

REAL PHYSICS STAR TREK

Episode 73

'Sacrifice'

We are gathered here today to bid farewell to Gustaff "Old Gus" Graves.

Just one of many tragic, and dare I say, pointless deaths caused by this horrible virus.

Gus was a generous and hard-working man. When the quarantine was lifted, he returned to his station immediately, without question or complaint, even though it placed his own life in jeopardy.

Thank you, Mr. Data. I think I speak for all of us when I say that Gustaff's devotion to this ship and her crew did not go unnoticed. He died honorably in the line of duty, and his noble sacrifice will never be forgotten.

To speak plainly, he was the best damn barista Ten Forward ever had. A true artist with an espresso machine.

He always got the foam just right, and made a cute little Starfleet insignia on top. And even though I spelled it for him a million times, he would always "forget" and lable my cup 'Prickard'. Our little joke.

But even though he's gone now, I'm sure he would want us to be strong and carry on without him.

Come along my dear. Dry those tears and let's go see if that little french press place on Deck 12 is open.
