The Pictorial Lucknow:

The Pictorial Lucknow Poorno Chunder Mookherji, 1883
Mukhopādhyāya, 1883* The Pictorial Lucknow, 2020 The Pictorial Lucknow P. C. Mukherji, 2003 The Book Aims To Give A General Idea Of Facts Simply And Concisely Relating To Lucknow Gender, Sex, and the City R. Vanita, 2012-02-14 Explores the urban cosmopolitan sensibilities of Urdu poetry written in the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries in Lucknow Ruth Vanita analyzes Rekhti a type of Urdu poetry distinguished by a female speaker and a focus on women s lives and shows how it became a catalyst for the transformation of the ghazal Friedrich Rosen Amir Theilhaber, 2020-09-07 The German lacuna in Edward Said s Orientalism has produced varied studies of German cultural and academic Orientalisms So far the domains of German politics and scholarship have not been conflated to probe the central power knowledge nexus of Said s argument Seeking to fill this gap the diplomatic career and scholarly literary productions of the centrally placed Friedrich Rosen serve as a focal point to investigate how politics influenced knowledge generated about the Orient and charts the roles knowledge played in political decision making regarding extra European regions This is pursued through analyses of Germans in British imperialist contexts cultures of lowly diplomatic encounters in Middle Eastern cities Persian poetry in translation prestigious Orientalist congresses in northern climes leveraging knowledge in high stakes diplomatic encounters and the making of Germany s Islam policy up to the Great War Politics drew on bodies of knowledge and could promote or hinder scholarship Yet scholars never systemically followed empire in its tracks but sought their own paths to cognition On their own terms or influenced by Oriental savants they aligned with politics or challenged claims to conquest and rule Bibliotheca Orientalis Luzac & co, 1915 The Making of the Awadh Culture Madhu Trivedi, 2010 This book makes an extensive study of the art and culture of Awadh during the Nawabi period c 1722 1856 with a focus on the city of Lucknow The work takes up evidence available in a variety of primary and secondary sources especially in the Persian and Urdu languages in its study of visuals and artefacts as well as performance traditions and craft techniques which are derived from this period Highlighting the literary milieu of the period and the developments in the realm of music painting architecture and industrial arts this volume also explores how some of the arts and crafts assumed considerable European colour and demonstrates how the ethos of the syncretic Indo Persian culture the renowned ganga jamuni tahriz remained intact Historic Cities of the Islamic World C. Edmund Bosworth, 2007-08-31 This book contains articles on historic cities of the Islamic world ranging from West Africa to Malaysia which over the centuries have been centres of culture and learning and of economic and commercial life and which have contributed much to the consolidation of Islam as a faith and as a social and political institution The articles have been taken from the second edition of the Encyclopaedia of Islam completed in 2004 but in many cases expanded and rewritten All have been updated to include fresh historical information with note of contemporary social developments and population statistics The book thus delineates the urban

background of Islam has it has evolved up to the present day highlighting the role of such great cities as Cairo Istanbul Baghdad and Delhi in Islamic history and also brings them together in a rich panorama illustrating one of mankind s greatest achievements the living organism of the city Urban Archaeology, Municipal Government and Local Planning Sherene Baugher,Douglas R. Appler,William Moss,2017-07-28 Improving the relationship between archaeology and local government represents one of the next great challenges facing archaeology specifically archaeology done in urban settings Not only does local government have access to powerful legal tools and policy mechanisms that can offer protection for privately owned archaeological sites but because local government exists at the grassroots level it is also often closer to people who have deep knowledge about the community itself about its values and about the local meaning of the sites most in need of protection This partnership between archaeology and local government can also provide visibility and public programing for heritage sites This book will explore the experiences both positive and negative of small and large cities globally We have examined programs in the Commonwealth of Nations formerly known as the British Commonwealth and in the United States These countries share similar perspectives on preservation and heritage although the approaches these cities have taken to address municipal archaeology reveals considerable diversity The case studies highlight how these innovative partnerships have developed and explain how they function within local government Engaging with the political sphere to advocate for and conduct archaeology requires creativity flexibility and the ability to develop collaborative partnerships How these archaeological partnerships benefit the community is a vital part of the equation Heritage and tourist benefits are discussed Economic challenges during downturns in the economy are analyzed The book also examines public outreach programs and the grassroots efforts to protect and preserve a community s archaeological heritage
