Ten Contemporaries Notes Toward Their De

Joanne Winning

Ten Contemporaries Notes Toward Their De:

The Pilgrimage of Dorothy Richardson Joanne Winning, 2000 Pilgrimage Dorothy Richardson's thirteen volume opus of autobiographical fiction follows the entire arc of an independent woman's life in early twentieth century Britain. It is one of the major works of the modernist period; indeed, it is considered by many a classic of modernist literature. In this book, Joanne Winning argues in this book, however, that Richardson's novels continue to be misunderstood in several important ways. Winning is the first critic to fully explore the issues of lesbian identity in the novels. Examining primary materials, manuscript drafts, and Richardson's previously unstudied correspondence, Winning demonstrates that Pilgrimage contains a carefully constructed though concealed subtext of lesbian desire and sexuality. The Pilgrimage of Dorothy Richardson explores the ways in which Richardson used such cultural forms as sexology, psychoanalysis, and other lesbian and modernist literature of her time to create an intertextual dialogue about lesbian identity. Winning suggests that a sustained reading of lesbian sexuality in Pilgrimage is crucial to a more complete understanding of Richardson's long and sometimes difficult work. Winning also places Pilgrimage in the context of other works by female modernist writers that record lesbian identity. This approach, Winning suggests, is the first step toward recognizing and defining a literary movement that can be termed lesbian modernism, as well as toward a deeper understanding of how lesbian modernist writers helped shape modernist literature as a whole.

The Shape of Fear Susan Jennifer Navarette, 2014-07-11 During the last decades of the nineteenth century, Charles Darwin, Thomas Henry Huxley, Walter Pater, and others changed the nature of thought concerning the human body and the physical environment that had shaped it. In response, the 1890s saw the publication of a series of remarkable literary works that had their genesis in the intense scientific and aesthetic activity of those preceding decades: texts that emphasized themes of degeneration and were themselves stylistically decompositive with language both a surrogate for physical deformity and a source of anxiety. Susan J. Navarette examines the ways in which scientific and cultural concerns of late nineteenth century England are coded in the horror literature of the period. By contextualizing the structural, stylistic, and thematic systems developed by writers seeking to reenact textually the entropic forces they perceived in the natural world, Navarette reconstructs the late Victorian mentality. She analyzes aesthetic responses to trends in contemporary science and explores horror writers' use of scientific methodologies to support their perception that a long-awaited period of cultural decline had begun. In her analysis of the classics Turn of the Screw and Heart of Darkness, Navarette shows how James and Conrad made artistic use of earlier scientific readings of the body. She also considers works by lesser-known authors: Walter de la Mare, Vernon Lee, and Arthur Machen, who produced fin de siècle stories that took the form of hybrid literary monstrosities. To underscore the fascination with bodily decay and deformation that these writers explored, The Shape of Fear is enhanced with prints and line drawings by Victor Hugo, James Ensor, and other artists of the day. This elegantly written book formulates a new canon of late Victorian fiction that will intrigue scholars of literature and cultural history. New

