Telling The Story Evangelism In Black Churches:

Telling the Story James O. Stallings, 1988 This book is about stories personal cultural and God's It is about what uniquely happens in the life of a people when their story connects with God's story and the Word becomes flesh living among us John 1:14 The Jerusalem Bible It is a book about evangelism that must always tell the story of God's loving and liberating activity in the lives of people and in the world through Jesus Christ Evangelism & Discipleship in African-American Churches Lee N. June, Matthew Parker, 1999 Here is a comprehensive guide to the how to's of the African American church and many aspects of its ministry Evangelism Renewed Henry H. Knight, 2025-04-08 Evangelism has entered a new day From the 1980s to the present a vast array of new forms of evangelism have emerged shaped and informed by theological reflection on the good news of Jesus Christ and the mission of God Rejecting the reduced and formulaic forms of evangelism typical of most of the twentieth century these newer approaches speak more of the reign and love of God relationship and community and both personal and social transformation They are very diverse but each has something to contribute to how we understand and practice evangelism This book is a doorway into these theologies of evangelism and their fresh and dynamic ways of sharing the good news Evangelism: Go Make... (Matt. 28:19) Dr. Althea Marchelle Brown, 2009-06-25 DR ALTHEA MARCHELLE BROWN serves as an ordained itinerant elder in the Fourth Episcopal District and served in that position in the Sixth Episcopal District of the AME Church She earned her Master of Divinity from Turner Theological Seminary at the Interdenominational Theological Center in Atlanta Georgia and a Doctor of Ministry from the Ecumenical Theological Seminary in Detroit Michigan Her other two books published by AuthorHouse are Holy Spirit Fruit and Gift Seminar and Praise and Worship Heaven's Street Address These guidebooks and study aides are practical and authoritative resources for church leaders and practitioners in ministry Reconnecting God's Story to Ministry Tom A. Steffen, 2006-12-31 To help readers recapture the most natural universal and effective means of evangelism discipleship that exists storytelling Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching

Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods. The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths, ancestries and educational backgrounds. They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor, rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations. What they all have in common is hope, resilience and sacred fire. Even during the most difficult and oppressive times, Simmons and Thomas write in the preface, the delivery, creativity, charisma, expressivity, fervor, forcefulness, passion, persuasiveness, poise, power, rhetoric, spirit, style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege. This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity, spiritual richness and strength of African American life. Martin Luther King in the African American Preaching Tradition Valentino Lassiter, 2010-06-01. Valentino Lassiter has cast spiritual breads upon the waters with this compelling comparison of the historic tradition of African American preaching and the overwhelming spiritual preaching of Martin Luther King Jr. Martin Luther King in the African American Preaching Tradition details preaching by slave preachers to present day preachers. More importantly, it shows how King's sermon content was cut from the same loaf as those preachers who preached justice and God's assurance in the 1600s. Lassiter has written a book that will be an important resource for pastors, seminarians and those who are interested in the never-ending fascination with dynamic African American preaching.

