Telling Time Stan Brakhage, 2003 Stan Brakhage David James, 2011-01-19 The art and legacy of a towering figure in the independent film movement Stan Brakhage Suranjan Ganguly, 2017-03-22 In this volume editor Suranjan Ganguly collects nine of Stan Brakhage's most important interviews in which the filmmaker describes his conceptual frameworks his theories of vision and sound the importance of poetry music and the visual arts in relation to his work his concept of the muse and the key influences on his art making In doing so Brakhage 1933 2003 discusses some of his iconic films such as Anticipation of the Night Dog Star Man Scenes from Under Childhood Mothlight and The Text of Light One of the most innovative filmmakers in the history of experimental cinema Brakhage made almost 350 films in his fifty two year long career These films include psychodramas autobiography Freudian trance films birth films song cycles meditations on light and hand painted films which range from nine seconds to over four hours in duration Born in Kansas City Missouri he lived most of his life in the mountains of Colorado teaching for twenty one years in the film studies program at the University of Colorado Boulder As a filmmaker Brakhage's life long obsession with what he called an adventure in perception made him focus on the act of seeing itself which he tried to capture on film in multiple ways both with and without his camera and by scratching and painting on film Convinced that there is a primary level of cognition that precedes language he wrote of the untutored eye with which children can access ineffable visual realities Adults who have lost such primal sight can retrain their eyes by becoming conscious of what constitutes true vision and the different ways in which they daily perceive the world Brakhage s films experiment with such perceptions manipulating visual and auditory experience in ways that continue to influence film The Music and Sound of Experimental Film Holly Rogers, Jeremy Barham, 2017-06-29 This book explores music today sound image relationships in non mainstream screen repertoire from the earliest examples of experimental audiovisuality to the most recent forms of expanded and digital technology It challenges presumptions of visual primacy in experimental cinema and rethinks screen music discourse in light of the aesthetics of non commercial imperatives Several themes run through the book connecting with and significantly enlarging upon current critical discourse surrounding realism and audibility in the fiction film the role of music in mainstream cinema and the audiovisual strategies of experimental film The contributors investigate repertoires and artists from Europe and the USA through the critical lenses of synchronicity and animated sound interrelations of experimentation in image and sound audiovisual synchresis and dissonance experimental soundscape traditions found footage film re mediation of pre existent music and sound popular and queer sound cultures and a diversity of radical technological aesthetic tropes in film media traversing the work of early pioneers such as Walther Ruttmann and Len Lye through the mid century innovations of Norman McLaren Stan Brakhage Lis Rhodes Kenneth Anger Andy Warhol and studio collectives in Poland to latter day experimentalists John Smith and Bill Morrison as well as the contemporary practices of Vjing Lessons in Perception Paul Taberham, 2018-06-19 Lessons in Perception seeks to clarify notoriously elusive themes of the avant garde with the use of existing research from the field of psychology There is a long standing history of reference to psychological concepts in relation to avant garde film such as its unique relationship to memory visual perception narrative comprehension and synesthesia Yet direct analysis of these topics in light of existing psychological research remains largely unexplored until now More broadly the aim of the book is to frame avant garde filmmaking practice as a form of practical psychology In doing so two principal arguments are proposed first that many avant garde filmmakers draw creative inspiration from their own cognitive and perceptual capacities and touch on topics explored by actual psychologists secondly that as practical psychologists avant garde filmmakers provide lessons in perception that offer psychological experiences that are largely unrehearsed in commercial cinema Stan Brakhage the realm buster Marco Lori, Esther Leslie, 2018-01-10 Stan Brakhage's body of work counts as one of the most important within post war avant garde cinema and yet it has rarely been given the attention it deserves Over the years though diverse and original reflections have developed distancing his figure little by little from critical