Usual and Unusual Organising Criminals in Europe and Beyond Georgios Antonopoulos, Marc Groenhuijsen, Jackie Harvey, Tijs Kooijmans, Almir Maljevic, Klaus von Lampe, 2011 This Liber amicorum honors Petrus C van Duyne following his retirement as Professor of Empirical Penal Science at Tilburg Law School Van Duyne is the founding father and organizer of the Cross Border Crime Colloquium The book has been assembled in preparation of the twelfth edition of this colloquium in Tilburg The Netherlands in conjunction with Prof van Duyne's valedictory lecture It is no coincidence that the contributors to the Cross Border Crime Colloquia come from all over Europe and beyond This is also reflected in the title of the book Usual and Unusual Organising Criminals in Europe and Beyond The authors and editors not only wish to contribute to the theme of profitable crimes from underworld to upper world they also want emphasize their great appreciation for Prof van Duyne's scientific work Alternating Narratives in Fiction for Young Readers Perry Nodelman, 2017-04-17 This book is about the implications of novels for young readers that tell their stories by alternating between different narrative lines focused on different characters It asks if you make sense of fiction by identifying with one main character how do you handle two or more of them Do novels with alternating narratives diverge from longstanding conventions and represent a significant change in literature for young readers If not how do these novels manage to operate within the parameters of those conventions This book considers answers to these questions by means of a series of close readings that explore the structural educational and ideological implications of a variety of American British Canadian and Australian novels for children and for young adults

Double Trouble Sheldon Jaffery, 1992-01-01 It was the 1950s in postwar America and paperback books were the hot new product in the publishing industry Of course to stand out from the crowd and sell one needed a gimmick Into this newly exuberant market came a publishing house named Ace Books with the seductive promise of two books for the price of one It also had the eye catching premise of two separate covers joined at the spine like Siamese twins Finished with one book Flip the paperback over and begin again with a new novel complete with its own package It was something completely different and it sold Double Trouble tours the short yet popular era of the Ace Mystery Doubles and includes both author title and title indexes for easy reference

Empires of Print Patrick Scott Belk, 2017-05-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the publishing industries in Britain and the United States underwent dramatic expansions and reorganization that brought about an increased traffic in books and periodicals around the world Focusing on adventure fiction published from 1899 to 1919 Patrick Scott Belk looks at authors such as Joseph Conrad H G Wells Conan Doyle and John Buchan to explore how writers of popular fiction engaged with foreign markets and readers through periodical publishing Belk argues that popular fiction particularly the adventure genre developed in ways that directly correlate with authors experiences and shows that popular genres of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries emerged as one way of marketing their literary works to expanding audiences of readers worldwide Despite an over determined print space altered by the rise of new kinds of consumers and transformations of accepted habits of reading publishing and writing the changes in British and American publishing at the turn of the twentieth century inspired an exciting new period of literary invention and experimentation in the adventure genre and the greater part of that invention and experimentation was happening in the magazines BTEC First Public Services (uniformed) Debra Gray,2004 Offers various things that students need to excel in BTEC First in Public Services This student book contains real life case studies enabling students to explore a range of issues and relate theory to practice It includes guidance students need to get the best possible grade in their Integrated Vocational Assignment BTEC First Business Diane Canwell,Jon Sutherland,2005 BTEC First Business is designed to specifically meet the requirements of the Edexcel qualification by offering students and centres coverage of the core units and specialist units Packed with well structured activities and case studies this book enables students to apply theoretical principles to real life business situations