Evangelism Among African American Presbyterians Marsha Snulligan Haney, 2007-05-23. As Presbyterians, Lutherans, Methodists, Disciples of Christ and other predominantly European-centered Christian denominations of North America seek to respond as a faith community to the increasingly dynamic ethnic and cultural diversity within our society, this book offers a sobering yet valuable perspective. By understanding the ministry of Christian evangelism as a construct that speaks of the power of divine transformation, personal and communal, and the embrace of a way of life, this work argues for a multi-variant approach that values the philosophical aspects of cultural differences which are effective and faithful models of Christian evangelism. An analysis of key missiological concepts such as mission, histories, ethno-theologies, worldview, culture, ethnic cohesion and contextualization is appropriated to illuminate the theological voices and evangelical practices of a specific people or ethnicity shaped by a journey of spiritual faith. While the numerical significance of self-identified African American Presbyterians may appear small, their synergistic encounter of human identity and religious faith, historical experience in the church and the impact of their evangelical presence provide an excellent case study for discerning the twenty-first century challenges of evangelism. This thorough study of history, theology, organizational structures, methods and techniques will serve as a valuable tool in evaluating the impact of the faith journey of African American Presbyterians and its challenges for today and the future. A Book to Change Your Life; Dmin Sandidge, 2009-03. What Others Say about This Book. Dr. Sandidge has written a very comprehensive book on leadership. Every pastor and church leader can find many tidbits of information that will improve their leadership skills. This book will provide help in building a ministry team approach. There are many helpful ideas for the church leader to develop other leaders for the church and especially Bible teachers A helpful and insightful book Dr Frank Schmitt Professor of Church Ministries Liberty Baptist Theological Seminary and Graduate School 1971 University Blvd Lynchburg VA 24502 Dr Oneal Sandidge is not only a perceptive author but he has also lived and worked in the field of Christian Education at numerous institutions of higher education I have observed Oneal professionally as a teacher and lecturer for many years He has character insight and experience that qualify him to share concepts of the Christian ministry in general and Christian education in particular that will be life changing for his readers Dr James B Keiller Vice President Dean for Academic Affairs Beulah Heights University Atlanta Georgia Dr Oneal Sandidge has written a great book for training pastors church leaders and ministry leaders for improving church ministry This powerful book deals specifically with church ministry Dr Sandidge has used his exceptional skills from serving as Director of Christian Education college professor and ministerial experiences to suggest ways for rethinking ministry This book will help pastors church officials ministry leaders and those who teach church leadership Any reader would benefit from this book Bishop Alfred A Owens Jr Senior Pastor of Greater Mt Calvary Holy Church and Professor Howard University School of Divinity Washington DC The Holy Ghost Got a New Dance Willie

Hudson,2016-11-09 In the midst of oppression poverty violence and insufficiency where survival takes priority over salvation what theology speaks to this condition Black Theology and Holy Hip hop are important to understand and promote especially in their relationship to inner city ministry and spiritual development primarily in regards to black and brown youth This work investigates the complex crises experienced among our black and brown youth with special focus on the inner city Black Theology and Holy Hip hop is less about people and more about institutions the dichotomy between the institution of the church and the social institution of music that affects young people s mindset This book will examine how a double edged sword of Black Theology and Holy Hip hop will cut a new faith in inner city ministry that will initiate freedom against personal pain and systemic oppression on the one hand and free minds from self hate and submissive control on the other

Between Past and Future Evangelical Missiological Society,2003 This volume traces its origins to the 2001 annual meeting of the Evangelical Missiological Society with the theme of Lessons in Mission from the Twentieth Century The papers from this meeting combined with insightful essays by other EMS members reflect upon the history of evangelical missions and upon its future Contributors Dwight P Baker Jonathan J Bonk Luis Bush Bruce K Camp Charles L Chaney Michael Jaffarian Todd M Johnson Gary B McGee John Moldovan Paul E Pierson John Mark Terry Urban Ministry Ronald E. Peters,2011-07-01 A comprehensive introduction to the particular challenges and opportunities of congregational ministry in urban settings Urban ministry has long been a part of seminary curricula but a basic and definitive understanding of what students should know as they prepare for congregational ministry in the city has remained elusive Too often it is assumed that the theological resources developed for ministry in other settings are adequate for urban ministry but these resources fail to account for the unique challenges and opportunities of the urban setting Ronald Peters clarifies the nature of urban ministry as a theological discipline by showing how its core values of love justice community and reconciliation among others engage the issues of economics education family life public health ethnic relations and religious life in the urban environment Arguing that the city has always served as an arena of God's activity Peters articulates a theological rationale for urban ministry that is both hopeful and yet realistic affirming that God loves the city and its people and encouraging practitioners to do the same

A Survey of the Black Church in America Tony Evans, 2024-01-02 If the Bible is allowed to be the standard by which blacks and whites determine truth then freedom from this moral and racial malaise will be the outcome for as Jesus taught the truth has a unique capacity of making people free Dr Tony Evans Respected and beloved pastor Tony Evans provides an accessible overview of black church history Evans opens the eyes of the reader to the black presence in the Scriptures and takes a focused look at the uniqueness and place of the black church Drawing from stories and historical events best selling author Evans addresses the myth of black inferiority and looks at the rise of black evangelicalism In addition Evans faithfully interacts with movements such as Black Lives Matter Critical Race Theory and the 1619 Project This timely resource is for anyone seeking unity and understanding In an age where division and confusion abound A Survey of the Black Church in America provides a divine clear kingdom focused perspective