categories. This collection of newly commissioned essays plus some important reprinted work queries some of the consensus on Brakhage's films In particular many of these essays revolve around the controversial issues of representation and perception This project sets out from the assumption that Brakhage's art is articulated primarily through opposing tensions which donate his figure and films an extraordinary depth even as they evince fleetingness elusivity and paradoxicality This collection aims not only to clarify aspects of Brakhage s art but also to show how his work is involved in a constant mediation between antinomies and opposites At the same time his art presents a multifaceted object endlessly posing new questions to the viewer for which no point of entry or perspective is preferred in respect to the others Acknowledging this this volume hopes that the experience of his films will be revitalised Featuring topics as diverse as the technical and semantic ambiguity of blacks the fissures in mimetic representation of the it within the itself of an image the film maker as practical psychologist through cognitive theories the critique of ocularcentrism by mingling sight with other senses such as touch films that can actually philosophise in a Wittgensteinian way political guilt and collusion in aesthetic forms a disjunctive reflexive and phenomenological temporality realising Deleuze's image time and the echoes of Ezra Pound and pneumophantasmology in the quest of art as spiritual revelation this book addresses not only scholars but also is a thorough and thought provoking introduction for the uninitiated Contributors include Nicky Hamlyn Peter Mudie Paul Taberham Gareth Evans Rebecca A Sheehan Christina Chalmers Stephen Mooney and Marco Lori The Cinema of Poetry P. Adams Sitney, 2015 The Cinema of Poetry emphasizes the vibrant world of European cinema in addition to incorporating the author's long abiding concerns on American avant garde cinema Derek Jarman's Angelic Conversations Jim Ellis, 2009 Printbegr nsninger Der kan printes 10 sider ad gangen og max 40 sider pr session Stan Brakhage Marco Lori, Esther Leslie, 2018 Essays on the work of this iconic experimental filmmaker from a variety of scholars Stan Brakhage's body of work counts as one of the most important within post war avant garde cinema and yet it has rarely been given the attention it deserves Over the years though diverse and original reflections have developed distancing his figure little by little from critical categories This collection of newly commissioned essays plus some important reprinted work queries some of the consensus on Brakhage's films In particular many of these essays revolve around the controversial issues of representation and perception This project sets out from the assumption that Brakhage's art is articulated primarily through opposing tensions which donate his figure and films an extraordinary depth even as they evince fleetingness elusivity and paradoxicality This collection aims not only to clarify aspects of Brakhage's art but also to show how his work is involved in a constant mediation between antinomies and opposites At the same time his art presents a multifaceted object endlessly posing new questions to the viewer for which no point of entry or perspective is preferred in respect to the others Acknowledging this this volume hopes that the experience of his films will be revitalized Featuring topics as diverse as the technical and semantic ambiguity of blacks the fissures in mimetic representation of the it within the itself of an image the film maker as practical psychologist through cognitive theories the critique of ocular centrism by mingling sight with other senses such as touch films that can actually philosophize in a Wittgensteinian way political guilt and collusion in aesthetic forms a disjunctive reflexive and phenomenological temporality realizing Deleuze's image time and the echoes of Ezra Pound and pneumophantasmology in the guest of art as spiritual revelation this book not only addresses scholars but also is a thorough and thought provoking introduction for the uninitiated Contributors include Nicky Hamlyn Peter Mudie Paul Taberham Gareth Evans Rebecca A Sheehan Christina Chalmers Stephen Mooney and Marco Lori

