Performing Epic or Telling Tales seeks to contextualize and explain the narrative storytelling re turn in recent live performances a turn that regularly entails engagement with ancient Graeco Roman epics which have long provided poets playwrights artists and theatre makers with a storehouse of rich often perceived as raw material Refigured and refracted for the modern era the epics of ancient Greece and Rome are found to be particularly revealing and particularly telling of the contemporary wider cultural sphere Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Negotiating Performance Diana Taylor,Juan Villegas Morales,1994 In Negotiating Performance major scholars and practitioners of the theatrical arts consider the diversity of Latin American and U S Latino performance indigenous theater performance art living installations carnival public demonstrations and gender acts such as transvestism By redefining performance to include such events as Mayan and AIDS theater the Mothers of the Plaza de Mayo and Argentinean drag culture this energetic volume discusses the dynamics of Latino a identity politics and the sometimes discordant intersection of gender sexuality and nationalisms The Latin o America examined here stretches from Patagonia to New York City bridging the political and geographical divides between U S Latinos and Latin Americans Moving from Nuyorican casitas in the South Bronx to subversive street performances in Buenos Aires to border art from San Diego Tijuana this volume negotiates the borders that bring Americans together and keep them apart while at the same time debating the use of the contested term Latino a In the emerging dialogue contributors reenvision an inclusive Am rica a Latin o America that does not pit nationality against ethnicity in other words a shared space and a home to all Latin o Americans Negotiating Performance opens up the field of Latin o American theater and performance criticism by looking at performance work by Mayans women gays lesbians and other marginalized groups In so doing this volume will interest a wide audience of students and scholars in feminist and gender studies theater and performance studies and Latin American and Latino cultural studies Contributors Judith Bettelheim Sue Ellen Case Juan Flores Jean Franco Donald H Frischmann Guillermo G mez Pe a Jorge Huerta Tiffany Ana Lopez Jacqueline Laz Mar a Teresa Marrero Cherr e Moraga Kirsten F Nigro Patrick O Connor Jorge Salessi Alberto Sandoval Cynthia Steele Diana Taylor Juan Villegas Marguerite Waller The Drama of Schooling: The Schooling of Drama

Robert J. Starratt,2012-05-04 Starratt s highly original book offers fresh insights into the nature of teaching learning schooling as a multi cultural social enterprise and the importance of vision for that leadership by using the analogy of drama Schooling is a preparation to participate in the social drama both as an individual and as a community Beyond participation schooling can enable youngsters to maintain and restore the human purposes of the social drama This unique book accommodates present critics of schools from both the left and the right but goes beyond them to offer a script for restoring the schools to their human and social purposes Telling Stories With Photo Essays Susan Conklin Thompson,Kayenta Williams,2009-10 The authors offer a wealth of ways to engage children in expressing meaning and documenting experiences through photographs They provide all the practical help teachers need to use this exciting medium to expand children s ways of perceiving representing and thinking about their world Carol Copple Director of Publications and Initiatives in Educational Practice National Association for the Education of Young Children Give children new ways to express their thoughts and ideas When children create photo essays they are encouraged to share their thoughts in an authentic and personal way This creative new resource offers teachers ready to use tools and strategies for involving children in creating photo essays as a way to communicate ideas experiences and emotions Teachers will discover how to inspire children to capture the aesthetics of their environment document historical events and personal stories keep a record of what they learn and become advocates for causes as they explore responsible citizenship The book offers ideas and examples that illustrate how photo essays can be used As part of portfolios to record what children have learned To help boost the confidence of struggling writers including English language learners and children with special needs As an alternate assessment format to engage challenged students To meet state and national standards Photo essay activities are ideal for any teacher looking for new ways to nurture student expression excitement and creativity in the classroom Constructing Stories, Telling Tales Sarah Corrie, David A.

Lane, 2018-04-17 Formulation remains one of the most important activities that those using psychological approaches undertake as part of their work Arguably however formulation is an activity that remains poorly understood In a current climate demanding quick fix solutions there is a tendency which the authors refuse towards over simplification Instead this book sets out to explore the challenging complexity of psychological formulation By drawing on a wide range of sources from psychology and the arts the authors find ways to honour the stories clients tell yet offer key psychological insights to facilitate change They provide a clear guide to enable the reader to think about the purpose of their work with clients the perspectives which inform it and the process used to ensure effective outcomes The chapters supported by exercises on key issues examine key debates on the role of formulation in professional practice a framework for developing a systematic approach to formulation and a detailed account of the purpose perspective and process of formulation Ready-to-tell

Tales Bill Mooney, 1994 A multicultural collection of traditional tales contributed by more than forty of America's most experienced storytellers with tips for telling the stories Stages of Life Alberto Sandoval-Sánchez, Nancy Saporta Sternbach, 2023-01-10 Latina theater and solo performance emerged in the 1990s as vibrant energetic new genres found on stages from New York to Los Angeles Many women now work in all aspects of Latina theater often as playwrights or solo performers with practitioners ranging from teenagers to grandmothers Alberto Sandoval Sánchez and Nancy Saporta Sternbach have previously published a groundbreaking anthology of Latina theater Puro Teatro They now offer a critical analysis of theatrical works presenting a theoretical perspective from which to examine understand and contextualize Latina theater as a genre in its own right This is the first in depth study of the entire corpus of Latina theater based on close readings of works both published and in manuscript It considers a large body of productions and performances including works by such internationally known authors as Dolores Prida Cherr e Moraga and Janis Astor del Valle Applying feminist and postcolonial theory as well as theories of transculturation Sandoval S nchez and Sternbach show how despite cultural differences among Latinas their works share a common poetics by building upon the politics of representation identity and location In addition to covering theater this study also shows that solo performance has its own history properties structure and poetics It examines performances of Carmelita Tropicana Monica Palacios and Marga Gomez artists whose hybrid identities as Latina lesbians constitute living examples of transculturation in the making to show how solo performance has roots in and digresses from more traditional modes of theater With their Latina heritage as a unifying link these women reflect common traits patterns dramatic structures and properties that overcome regional differences Stages of Life reads these eclectic cultural productions as a unified body of work that contributes to the formation of Latina identity in America today     Representative One-act Plays by British and Irish Authors Barrett Harper Clark,1921     The Writer William Henry Hills,Robert Luce,1921     Motion Picture Story Magazine ,1927