Conversion in the New Testament Richard Peace, 1999 A landmark work in the study of conversion With the tools of scholarship and as a seasoned practitioner Richard Peace explores the New Testament understanding of the turning points of conversion from the night of our captivities to the light of Christ into the church and out to the neighbor in need Our contemporary efforts in evangelism have much to learn from this full orb'd view of conversion Gabriel Fackre on back cover

The Evangelizing Church Richard H. Bliese, Craig Van Gelder, The Evangelizing Church moves from theory to practice as it relates the theology of evangelism to the life of congregations that are seeking to proclaim the gospel in the emerging postmodern context It provides congregations with perspectives on how to utilize this theology in shaping the practice of evangelism within their church life

Islam and Protestant African American Churches Marsha Snulligan Haney, 1999 Presents a systematic means by which the criteria for the development of an appropriate model of Christian contextualization might be identified and formulated as a resource for the mission of evangelization and re evangelization in the African American community facing the challenge of Islam

Church Administration in the Black Perspective Floyd Massey, Samuel Berry McKinney, 2003 With over 60 000 copies in print Church Administration in the Black Perspective first published in 1976 has become a classic reference manual African American pastors through the years have looked to this informational guide as a source for details on church structure management and organization This resource addresses the particular needs of the pastor and church staff who have been charged with the responsibilities of administration in the black church context Not only does this revised edition feature updated language but it also includes fresh information in such areas as budgeting and the use of modern technology The authors supply detailed information on creating a church budget and discuss the role websites computer technology and cable access television can play in helping churches to carry out their mission The book includes guidelines for effectively organizing church boards and committees as well as details pertaining to overall church structure The authors perspectives are well grounded in the experience of the African American Christian community as the text explores how the African heritage and slave experience have molded black church traditions The authors bring to the writing of this book a blend of practical and academic experience Book jacket Africentric Approaches to Christian Ministry Marsha

Snulligan Haney, Ronald Edward Peters, 2006-02-28 In a pluralistic world where the tendency is to dismiss or silence ethnic and racial differences Africentric Approaches to Christian Ministry Strengthening Urban Congregations in African American Communities offers invaluable insight into the ordering of urban congregational life Christian ministry and urban missiology from a worldview perspective that values the centrality of African people Theological leaders and framers of African American religious studies such as the following persons provide provocative insight for theological reflection and praxis Gayraud Wilmore The Black Church J Deotis Roberts Africentric Christianity Katie Geneva Cannon Diaspora Ethics and Cain Hope Fielder New Testament Studies The opening and closing chapters by co editors Ronald Edward Peters and Marsha Snulligan Haney provide a critical knowledge base that frames Africentric Approaches to Christian Ministry In light of the rapidly changing nature of Christianity globally non Western and non European this is a significant study on African American religious consciousness and urban praxis A Distinct People Robert E. Hooper, 2001-12-24 The result of over a decade of research This is a groundbreaking study that will be a jumping off point for work on Churches of Christ for many years to come Dr Douglas A Foster Assistant Professor of Church History Abilene Christian University An important book carefully researched and written and badly needed by our brotherhood I am delighted that it is now available to everyone concerned about our past or our future Dr Bill Humble Director Center for Restoration Studies Abilene Christian University Few people are as well read in American Church History as Hooper His insights into personalities and issues come from careful research Some will shock traditionalists others will annoy revisionists and all will engage serious students Dr Rubel Shelly Minister Woodmont Hills Church of Christ A quick paced and engaging narrative In its pages the reader comes to know the giants who have shaped our fellowship I would recommend this book to all members of the church who want to understand where we are and where we are going Gregory A Tidwell Minister The Wisconsin Baptist , 1989
