many of these images, including the work of Ansel Adams, continue to occupy a prominent place in the American imagination. Making these representations though was more than a purely aesthetic project. In fact, portraying majestic scenes and threatened places galvanized concern for the environment and its protection. Natural Visions documents through images the history of environmental reform from the Progressive era to the first Earth Day celebration in 1970, showing the crucial role the camera played in the development of the conservation movement. In Natural Visions, Finis Dunaway tells the story of how visual imagery such as wilderness photographs, New Deal documentary films and Sierra Club coffee table books shaped modern perceptions of the natural world. By examining the relationship between the camera and environmental politics through detailed studies of key artists and activists, Dunaway captures the emotional and spiritual meaning that became associated with the American landscape. Throughout the book, he reveals how photographers and filmmakers adapted longstanding traditions in American culture: the Puritan jeremiad, the romantic sublime and the frontier myth to literally picture nature as a place of grace for the individual and the nation. Beautifully illustrated with photographs by Ansel Adams, Eliot Porter and a host of other artists, Natural Visions will appeal to a wide range of readers interested in American cultural history, the visual arts and environmentalism. The Plow that Broke the Plains United States. Film Service, 1938* The Grapes of Wrath John Steinbeck, 2006-03-28 The Pulitzer Prize winning epic of the Great Depression, a book that galvanized and sometimes outraged millions of readers. Nominated as one of America's best loved novels by PBS's The Great American Read. A Penguin Classic. First published in 1939, Steinbeck's Pulitzer Prize winning epic of the Great Depression chronicles the Dust Bowl migration of the 1930s and tells the story of one Oklahoma farm family, the Joads, driven from their homestead and forced to travel west to the promised land of California. Out of their trials and their repeated collisions against the hard realities of an America divided into haves and have-nots evolves a drama that is intensely human yet majestic in its scale and moral vision, elemental yet plainspoken, tragic but ultimately stirring in its human dignity. A portrait of the conflict between the powerful and the powerless, of one man's fierce reaction to injustice and of one woman's stoical strength, the novel captures the horrors of the Great Depression and probes into the very nature of equality and justice in America At once a naturalistic epic captivity narrative road novel and transcendental gospel Steinbeck s powerful landmark novel is perhaps the most American of American Classics This Penguin Classics edition contains an introduction and notes by Steinbeck scholar Robert Demott For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 800 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Nonfiction Film
