emerging and established queer theorists this timely collection demonstrates how germane queer readings theories and companions are to the livelihood of interdisciplinary research and humanistic inquiry in the 2020s

Art and Death Chris Townsend, 2008-07-29 This highly sensitive and beautifully written book looks closely at the way contemporary Western artists negotiate death both as personal experience and in the wider community Townsend discusses but moves beyond the spectacle of death in work by artists such as Damien Hirst to see how mortality in particular the experience of other people's death brings us face to face with profound ethical and even political issues He looks at personal responses to death in the work of artists as varied as Francis Bacon Tracey Emin and Derek Jarman whose film Blue is discussed here in depth Exploring the last body of work by the the Kentucky based photographer Ralph Eugene Meatyard and Jewish American installation artist Shimon Attie's powerful memorial work for the community of Aberfan Townsend considers death in light of the injunction to love thy neighbour

Luminous presence Alexandra Parsons, 2021-11-02 Luminous presence Derek Jarman's life writing is the first book to analyse the prolific writing of queer icon Derek Jarman Although he is well known for his avant garde filmmaking his garden and his AIDS activism he is also the author of over a dozen books many of which are autobiographical Much of Jarman's exploration of post war queer identity and imaginative response to HIV AIDS can be found in his books such as the lyrical AIDS diaries Modern Nature and Smiling in Slow Motion This book fully explores for the first time the remarkable range and depth of Jarman's writing Spanning his career Alexandra Parsons argues that Jarman's self reflexive response to the HIV AIDS crisis was critical in changing the cultural terms of queer representation from the 1980s onwards Luminous presence is of great interest to students scholars and readers of queer histories in literature art and film

Derek Jarman Michael Charlesworth, 2011-11-15 Derek Jarman 1942-94 is known as one of Europe's greatest independent film makers his films call into question and reconsider the nature of filmmaking itself But as Michael Charlesworth shows in this new biography Jarman was also a painter writer gardener set designer and an influential campaigner for gay rights and other social causes Charlesworth discusses the entire diverse range of Jarman's works in order to provide a thorough portrait from childhood to his untimely death Charlesworth is the first scholar to properly integrate Jarman's paintings and writings with his films demonstrating the strong connections between his varied areas of artistic practice He also draws invaluable insights from Jarman's extraordinary series of journals that offer a look into the nature of the society in which he lived as well as his own creative process And through the thoughts and memories of Jarman's friends Charlesworth reveals how Jarman was an important voice on behalf of many one who espoused love and friendship while fearlessly campaigning for the virtues and the value of art in an often hostile and unappreciative political and social atmosphere Fresh in its conclusions and engaging in style Derek Jarman is an accessible and thought provoking analysis of Jarman's phenomenal creativity and a perfect complement to Jarman's works

Coming Out to the Mainstream David Jones, JoAnne C. Juett, 2010-08-11 Coming Out to the Mainstream is a collection of essays written from a range of perspectives from scholars to film producers who seek to contextualize and reframe New Queer Cinema from a 21st century perspective decades after Stonewall the emergence of the HIV AIDS crisis and the initial years of the gay marriage movement These essays situate themselves in the 21st century as an attempt to assess what appears to be a mainstreaming of New Queer Cinema a current wave of New Queer Cinema film that holds potential for influencing film viewers beyond the original limits of an independent film audience critics and the academy Specifically these essays examine whether and how the filmmaking styles and themes of New Queer Cinema have been mainstreamed rendered familiar as points of interest in popular culture of the 21st century challenging a queer phobic cultural climate and providing an incisive set of visual representations that can help inform continuing debates over queerness in public culture For instance what do we make of the burgeoning number of queer stories that are circulating not just in arthouses but in mainstream media How much of a transformation in our collective sensibilities does this trend represent and will it carry us toward a cultural landscape where identity is commonly understood and valued as multiple fluid and performative While the editors of this collection find there is significant evidence that New Queer Cinema has achieved success in forging greater mainstream acceptance of queer perspectives in cinema and everyday culture the essays we present offer a variety of voices a timely set of observations on queer images in film television and popular culture

Derek Jarman's Visionary Arts Michael Charlesworth, 2024-05-16

Derek Jarman's place in the history of film is assured by virtue of his vibrant defiant films that experiment with the very process of film making and create new forms His paintings their excitements and their profundity are less well known Michael Charlesworth sheds light on the varied ramifications of Jarman's artistic practice from his years at Prospect Cottage Dungeness and provides the first book length study of his interest in depth psychology He draws on Jarman's paintings especially his landscapes from the 1960s and 70s his multiple series such as black and broken glass GBH Queer and Evil Queen and his last Ecstatic Landscapes 1991 3 He also showcases Jarman's excellence as a writer with respect to his memoir Kicking the Pricks In a novel approach to Jarman's cinema selecting films such as Journey to Avebury 1973 Caravaggio 1986 The Garden 1990 and Blue 1993 Charlesworth emphasizes themes and artistry rather than narrative Exploring the ways in which Jungian and post Jungian psychology were absorbed into Jarman's varied works Derek Jarman's Visionary Arts provides a fresh perspective on his painting film and writing It celebrates him as one of the major British artists of the late 20th century engaging with current debates about queer sexualities environmentalism and climate catastrophe
