Smell It:

The Smell of Fresh Rain Barney Shaw, 2017-09-07 Smell is the most emotional and evocative of our senses it can bring back memories faster and with more immediacy than a photograph so why is it so little understood Armed with a hungry curiosity and a willingness to self experiment author Barney Shaw goes in search of the hidden meanings of smells Using plain words to describe what he finds he investigates the chemistry psychology history and future of this underappreciated sense Journeying around boatyards perfume shops and memories Shaw opens your nose to the world breaking down chords of smells into their component notes and through them revealing new ways of understanding the spaces through which we move An investigation into the biology psychology and history of smell and a search for effective ways to put into words scents that we instantly relate to but find strangely ineffable THE SMELL OF FRESH RAIN includes a 200 entry thesaurus of succinct descriptions of common smells

Smell Radhika Jha, 2002 Designing with Smell Victoria Henshaw, Kate McLean, Dominic Medway, Chris Perkins, Gary Warnaby, 2017-10-05 Designing with Smell aims to inspire readers to actively consider smell in their work through the inclusion of case studies from around the world highlighting the current use of smell in different cutting edge design and artistic practices This book provides practical guidance regarding different equipment techniques stages and challenges which might be encountered as part of this process Throughout the text there is an emphasis on spatial design in numerous forms and interpretations in the street the studio the theatre or exhibition space as well as the representation of spatial relationships with smell Contributions originate across different geographical areas academic disciplines and professions This is crucial reading for students academics and practitioners working in olfactory design