Woman Fiction, 1881-1899, Part III vol 8 Carolyn W de la L Oulton, Andrew King, Paul March-Russell, 2017-09-29 The novels in this collection include one by a fierce opponent to the New Woman movement as well as two from women whose work can be seen as archetypal New Woman fiction     'For That Moment Only' and Other Prose Works, by Michael Field Michael Field, 2022-07-04 Over the past thirty years the work of Michael Field the penname of the couple Katharine Bradley and Edith Cooper has become established as one of the most important and unique literary voices of the fin de siècle Although they are today remembered for their lyric poetry and verse drama by sheer weight of volume alone Bradley and Cooper wrote far more prose than poetry Their diaries contain over a million words and their letters and notebooks are extensive Yet little of that prose has been made available to readers without access to the collections at the British Library London and the Bodleian Library Oxford For a significant period in the 1890s Bradley and Cooper concentrated their energies on prose A number of the prose works completed between 1889 and 1894 were collected by them in two series under the title For That Moment Only Inspired by Walter Pater and the latest developments in French literature these croquis prose sketches or prose poems are their most concerted attempt to be contemporaneous to capture fleeting experiences in exquisite prose Clearly intended at one point for publication the sketches were abandoned following their decisive break with their mentor Bernard Berenson and his partner Mary Costelloe in 1895 Along with the entire text of For That Moment Only this volume also brings together Michael Field's published stories and essays other miscellaneous short prose located within their manuscripts and their experiments with prose form found in Works and Days their compendious diary With an extensive scholarly introduction and authoritative notes the volume places experimental short prose at the heart of Michael Field's creative project opening Bradley and Cooper's work up to a readership which has hitherto associated them only with lyric poetry and verse drama     Modern Character Julian Murphet, 2024-03-05 In this groundbreaking and comprehensive study Julian Murphet examines how dramatists and prose writers at the turn of the twentieth century experimented with new forms of modern character Old truisms of character such as consistency depth and verisimilitude are eschewed in favour of inconsistency bad faith and fragmentation     The Economy of the Short Story in British Periodicals of the 1890s Winnie Chan, 2007-01-23 This materialist study of the short story's development in three diverse magazines reveals how at the dawn of modernism commercial pressures prompted modernist formal innovation in popular magazines whilst anti commercial opacity paradoxically formed the basis of an effective marketing strategy that appealed to elitism Integrating methods of cultural studies with formal analyses this study builds upon recent work challenging Andreas Huyssen's provocative formation the great divide of modernism     The British Short Story Emma Liggins, Andrew Maunder, Ruth Robbins, 2017-09-16 The short story remains a crucial if neglected part of British literary heritage This accessible and up to date critical overview maps out the main strands and figures that shaped the British short story and novella from the 1850s to the present It offers new readings of both classic and forgotten texts in a clear jargon free way     Daughters of

Decadence Elaine Showalter, 1993 This collection brings together 20 short stories of the fin de siècle and includes such writers as George Egerton Charlotte Perkins Gilman Vernon Lee Ada Leveson and Olive Schreiner The stories range from the lyrical to the Gothic and frequently deal with the conflicts of women writers At the turn of the century short stories by and often about New Women flooded the pages of English and American magazines like The Yellow Book The Savoy Atlantic Monthly and Harpers This daring new fiction often innovative in form and courageous in its candid literary aspiration shocked Victorian critics who parodied the experimental stories in Punch as symptoms of fin de siècle decadence or denounced the authors as literary degenerates or erotomaniacs This collection brings together twenty of the most original and important stories including such little known writers as Victoria Cross George Egerton Vernon Lee Constance Fenimore Wollson and Charlotte Mew Ranging from the lyrical to the Gothic and frequently dealing with the conflicts of women artists the short fiction of the fin de siècle is the missing link between the Golden Age of Victorianism women writers and the new era of feminist modernism

A History of Modernist Literature Andrzej Gasiorek, 2015-04-20 A History of Modernist Literature offers a critical overview of modernism in England between the late 1890s and the late 1930s focusing on the writers texts and movements that were especially significant in the development of modernism during these years A stimulating and coherent account of literary modernism in England which emphasizes the artistic achievements of particular figures and offers detailed readings of key works by the most significant modernist authors whose work transformed early twentieth century English literary culture Provides in depth discussion of intellectual debates the material conditions of literary production and dissemination and the physical locations in which writers lived and worked The first large scale book to provide a systematic overview of modernism as it developed in England from the late 1890s through to the late 1930s

Decadent Ecology in British Literature and Art, 1860-1910 Dennis Denisoff, 2021-12-16 Casting fresh light on late nineteenth and early twentieth century British art literature ecological science and paganism Decadent Ecology reveals the pervasive influence of decadence and paganism on modern understandings of nature and the environment queer and feminist politics national identities and changing social hierarchies Combining scholarship in the environmental humanities with aesthetic and literary theory this interdisciplinary study digs into works by Simeon Solomon Algernon Swinburne Walter Pater Robert Louis Stevenson Vernon Lee Michael Field Arthur Machen and others to address trans temporal trans species intimacy the vagabondage of place the erotics of decomposition occult ecology decadent feminism and neo paganism Decadent Ecology reveals the mutually influential relationship of art and science during the formulation of modern ecological environmental evolutionary and trans national discourses while also highlighting the dissident dynamism of new and recuperative pagan spiritualities primarily Celtic Nordic Germanic Greco Roman and Egyptian in the framing of personal social and national identities