Canadian Journal of Film Studies ,2005 Su Friedrich Barbara Mennel, 2023-09-05 Auteurism expanded With acclaimed films like Sink or Swim and The Odds of Recovery Su Friedrich's body of work stands at the forefront of avant garde and Queer cinema Barbara Mennel examines the career of an experimental auteur whose merger of technical innovation and political critique connects with both cinephiles and activists Friedrich's integration of cinematic experimentation with lesbian advocacy serves as a beginning rather than an end point of analysis With that in mind Mennel provides an essential overview of the filmmaker's oeuvre while highlighting the defining characteristics of her artistic and political signature She also situates Friedrich within the cultural political and historical contexts that both shape the films and are shaped by them Finally Mennel expands our notion of auteurism to include directors who engage in collaborative and creative processes rooted in communities Gus Van Sant Vincent LoBrutto, 2010-06-16 This incisive book provides an in depth critical and biographical study of the artistic range of film director Gus Van Sant Arranged chronologically Gus Van Sant His Own Private Cinema provides a comprehensive overview of the life and art of this talented director covering his mainstream commercial and avant garde projects More than a biography the book examines Van Sant s incredibly diverse body of work exploring the influence of his open homosexuality of fine art literature and music and of the range of cinema styles to which he has been exposed Stressing Van Sant s wide ranging content genre style and cinematic presentation author Vincent LoBrutto details the filmmaker's autobiographical tendencies and how he uses the film craft literature popular music and fine arts to create his movies The book dissects ways in which each of his films reflects Van Sant s sexual orientation whether the individual film has a gay theme or not Because of its importance to Van Sant's films the book also offers a history of gay culture past and present covering its influence on art music theater and dance as well as community activism and prejudice Framing Faust Inez Hedges, 2009-03-10 In this interdisciplinary cultural history that encompasses film literature music and drama Inez Hedges follows the thread of the Faustian rebel in the major intellectual currents of the last hundred years She presents Faust and his counterpart Mephistopheles as antagonistic yet complementary figures whose productive conflict was integral to such phenomena as the birth of narrative cinema the rise of modernist avant gardes before World War II and feminist critiques of Western cultural traditions Framing Faust Twentieth Century Cultural Struggles pursues a dialectical approach to cultural history Using the probing lens of cultural studies Hedges shows how claims to the Faustian legacy permeated the struggle against Nazism in the 1930s while infusing not only the search for socialist utopias in Russia France and Germany but also the quest for legitimacy on both sides of the Cold War divide after 1945 Hedges balances new perspectives on such well known works as Thomas Mann s Dr Faustus and Jack Kerouac s Dr Sax with discussions of previously overlooked twentieth century expressions of the Faust myth including American film noir and the Faust films of Stan Brakhage She evaluates musical compositions Hanns Eisler's Faust libretto the opera Votre Faust by Henri Pousseur and Michel Butor and Alfred Schnittke's Faust Cantata as well as works of fiction and drama in French and German many of which have heretofore never been discussed outside narrow disciplinary confines Enhanced by twenty four illustrations Framing Faust provides a fascinating and focused narrative of some of the major cultural struggles of the past century as seen through the Faustian prism and establishes Faust as an important present day frame of reference

Classical Reception Anastasia Bakogianni, Luis Unceta Gómez, 2024-07-22 In a time of acute crisis when our societies face a complex series of challenges race gender inclusivity changing pedagogical needs and a global pandemic we urgently need to re access the nature of our engagement with the Classical World This edited collection argues that we need to discover new ways to draw on our discipline and the material it studies to engage in meaningful ways with these new academic and societal challenges The chapters included in the collection interrogate the very processes of reception and continue the work of destabilising the concept of a pure source text or point of origin Our aim is to break through the boundaries that still divide our ancient texts and material culture from their reception and interpretive communities Our contributors engage with these questions theoretically and or through the close examination of cultural artefacts They problematise the concept of a Western elitist canon and actively push the geographical boundaries of reception as both a local and a global phenomenon Individually and cumulatively they actively engage with the question of how to marshal the classical past in our efforts to respond to the challenges of our mutable contemporary world

Eyes Upside Down P.

