

Reincarnation

I wonder who I'm supposed to be,
this time around, I chose to be me. . .
another facet cut on the stone,
another stitch in time is sown.

To the present, through the thick and thin,
from a past unknown that lies within. . .
that was me, as I am now,
variations of the theme somehow.

To begin that beginning again and again, climbing life's ladder by all I take in;
not to forget the lessons I learn,
experiences rich through many returns.

Caught in the landslide of wisdom divine,
the circles widen in the artist's design, leaving unsettled, "Who was she?"
I become yet another facet of me.

When denial leaves without a trace,
my spirit finds its own true face,
my soul is left without a scar,
my consciousness touches the farthest star.