Migrant Resistance in Contemporary Europe Maurice Stierl,2018-10-31 Over the past few years increased unauthorised migrations into the territories of Europe have resulted in one of the most severe crises in the history of the European Union Stierl explores migration and border struggles in contemporary Europe and the ways in which they animate problematise and transform the region and its political formation This volume follows public protests of migrant activists less visible attempts of those on the move to irregularly subvert borders as well as new solidarities and communities that emerge in interwoven struggles for the freedom of movement Stierl offers a conceptualisation of migrant resistances as forces of animation through which European forms of border governance can be productively explored As catalysts that set socio political processes into frictional motion they are developed as modes of critical investigation indeed as method By ethnographically following and being implicated in different migration struggles that contest the ways in which Europe decides over and enacts who does and does not belong the author probes what they reveal about the condition of Europe in the contemporary moment This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of Migration Border Security and Citizenship Studies as well as the Political Sciences more generally

Book Destruction from the Medieval to the Contemporary G. Partington,A. Smyth,2014-09-09 This rich and varied collection of essays by scholars and interviews with artists approaches the fraught topic of book destruction from a new angle setting out an alternative history of the cutting burning pulping defacing and tearing of books from the medieval period to our own age

The Figure of the Animal in Modern and Contemporary Poetry Michael Malay,2018-06-05 This book argues that there are deep connections between poetic thinking and the sensitive recognition of creaturely others It explores this proposition in relation to four poets Marianne Moore Elizabeth Bishop Ted Hughes and Les Murray Through a series of close readings and by paying close attention to issues of sound rhythm simile metaphor and image it explores how poetry cultivates a special openness towards animal others The thinking behind this book is inspired by J M Coetzee s The Lives of Animals In particular it takes up that book s suggestion that poetry invites us to relate to animals in an open ended and sympathetic manner Poets according to Elizabeth Costello the book s protagonist return the living electric being to language and doing so compel us to open our hearts towards animals and the claims they make upon us There are special affinities for her between the music of poetry and the recognition of others But what might it mean to say that poets to return life to language And why might this have any bearing on our relationship with animals Beyond offering many suggestive starting points Elizabeth Costello says very little about the nature of poetry's special relationship with the animal one aim of this study then is to ask of what this relationship consists not least by examining the various ways poets have bodied forth animals in language      Short Story Paul March-Russell, 2009-05-15 This new general introduction emphasises the importance of the short story to an understanding of modern fiction In twenty succinct chapters the study paints a complete portrait of the short story its history culture aesthetics and economics European innovators such as Chekhov Flaubert and Kafka are compared to Irish New Zealand and British practitioners such as Joyce Mansfield and Carter as well as writers in the American tradition from Hawthorne and Poe to Barthelme and Carver Fresh attention is paid to experimental postcolonial and popular fiction alongside developments in Anglo American Hispanic and European literature Critical approaches to the short story are debated and reassessed while discussion of the short story is related to contemporary critical theory In what promises to be essential reading for students and academics the study sets out to prove that the short story remains vital to the emerging culture of the twenty first century      *Contemporary Pragmatism. Andreach, 2014-07-16 This book refutes the claim that tragedy is no longer a vital and relevant part of contemporary American theatre Tragedy in the Contemporary American Theatre examines plays by multiple contemporary playwrights and compares them alongside the works of America's major twentieth century tragedians Eugene O'Neill Arthur Miller and Tennessee Williams The book argues that tragedy is not only present in contemporary American theatre but issues from an expectation fundamental to American culture the pressure on characters to create themselves Tragedy in the Contemporary American Theatre concludes that tragedy is vital and relevant though not always in the Aristotelian model the standard for traditional evaluation      The Connoisseur, 1933
