The Poetics And Politics Of Tuareg Aging Life Course And Personal Destiny In Niger:

The Poetics and Politics of Tuareg Aging Susan J. Rasmussen, 1997 To what degree does culture influence our concepts of age and aging In our own culture chronology is crucial to perceptions of the aging process Our expectations for a twenty year old for example are different from those we have for a sixty year old So entrenched are our ideas about aging that the notion of measuring age in ways other than chronology may be startling In this unique ethnographical study of the people of the Kel Ewey confederation of Tuareg Rasmussen explores age and aging in an African culture A seminomadic community in northern Niger the Tuareg understand aging in a way that is distinctly nonlinear a dimension of life they measure outside of a chronological time frame Instead rituals related to marriage childbirth and death mark the process of aging In this way the life course of an individual is more important to the notion of age than the literal age A sense of private power and transformation of self over time are thus achieved through ritual Rasmussen draws on field experience conducted between 1974 and 1995 The longevity of her ethnological study provided the opportunity for extended interaction with local residents who eventually took an active role in studying the researcher She explores the mutual exchange of knowledge about aging and life course an interaction that itself sheds light on the need to deconstruct standard age related categories for studying other cultures

Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology Julia Twigg, Wendy Martin, 2015-06-12 Later years are changing under the impact of demographic social and cultural shifts No longer confined to the sphere of social welfare they are now studied within a wider cultural framework that encompasses new experiences and new modes of being Drawing on influences from the arts and humanities and deploying diverse methodologies visual literary spatial and theoretical perspectives Cultural Gerontology has brought new aspects of later life into view This major new publication draws together these currents including Theory and Methods Embodiment Identities and Social Relationships Consumption and Leisure and Time and Space Based on specially commissioned chapters by leading international authors the Routledge Handbook of Cultural Gerontology will provide concise authoritative reviews of the key debates and themes shaping this exciting new field

Traditional Storytelling Today Margaret Read MacDonald, 2013-12-16 Traditional Storytelling Today explores the diversity of contemporary storytelling traditions and provides a forum for in depth discussion of interesting facets of contemporary storytelling Never before has such a wealth of information about storytelling traditions been gathered together Storytelling is alive and well throughout the world as the approximately 100 articles by more than 90 authors make clear Most of the essays average 2 000 words and discuss a typical storytelling event give a brief sample text and provide theory from the folklorist A comprehensive index is provided Bibliographies afford the reader easy access to additional resources

Cross-Cultural Perspectives on Personhood and the Life Course Cathrine Degnen, 2018-04-24 Exploring notions of the person through a wide range of anthropological literature Cathrine Degnen analyses how personhood is built affirmed and maintained during various life stages and via multiple cultural forms and practices In discussing the life course she investigates personhood as a concept at the beginning of life throughout life as lived at the edges of being and ultimately at life s end Cross Cultural Perspectives on Personhood and the Life Course moves beyond the human person in isolation to consider how personhood is fashioned with regard to place and how non humans can also be recognised as persons Through multiple ethnographic accounts Degnen shows that personhood emerges as a relational and processual entity brought into being via reciprocal fields of social relations

Serendipity in Anthropological Research Haim Hazan, 2016-04-15 Challenging the idea that fieldwork is the only way to gather data and that standard methods are the sole route to fruitful analysis Serendipity in Anthropological Research explores the role of fortune and happenstance in anthropology It conceives of anthropological research as a lifelong nomadic journey of discovery in which the world yields an infinite number of unexplored issues and innumerable ways of studying them each study producing its own questions and demanding its own methodologies Drawing together the latest research from a team of senior scholars from around the world to reflect on the experience of research Serendipity in Anthropological Research presents rich new case studies from Europe and the Middle East to examine both new and old questions in novel and enriching ways An engaging examination of methodology and anthropological fieldwork this book will appeal to all those concerned with writing ethnography

Historical Dictionary of Niger Rahmane Idrissa, 2020-02-26 Niger is a crossroad the gate to the outside for West Africans and the port of entry into West Africa for cross Saharan tidings and travelers It remained for centuries the largely uncontrolled periphery of the large empires of the western Sudan and the market cities of the central Sudan In these two ways the land forged a very distinctive identity a fluid blend of diverse communities which make up a nation of marginal cosmopolitans a paradox illuminated in this book This fifth edition of Historical Dictionary of Niger contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Niger Saharan Crossroads Tara F. Deubel,Hélène Tissières,Scott M.

Youngstedt,2014-06-26 Saharan Crossroads Exploring Historical Cultural and Artistic Linkages between North and West Africa counteracts the traditional scholarly conception of the Sahara Desert as an impenetrable barrier dividing the continent by employing an interdisciplinary lens to examine myriad interconnections between North and West Africa through travel trade communication cultural exchange and correspondence that have been ongoing for several millennia Saharan Crossroads offers a unique contribution to existing scholarship on the region by uniting a diverse group of African European and American scholars working on various facets of trans Saharan history social life and cultural production and bringing their work together for the first time This trilingual volume includes eleven chapters written in English five chapters in French and three chapters in Arabic reflecting the multicultural nature of the Sahara and this international project Saharan Crossroads explores historical and contemporary connections and exchanges between populations living in and on both sides of the Sahara that have led to the emergence of distinctive cultural and aesthetic expressions This contact has been fostered by a series of linkages that include the trans Saharan caravan trade the spread of Islam the migration of nomadic pastoralists and European colonization The book includes three major sections 1 history culture and identity 2 trans Saharan circulation of arts music ritual performance and architecture and 3 religion law language and writing While the gaze of international political analysts has turned toward the Sahara to follow problematic developments that pose serious threats to human rights and security in the region it is especially timely to recall that the people and countries of the Sahelo Saharan world have maintained long histories of peaceful coexistence interdependence and cooperation that are too often overlooked in the present White Saris and Sweet Mangoes Sarah Lamb,2000-06-22 By examining both gender and aging in this ethnography of an Indian village Sarah Lamb forces a re examination of major debates in feminist anthropology and contributes to the small but growing literature on aging in contemporary culture
