Kate William J. Mann, 2006-10-03 The first major Katharine Hepburn biography independent of her control reveals the smart complicated and sophisticated woman behind the image Onscreen she played society girls Spencer Tracy's sidekick lionesses in winter But the best character Katharine Hepburn ever created was Katharine Hepburn a Connecticut Yankee outspoken and elegant she wore pants whatever the occasion and bristled at Hollywood glitter So captivating was her image that she never seemed less than authentic But how well did we know her really Was there a woman behind the image who was more human more driven and ultimately more triumphant because of her vulnerability William J Mann a cultural historian and journalist a sympathetic admirer but no mere fan has fashioned an intimate often revisionist and truly unique close up that challenges much of what we think we know about the Great Kate Previous biographies mostly products of friends and fans have recycled the stories she hid behind taking Hollywood myths at face value Mann goes deeper delivering new details from friends and family who have not been previously interviewed and drawing on materials only available since Hepburn's death With affection intelligence and a voluminous knowledge of Hollywood history Mann shows us how a woman originally considered too special and controversial for fame learned the fine arts of movie stardom and transformed herself into an icon as durable and all American as the Statue of Liberty

The Tribal Imagination Robin Fox, 2011-03-08

Philadelphia John Lukacs, 2017-07-05 An unorthodox historian known and respected for his work on the grand conflicts of nations and civilizations John Lukacs has peopled a smaller canvas in this volume with seven colourful figures who flourished in Philadelphia before 1950 Their stories are framed by chapters that describe the city in 1900 and in 1950 The Philadelphians selected are a political boss Boies Penrose a magazine mogul Edward Bok an elegant writer Agnes Repplier an impetuous diplomat William C Bullitt a lawyer George Wharton Pepper a prophet of decline Owen Wister and a great art collector Albert C Barnes The political boss was perhaps the most monumental political figure of his age The magazine mogul was the most famous embodiment of the American success story during his lifetime The now almost forgotten writer was the Jane Austen of the essay The diplomat was the most brilliant of ambassadors The terrible tempered collector was a radical proponent of his unusual theory of art Through these seven portraits Lukacs paints a picture of Philadelphia that is like all living things having the power to change out of recognition and yet remain the same This work is a must read for all historians and Philadelphians

Your Choice! Tiona Gunthorpe, 2010-03-17 What do you think shapes our identity Is it your family Your environment Your peers friends Your mind As you read through this book different characters will be introduced to you in which everyone are unique individuals but at the same time are influenced largely from other entities outside of themselves Family on the other hand serves as a foundation for some But think about your best friend or your boyfriend girlfriend Think about the relationship itself that makes a person fulfill such titles as best friend boyfriend girlfriend The choices we make and the way we deal with things has a lot to do with our individual experiences as well as what we have learned from the people around us If one is unsuccessful with a stage even if one moves on to the next stage they will still have to at some point address and successfully complete that stage If not it may effect how an individual passes effectively through the next stages
