

TEN FILM CLASSICS A Re-Viewing

The background of the entire cover is a dense collage of film stills. The color palette is strictly red and black. The stills are cut out and pasted together at various angles. Notable faces include a man in a fedora (likely Humphrey Bogart), a man with a mustache (likely James Cagney), a woman with blonde hair (likely Marilyn Monroe), and a man with glasses shouting (likely Al Pacino). The collage creates a sense of cinematic history and variety.

Ten Film Classics Edward Murray, 1978 100 Spiritual Movies to See before You Die John A. Zukowski, 2023-11-15
Spiritual themes are common in movies The unconventional savior The hero's journey The redemption tale The balance of creation Journalist John A Zukowski reflects on twelve major spiritual themes in the world of cinema discussing films from Dead Man Walking to Bruce Almighty from Groundhog Day to Chariots of Fire and many more See them all read them all before you die Understanding Film James R Russo, 2021-01-12 This film analysis textbook contains sixteen essays on historically significant artistically superior films released between 1922 and 1982 Written for college high school and university students the essays cover central issues raised in today's cinema courses and provide students with practical models to help them improve their own writing and analytical skills This film casebook is geographically diverse with eight countries represented Italy France the United States Russia Germany Great Britain Japan and India The essays sophisticated yet not overly technical or jargon heavy are perfect introductions to their respective films as well as important contributions to the field of film studies in general The book's critical apparatus features credits images and bibliographies for all films discussed filmographies for the directors a glossary of film terms the elements of film analysis a chronology of film theory and criticism topics for writing and discussion a bibliography of film criticism and a comprehensive index Understanding Film A Viewers Guide bucks the trend of current film analysis texts few of which contain actual film analyses by promoting analysis of the chosen films alongside the methods and techniques of film analysis It has been prepared as a primary text for courses in film analysis and a supplementary text for courses such as Introduction to Film or Film Appreciation History of Film or Survey of Cinema and Film Directors or Film Style and Imagination Turner Classic Movies: The Essentials Jeremy Arnold, 2016-05-03 At head of title TCM Turner Classic Movies Movie Acting, the Film Reader Pamela Robertson Wojcik, 2004 Combining classic and recent essays and examining key issues such as Movie Acting the Film Reader explores one of the most central but often overlooked aspects of cinema film acting Beyond the Stars: Locales in American popular film Paul Loukides, Linda K. Fuller, 1990 One of five volumes devoted to exploring some of the peripheral aspects of American films Essays describe the depiction of such geographical and conceptual places as Arizona and the Arabic world such public and ritual spaces as churches and western saloons and such private arenas and commonplace spaces as the men's room and poolsides Not illustrated No index Paper edition unseen 18 95 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR On the Waterfront Joanna E. Rapf, 2003-06-30 Table of contents Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad, 2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Grønstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Transfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs Leonard Bernstein in Creating the Couple Virginia Wright Wexman,2021-10-12 Who decides how when and where Americans fall in love and get married Virginia Wexman s acute observations about movie stars and acting techniques show that Hollywood has often had the most powerful voice in demonstrating socially sanctioned ways of becoming a couple Until now serious film critics have paid little attention to the impact of performance styles on American romance and have often treated patriarchy sexuality and the couple as monolithic and unproblematic concepts Wexman however shows how these notions have been periodically transformed in close association with the appearance behavior and persona of the stars of films such as The Maltese Falcon The Big Sleep Way Down East The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance Sunset Boulevard On the Waterfront

Nashville House of Games and Do the Right Thing The author focuses first on the way in which traditional marriage norms relate to authorship the Griffith Gish collaboration and genre John Wayne and the Western Looking at male and female stardom in terms of the development of companionate marriage she discusses the love goddess and the impact of method acting on Hollywood's ideals of maleness Finally she considers the recent breakdown of the ideal of monogamous marriage in relation to Hollywood's experimentation with self reflexive acting styles Creating the Couple is must reading for film scholars and enthusiasts and it will fascinate everyone interested in the changing relationships of men and women in modern culture

Filmography of American History Grant Tracey,2001-11-30 Containing over 200 films this resource is ideal for students teachers and other viewers who are interested in using films to enhance their knowledge of American historical events and periods Along with traditional historical categories such as the two World Wars the Civil War and the Great Depression the book emphasizes immigrant multicultural and women centered films to portray the fullness of the American experience It also analyzes representations of people and events across different films for a variety of viewpoints and considers how films reconfigure a past era through the issues of the day in which they were produced For ease of use the book is organized into time periods Each entry contains the setting director cast credits the year of production distributor Ratings are supplied to identify audience appropriateness The detailed narrative supplies a brief plot summary along with a thesis supported by strong examples from the film such as excerpts of dialogue and factual details from history The entries encourage readers to view the film through the lens of history and to consider it within the larger nexus of films listed in that particular chapter Frequently the historical focus considers both the time period depicted in the film and the time period in which it was made The running times provide readers with a quick access to key scenes for further study Each entry also concludes with sources for further reading and indexes identify those films with multicultural and women's themes

Management and Organization Paradoxes Stewart R. Clegg,2002-06-07 Paradox the simultaneous existence of two inconsistent states has become orthodox The orthodox is now the paradox The orthodox world of ordering controlling and organizing is increasingly opposed to a normalizing world of disordering disrupting and disorganizing And organization studies cannot avoid changing its conceptions of reality as that reality changes In the future organization studies will be the study of paradox how to understand it how to use it In this book of original contributions addressed to management and organization paradoxes the authors address the new state of the field in terms of representations representing paradoxes and materialisations materialising paradoxes The themes although varied ranging from dialectics to internal tensions from collaborations to ethics and value conflicts from resistant labourers and wharfies to cartoon characters such as The Simpsons from the irrationalities of finance to the psychoanalytic rationalities of auditing and from issues of governance in Asian and international business to the composition of the new knowledge work force in the business professions cohere around core aspects of paradoxicality Overall the contributions to Management and Organization Paradoxes are diverse and challenging

Each contribution takes a different angle on the central theme All of the chapters illuminate diverse aspects of contemporary paradoxes in management and organization theory The book provides in each of its chapters a challenge to the still overwhelmingly rationalist views of theory and practice that dominate the field and provides new directions for understanding organizations and management The contributors are drawn from leading European Australian and Latin American contributors