Adams Sitney, 2008-04-18 Sitney analyzes in detail the work of eleven American avant garde filmmakers as heirs to the aesthetics of exhilaration and innovative vision articulated by Ralph Waldo Emerson and explored by John Cage Charles Olson and Gertrude Stein The films discussed span the sixty years since the Second World War With three chapters each devoted to Stan Brakhage and Robert Beavers two each to Hollis Frampton and Jonas Mekas and single chapters on Marie Menken Ian Hugo Andrew Noren Warren Sonbert Su Friedrich Ernie Gehr and Abigail Child Eyes Upside Down is the fruit of Sitney's lifelong study of visionary aspirations in the American avant garde cinema Avant-Garde Film ,2015-07-14 This volume on avant garde film has emerged as part of a wider reassessment of 20th century avant garde art literature and film carried out in the framework of a research project at the University of Edinburgh It paves the way for a fresh assessment of avant garde film and develops its theory as an integral part of a newly defined conception of the avant garde as a whole by closing the gap between theoretical approaches towards the avant garde as defined on the basis of art and literature on the one hand and avant garde cinema on the other It gathers contributions by the most esteemed scholars in the field of avant garde studies relating to the classical avant garde cinema of the 1920s to new trends emerging in the 1950s and 1960s and to the impact that innovative technologies have recently had on the further development of avant garde and experimental film The contributions reflect the broad range of different moving image media that make up what we refer to today simply as film at the same time as reconsidering the applicability of the label avant garde to offer a comprehensive and updated framework that will prove invaluable to scholars of both Moving Image Studies and Art History disciplines in Rolling Stock, 1980-1990 Jerry White, 2018-04-19 This is a collection of writings by the giant of experimental cinema Stan Brakhage that shows him in a completely new light as part of world cinema For the duration of the 1980s Brakhage contributed to the Boulder literary magazine Rolling Stock mostly publishing reports from the Telluride Film Festival These reports show that Brakhage was keenly interested in world cinema anxious to meet and dialogue with filmmakers of many different stripes The book also contains substantial discussion of Brakhage's work in light of the filmmakers he encountered at Telluride and discussed in Rolling Stock Long chapters are given over to Soviet filmmakers such as Andrei Tarkovsky Larissa Shepitko and Sergei Parajanov as well as the German filmmaker Hans J rgen Syberberg Brakhage was a keen viewer of these filmmakers and their contemporaries both at Telluride and in his role as teacher at the University of Colorado and Stan Brakhage and Rolling Stock attempts to place his work alongside theirs and thus reclaim him for world cinema The book s appendices reprint letters Brakhage wrote to Stella Pence Telluride s co founder and managing director as well as summaries of his work for Telluride and a brace of difficult to find reviews The Hidden God Mary Lea Bandy, Antonio Monda, Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), 2003 offers a range of approaches to cinema s explorations of a hidden or absent God through a group of essays by thirty five writers who discuss some fifty movies p 11 The Canadian Horror Film Gina Freitag, André Loiselle, 2015-01-01 From the cheaply made tax shelter films of the 1970s to the latest wave of contemporary eco horror Canadian horror cinema has rarely received much critical attention Gina Freitag and Andr Loiselle rectify that situation in The Canadian Horror Film with a series of thought provoking reflections on Canada's terror of the soul a wasteland of docile damnation and prosaic pestilence where savage beasts and mad scientists rub elbows with pasty suburbanites grumpy seamen and baby faced porn stars Featuring chapters on Pontypool Ginger Snaps 1970s slasher films Quebec horror and the work of David Cronenberg among many others The Canadian Horror Film unearths the terrors hidden in the recesses of the Canadian psyche It examines the highlights of more than a century of Canadian horror filmmaking and includes an extensive filmography to guide both scholars and enthusiasts alike through this treacherous terrain Garde Film Alexander Graf, Dietrich Scheunemann, 2007 This volume on avant garde film has emerged as part of a wider reassessment of 20th century avant garde art literature and film carried out in the framework of a research project at the University of Edinburgh It paves the way for a fresh assessment of avant garde film and develops its theory as an integral part of a newly defined conception of the avant garde as a whole by closing the gap between theoretical approaches towards the avant garde as defined on the basis of art and literature on the one hand and avant garde cinema on the other It gathers contributions by the most esteemed scholars in the field of avant garde studies relating to the classical avant garde cinema of the 1920s to new trends emerging in the 1950s and 1960s and to the impact that innovative technologies have recently had on the further development of avant garde and experimental film The contributions reflect the broad range of different moving image media that make up what we refer to today simply as film at the same time as reconsidering the applicability of the label avant garde to offer a comprehensive and updated framework that will prove invaluable to scholars of both Moving Image Studies and Art History disciplines
